BROADSOFT, INC.
9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350
Gaithersburg, Maryland 20878

December 13, 2017

Dear Stockholder:

We invite you to attend a special meeting of stockholders of BroadSoft, Inc. (“BroadSoft” or “we,” “us” or “our”) to be held at BroadSoft’s headquarters at 9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20878, at 9:00 a.m., local time, on January 25, 2018 (the “Special Meeting”). Only holders of record of BroadSoft common stock at the close of business on December 11, 2017 (the “Record Date”), will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the Special Meeting.

At the Special Meeting, we will ask you to vote for the adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 20, 2017, by and among Cisco Systems, Inc. (“Cisco”), Brooklyn Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco, and BroadSoft (the “merger agreement”). As a result of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement (the “merger”), BroadSoft will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco.

We are also asking you (a) to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger and (b) to expressly grant the authority to vote your shares to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

If the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive $55.00 in cash, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding, for each share of BroadSoft common stock that you own (unless you have properly and validly demanded and perfected your statutory rights of appraisal with regard to the merger), and you will have no ongoing ownership interest in the continuing business of BroadSoft. We cannot complete the merger unless all of the conditions to the completion of the merger, including the adoption of the merger agreement by holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock and the receipt of certain regulatory approvals, are satisfied or waived.

Our board of directors carefully reviewed and considered the terms and conditions of the proposed merger. Based on its review, our board of directors has unanimously (a) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, (b) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, taken together, are at a price and on terms that are fair to, and in the best interest of BroadSoft and its stockholders, (c) approved the execution, delivery and performance by BroadSoft of the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (d) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger, “FOR” the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT.

In the materials accompanying this letter, you will find a Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders, a proxy statement relating to the actions to be taken by our stockholders at the Special Meeting and a proxy card. The proxy statement includes other important information about the merger agreement and the merger. We encourage you to read the entire proxy statement and its annexes carefully. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to the attached proxy statement.

Your vote is very important, regardless of how many shares you own. Whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting, please complete, sign, date and return your proxy card in the enclosed envelope as promptly as possible or submit your proxy over the Internet or by telephone as instructed in these materials. It is important that your shares be represented and voted at the Special Meeting. If you are a stockholder of record on the Record Date, you may vote in person at the Special Meeting as you wish, even if you have previously returned your proxy card or appointed a proxy over the Internet or by telephone. If your shares are held in the name of your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote in person at the Special Meeting.

If your shares of BroadSoft common stock are held in street name by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee, your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee will be unable to vote your shares of common stock without instructions from you. You should instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee as to how to vote your shares of BroadSoft common stock, following the procedures provided by your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee. The failure to instruct your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to vote your shares of BroadSoft common stock “FOR” approval of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger will have the same effect as voting against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby against the merger.

If you have any questions or need assistance voting your shares of BroadSoft common stock, please call MacKenzie Partners, Inc., our proxy solicitor, toll-free at 1-800-322-2885.

On behalf of our board of directors, I thank you for your support and urge you to vote “FOR” the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger.

Sincerely,

Michael Tessler

President and Chief Executive Officer

Neither the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities regulator has approved or disapproved the merger described in the proxy statement or determined if the proxy statement is adequate or accurate. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON JANUARY 25, 2018

The proxy statement is dated December 13, 2017, and the proxy statement and form of proxy are first being mailed to stockholders of BroadSoft, Inc. on or about December 15, 2017.

Dear Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend the Special Meeting of Stockholders of BroadSoft, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“BroadSoft” or “we,” “us” or “our”), that will be held at BroadSoft’s headquarters at 9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20878, at 9:00 a.m., local time, on January 25, 2018 (the “Special Meeting”), for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 20, 2017, by and among Cisco Systems, Inc. (“Cisco”), Brooklyn Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco, and BroadSoft (the “merger agreement”);
2. To consider and vote, on an advisory basis, upon a proposal to approve the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger; and
3. To vote to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Our board of directors carefully reviewed and considered the terms and conditions of the merger contemplated by the merger agreement (the “merger”). Based on its review, our board of directors has unanimously (a) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, (b) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, taken together, are at a price and on terms that are fair to, and in the best interest of BroadSoft and its stockholders, (c) approved the execution, delivery and performance by BroadSoft of the merger agreement and consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and (d) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. This item of business to be submitted to a vote of the stockholders at the Special Meeting is more fully described in the attached proxy statement, which we urge you to read carefully. Our board of directors also unanimously recommends that you (i) vote to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger and (ii) expressly grant the authority to vote your shares to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement. We are not aware of any other business to come before the Special Meeting.

Stockholders of record at the close of business on December 11, 2017 (the “Record Date”), are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting. All stockholders are cordially invited to attend the Special Meeting in person. Adoption of the merger agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to vote thereon at the close of business on the Record Date.

BroadSoft stockholders will have the right to demand appraisal of their shares of common stock and obtain payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of common stock, but only if they submit a written demand for an appraisal before the vote is taken on the adoption of the merger agreement and comply with the applicable provisions of Delaware law. A copy of the Delaware statutory provisions relating to appraisal rights is included as Annex C to the attached proxy statement, and a summary of these provisions can be found under “The Merger — Appraisal Rights” in the attached proxy statement.

You should not send any certificates representing shares of BroadSoft common stock with your proxy card. Upon completion of the merger, you will be sent instructions regarding the procedure to exchange your stock certificates for the cash merger consideration.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE “FOR” THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THEREBY APPROVE THE MERGER, “FOR” THE APPROVAL, ON AN ADVISORY BASIS, OF THE COMPENSATION THAT BROADSOFT’S NAMED EXECUTIVE OFFICERS MAY RECEIVE IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER, AND “FOR” THE PROPOSAL TO ADJOURN THE SPECIAL MEETING IF NECESSARY TO PERMIT FURTHER SOLICITATION OF PROXIES IF THERE ARE NOT SUFFICIENT VOTES AT THE TIME OF THE SPECIAL MEETING TO ADOPT THE MERGER AGREEMENT. YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT.

Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares you own. Even if you plan to attend the Special Meeting in person, we request that you complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or appoint a proxy over the Internet or by telephone as instructed in these materials, to ensure that your shares will be represented and voted at the Special Meeting if you are unable to attend. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approval of the merger, for the approval of the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger and to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

If you fail to return your proxy card or if you fail to appoint a proxy over the Internet or by telephone, your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Special Meeting and will have the same effect as a vote against adoption of the merger agreement, but will have no effect on the vote to approve the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger or to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement. If you do attend the Special Meeting and wish to vote in person, you may withdraw your proxy and vote in person. If your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote in person at the Special Meeting.

No person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representations other than those set forth in the proxy statement in connection with the solicitation of proxies made hereby, and, if given or made, such information must not be relied upon as having been authorized by BroadSoft or any other person.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Mary Ellen Seravalli
Secretary

December 13, 2017

SUMMARY TERM SHEET

This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. To fully understand the merger contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 20, 2017, by and among Cisco Systems, Inc. (“Cisco”), Brooklyn Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco, and BroadSoft, Inc. (“BroadSoft” or “we,” “us” or “our”) (the “merger agreement” and the merger contemplated thereby, the “merger”), and for a more complete description of the legal terms of the merger agreement, you should read carefully this entire proxy statement and the documents to which we refer. See “Other Matters — Where You Can Find More Information” (page 90) to obtain additional information on BroadSoft. We have included page references in parentheses to direct you to a more complete description of the topics presented in this summary. The merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement. We encourage you to read the merger agreement as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

BroadSoft, Inc. (page 14). BroadSoft is a leading global provider of software and services that enable telecommunications service providers to deliver hosted, cloud-based Unified Communications, or UC, to their enterprise customers. Traditionally, many enterprises have utilized premise-based private branch exchanges, or PBX’s, to connect their offices and people to public telephony networks. Hosted UC enables the delivery of PBX features without the need for premise-based equipment. Hosted UC can be delivered through service providers using their own internet protocol, or IP-based networks and their mobile networks, as well as over the public internet (also known as “over the top” or OTT). In addition to voice telephony, UC offers additional features such as full integration with mobile devices, high definition, or HD, voice and video calling and conferencing, instant messaging and presence, or IM&P, team collaboration and desktop sharing.

Cisco Systems, Inc. and Brooklyn Acquisition Corp. (page 14). Cisco is a California corporation that designs and sells a broad range of technologies that have been powering the Internet since 1984. Across networking, security, collaboration and the cloud, Cisco’s evolving intent-based technologies are constantly learning and adapting to provide customers with a highly secure, intelligent platform for their digital business. Brooklyn Acquisition Corp. (“Merger Sub”) is a newly formed Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco that has been formed specifically for the purpose of participating in the merger transaction with BroadSoft.

The Merger (page 20). Under the merger agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into BroadSoft, and BroadSoft will be the surviving corporation in the merger. After the completion of the merger, Cisco will own all outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock. Our stockholders will receive cash in the merger in exchange for their shares of BroadSoft common stock.

Merger Consideration (page 64). If the merger is completed, you will receive $55.00 in cash, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding, in exchange for each share of BroadSoft common stock that you own unless you properly dissent and seek appraisal of the fair value of your shares in accordance with Delaware law. After the merger is completed, you will have the right to receive the merger consideration, but you will no longer have any rights as a BroadSoft stockholder.

Treatment of Equity Awards (page 65). Each outstanding vested stock option, vested restricted stock unit (“RSU”) and vested performance stock unit (“PSU”) granted under BroadSoft’s equity plans (including such stock options, RSUs and PSUs that vest in connection with the merger) will terminate and be converted into the right to receive from Cisco an amount of cash equal to $55.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, the excess, if any, of $55.00 over the exercise price of such option), without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. Each outstanding unvested stock option, unvested RSU and unvested PSU granted under BroadSoft’s equity plans held by the continuing employees and consultants of BroadSoft or its subsidiaries as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into and substituted for the right to receive from Cisco an amount of cash equal to $55.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, the excess, if any, of $55.00 over the exercise price of such option) (“unvested cash”), payable in accordance with the service-based vesting schedule for such equity award (including any applicable terms relating to termination and accelerated vesting of the equity award), without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. The unvested cash payable with respect to unvested PSUs will no longer be subject to performance-based vesting criteria but service-based vesting criteria only.

Market for the Common Stock; Dividend Data (page 89). BroadSoft common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the ticker symbol “BSFT.” On August 29, 2017, the last full trading day prior to published speculation regarding a potential transaction involving BroadSoft, BroadSoft common stock closed at $43.05 per share. On October 20, 2017, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger, BroadSoft common stock closed at $53.90 per share. On December 12, 2017, the last full trading day prior to the date of this proxy statement, BroadSoft common stock closed at $54.60 per share. Our stock price can fluctuate broadly even over short periods of time. It is impossible to predict the actual price of our stock immediately prior to the completion of the merger. We have never declared or paid dividends on our capital stock.

Reasons for the Merger (page 29). In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger and the merger agreement, our board of directors considered possible alternative transactions involving us, as well as the merger described in this proxy statement, and considered a number of factors in its deliberations. Those factors are described below in this proxy statement.

Opinions of BroadSoft’s Financial Advisors (page 31). Our board of directors retained Qatalyst Partners LP (which we refer to as Qatalyst Partners) and Jefferies LLC (which we refer to as Jefferies) as its financial advisors in connection with the potential sale of BroadSoft. Qatalyst Partners and Jefferies each delivered an opinion to our board of directors to the effect that, as of October 20, 2017 and based on and subject to the matters considered, the procedures followed, the assumptions made and various limitations of and qualifications to the review undertaken, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of BroadSoft common stock (excluding Cisco or any affiliate of Cisco). You should read carefully and in their entirety the full text of Qatalyst Partners’ and Jefferies’ written opinions attached as Annex B-1 and Annex B-2, respectively, to this proxy statement, which are subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and other conditions contained in such opinions and are necessarily based on economic, capital markets and other conditions, and the information made available to Qatalyst Partners and Jefferies, as of the date of such opinions.

For a description of the opinions that our board of directors received from Qatalyst Partners and from Jefferies, see “The Merger — Opinions of BroadSoft’s Financial Advisors” beginning on page 31.

Vote Required and Recommendation of the Board of Directors (pages 48, 85 and 86). Our board of directors has unanimously (a) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, (b) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, taken together, are at a price and on terms that are fair to, and in the best interest of BroadSoft and its stockholders, (c) approved the execution, delivery and performance by BroadSoft of the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and (d) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger, “FOR” the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, and “FOR” the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page 48). In considering the unanimous recommendation of our board of directors to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, you should be aware that the consummation of the merger will result in certain benefits to our directors and executive officers that are not available to our stockholders generally, including the following:

- accelerated vesting, upon the effective time of the merger, of the RSUs, held by non-employee non-continuing directors, as described in more detail below under the section of this proxy statement captioned “The Merger — Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger”;
- the entitlement of each executive officer to receive cash severance payments and benefits either under his existing Change in Control Severance Benefits Agreement or under a new employment agreement entered into with Cisco in connection with the merger, if his employment is terminated without cause or with good reason within 12 months or three years, as applicable, following the merger, as described in more detail below under the sections captioned “The Merger — Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger”;
- accelerated vesting and payment of unvested cash in connection with qualifying termination of an executive officer’s employment following the merger, as described in more detail below under the sections captioned “The Merger — Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger”; and
- continuation of certain indemnification and insurance arrangements.

In addition, Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen have entered into employment agreements with Cisco setting forth the terms and conditions of these executives’ continued employment with Cisco from and after the closing of the merger, as further described under the section “The Merger — Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” below.

Appraisal Rights (page 56). If you do not wish to accept the $55.00 per share cash consideration in the merger, you have the right under Delaware law to have your shares appraised by the Delaware Chancery Court. This “right of appraisal” is subject to a number of restrictions and technical requirements. Generally, to exercise appraisal rights, among other things, (a) you must NOT vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, (b) you must make a written demand for appraisal in compliance with Delaware law BEFORE the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and (c) you must hold shares of BroadSoft common stock on the date of making the demand for appraisal and continuously hold such shares through the completion of the merger. The fair value of your shares of BroadSoft common stock as determined in accordance with Delaware law may be more or less than, or the same as, the merger consideration to be paid to non-dissenting stockholders in the merger. Merely voting against the adoption of the merger agreement will not preserve your right of appraisal under Delaware law. Annex C to this proxy statement contains a copy of the Delaware statute relating to stockholders’ right of appraisal. Failure to follow all of the steps required by this statute may result in the loss of your appraisal rights. We encourage you to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety.

Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page 59). In general, the receipt of cash by you in exchange for your shares of BroadSoft common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Generally, subject to the more complete summary referenced in the next sentence, if you are a “U.S. person” (as defined in such summary) this means that for U.S. federal income tax purposes you will recognize taxable gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between the total amount of cash you receive in the merger for your shares of BroadSoft common stock and your adjusted tax basis in such shares. You should read “The Merger — Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning on page 59 for a more complete summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters can be complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisor to understand fully the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Antitrust Matters (page 61). The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the “HSR Act”), and certain other applicable foreign antitrust laws prohibits us from completing the merger until we have furnished certain information and materials to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, the Federal Trade Commission and certain applicable foreign antitrust authorities and the required waiting periods under the HSR Act have expired or been terminated and certain applicable foreign antitrust approvals have been obtained. BroadSoft and Cisco each filed the requisite notification and report forms with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division on November 13, 2017. Cisco is withdrawing its filing on December 13, 2017, and will refile on December 15, 2017 to provide the antitrust agencies more time to review the transaction. Both BroadSoft and Cisco will also file in certain other applicable foreign jurisdictions.

Time, Date and Place. The Special Meeting will be held (a) to consider and vote upon the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger, (b) to consider and vote, on an advisory basis, on the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger and (c) to vote to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. The Special Meeting will be held at BroadSoft’s headquarters at 9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20878, at 9:00 a.m., local time, on January 25, 2018.

Record Date and Voting Power. You are entitled to vote at the Special Meeting if you owned shares of BroadSoft common stock at the close of business on December 11, 2017, the record date for the Special Meeting (the “Record Date”). You will have one vote at the Special Meeting for each share of BroadSoft common stock you owned at the close of business on the Record Date. There are 31,775,976 shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to be voted at the Special Meeting.

Procedure for Voting. To vote, you can (a) complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, (b) appoint a proxy over the Internet or by telephone or (c) attend the Special Meeting and vote in person. If your shares are held in “street name” by your broker, bank or other nominee, you should instruct your broker to vote your shares by following the instructions provided by your broker. Your broker will not vote your shares without instruction from you. Failure to instruct your broker to vote your shares will have the same effect as a vote “against” the adoption of the merger agreement, but will have no effect on the other two proposals.

Required Vote.

- The adoption of the merger agreement, and thereby approval of the merger, requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to vote thereon at the close of business on the Record Date.
- The proposal to consider and vote, on an advisory basis, upon a proposal to approve the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, requires the approval of the holders of a majority of the shares of BroadSoft common stock present, in person or by proxy, at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter.
- The proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement, requires the approval of the holders of a majority of the shares of BroadSoft common stock present, in person or by proxy, at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter.

Abstentions will have the same effect as “against” votes with respect to (a) the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, (b) the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, and (c) the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary. Broker non-votes will have the same effect as “against” votes with respect to the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, and will have no effect with respect to the other two proposals. Broker non-votes are shares held in “street name” by the beneficial owner of the shares and for which no instruction has been given to the broker on how to vote the shares, and the broker then does not vote the shares because the broker does not have the discretionary authority to do so.

The Merger Agreement (page 63).

No Solicitation of Competing Transactions by BroadSoft. Pursuant to the merger agreement, while the merger is pending, BroadSoft must, and must cause its subsidiaries and their respective representatives to immediately cease all existing activities, discussions and negotiations with any other third party conducted prior to signing the merger agreement with respect to any “acquisition proposal” and to direct any third party with which BroadSoft has engaged in any such activities, discussions and negotiations within the 12-month period preceding the signing of the merger agreement to promptly return or destroy all confidential information previously provided to such third party. BroadSoft also must not, and must cause its subsidiaries not to, waive any rights under “standstill” or similar covenants in confidentiality agreements entered into in connection with any acquisition proposal. In addition, while the merger is pending none of BroadSoft’s board of directors, BroadSoft and its subsidiaries may, nor will they authorize or permit any of their representatives to, directly or indirectly, (a) solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage, facilitate or induce the making, submission or public announcement of any inquiry, indication of interest, proposal or offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an “acquisition proposal,” (b) enter into, participate in, maintain or continue any communications (except to provide written notice as to the existence of these provisions and to clarify the terms and conditions of any acquisition proposal) or negotiations regarding, or deliver or make available to any person any non-public information with respect to, or knowingly take any other action regarding, any inquiry, indication of interest, proposal or offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, (c) agree to, accept, approve, endorse or recommend (or publicly propose or announce any intention to agree to, accept, approve, endorse or recommend) any acquisition proposal, (d) enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet or any other agreement, understanding or contract (whether binding or not) contemplating or otherwise relating to any acquisition proposal (other than customary confidentiality agreements), (e) submit any acquisition proposal to the vote of any securityholders of BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries, (f) approve any transaction, or any third party becoming an “interested stockholder,” under Section 203 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or (g) resolve, propose or agree to do any of the foregoing, in each case except under specified circumstances set forth in the merger agreement. Please see “The Merger Agreement — No Solicitation of Other Offers” beginning on page 73 for a more complete summary.

Conditions to the Merger. The obligations of Cisco, Merger Sub and BroadSoft to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of specified conditions set forth in the merger agreement and described in this proxy statement, including, among others, the following:

- the adoption of the merger agreement by our stockholders at the Special Meeting;
- the absence of any order or restraint or applicable legal requirement prohibiting, making illegal or enjoining the completion of the merger;
- the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act; and
- the receipt of certain applicable foreign antitrust approvals.

Please see “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to the Merger” beginning on page 79 for a more complete summary of the conditions to the merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement. The merger agreement may be terminated under specified circumstances set forth in the merger agreement, including, among others, the following:

- by mutual written consent of BroadSoft and Cisco;
- by either BroadSoft or Cisco if (a) the merger has not been completed on or before July 20, 2018 (subject to extensions as described in the merger agreement and this proxy statement), (b) a governmental entity has issued a final and nonappealable order or taken any other final and nonappealable action, permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger (provided that this right to terminate the merger agreement will not be available to any party that has materially breached its obligations under the merger agreement in any manner that principally caused the existence of such order or action in any material respect), (c) the approval of the adoption of the merger agreement by holders of BroadSoft common stock entitled to vote thereon is not obtained or (d) upon a breach of any covenants or agreement on the part of either party set forth in the merger agreement, or if any representation or warrant of the other party has become inaccurate, in each case such that the closing conditions with respect to the other party regarding the accuracy of representations and warranties and compliance with covenants and agreements would not be satisfied;
- by Cisco, prior to the approval by BroadSoft stockholders of the adoption of the merger agreement, upon the occurrence of a “Triggering Event” as described in “The Merger Agreement — Ability to Change Board Recommendation/Termination in Connection with a Superior Proposal” beginning on page 75; or
- by BroadSoft, prior to the approval by BroadSoft’s stockholders of the adoption of the merger agreement, to accept a superior proposal and enter into a definitive agreement for a superior proposal, provided that BroadSoft makes concurrently a payment to Cisco of a termination fee of $56 million.

Please see “The Merger Agreement — Termination of the Merger Agreement” beginning on page 81 for complete summary of the termination provisions.

Expenses. The merger agreement provides that all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby will be paid by the party incurring such expenses, whether or not the merger is consummated, except with respect to a termination fee that may be payable by BroadSoft to Cisco and the reimbursement of certain antitrust expenses of BroadSoft that may be payable by Cisco under certain circumstances as described below.

Termination Fees. The merger agreement requires us to pay Cisco a termination fee of $56 million if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances described in the merger agreement. Cisco is obligated to reimburse BroadSoft for certain antitrust expenses up to $10 million if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances described in the merger agreement involving the failure to consummate the merger by a specified date for failure to receive antitrust approvals. Please see “The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees” beginning on page 83 for a more complete summary regarding termination fees.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: What will happen to BroadSoft as a result of the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, we will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco.

Q: What will happen to my shares of BroadSoft common stock after the merger?

A: Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of BroadSoft common stock will automatically be canceled and will be converted into the right to receive $55.00 in cash, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. This does not apply to shares of BroadSoft common stock held by any BroadSoft stockholders who have properly demanded (and not withdrawn or lost) their appraisal rights under Delaware law (as more fully described below under the heading “The Merger — Appraisal Rights” beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement).

Q: Will I own any shares of BroadSoft common stock after the merger?

A: No. You will be paid cash for any shares of BroadSoft common stock you own.

Q: Will I own any shares of Cisco common stock after the merger?

A: Only if you own shares of Cisco common stock before the merger and you continue to hold those shares after the merger. The shares of Cisco common stock that you own, if any, prior to the merger will be unaffected as a result of the merger. Our stockholders will not be issued any shares of Cisco common stock as a result of the merger.

Q: What happens to my vested and unvested BroadSoft stock options, RSUs and PSUs in the merger?

A: Upon the completion of the merger, each outstanding vested stock option, vested RSU and vested PSU granted under BroadSoft’s equity plans (including such options, RSUs and PSUs that vest in connection with the merger) will terminate and be converted into the right to receive from Cisco an amount of cash equal to $55.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, the excess, if any, of $55.00 over the exercise price of such option), without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. Each outstanding unvested stock option, unvested RSU and unvested PSU granted under BroadSoft’s equity plans held by the continuing employees and consultants of BroadSoft or its subsidiaries as of the effective time of the merger will be converted into and substituted for the right to receive from Cisco an amount of unvested cash equal to $55.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, the excess, if any, of $55.00 over the exercise price of such option), payable in accordance with the service-based vesting schedule for such equity award (including any applicable terms relating to termination and accelerated vesting of the equity award), without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. The unvested cash payable with respect to unvested PSUs will no longer be subject to performance-based vesting criteria but service-based vesting criteria only. See “The Merger Agreement — Treatment of Equity Awards” for more information.

Q: Will the merger be taxable to me?

A: Generally, yes. In general, the receipt of cash by you in exchange for your shares of BroadSoft common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Generally, subject to the more complete summary referenced in the next sentence, if you are a “U.S. person” (as defined in such summary) this means that for U.S. federal income tax purposes you will recognize taxable gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between the total amount of cash you receive in the merger for your shares of BroadSoft common stock and your adjusted tax basis in such shares. You should read “The Merger — Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger” beginning on page 59 for a more complete summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Q: Does our board of directors recommend adoption of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our stockholders vote “For” the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. Our board of directors considered many factors in deciding to unanimously recommend the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. These factors are described in “The Merger — Reasons for the Merger” beginning on page 29.

Q: What vote of the stockholders is required to adopt the merger agreement?

A: To adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger, stockholders of record as of December 11, 2017, the Record Date, holding a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to vote thereon must vote “For” the adoption of the merger agreement. As of the Record Date, there are 31,775,976 shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to be voted at the Special Meeting.

Q: Am I entitled to appraisal rights?

A: Yes. Under Delaware law, you have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of your shares as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery if the merger is completed, but only if you submit a written demand for an appraisal before the vote on the merger agreement, do not vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement and comply with the Delaware law procedures explained in this proxy statement. Please see the discussion below beginning on page 56 for more detail. Annex C to this proxy statement contains a copy of the Delaware statute relating to stockholders’ right of appraisal. Failure to follow all of the steps required by this statute may result in the loss of your appraisal rights. We encourage you to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully, including its annexes, and consider how the merger affects you. Then, mail your completed, dated and signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope or appoint a proxy over the Internet or by telephone by following the instruction on the enclosed proxy card as soon as possible so that your shares can be voted at the Special Meeting.

Q: What does it mean if I received more than one set of proxy materials?

A: If you received more than one set of proxy materials, it means that you hold shares of BroadSoft common stock in more than one account. For example, you may own your shares in various forms, including jointly with your spouse, as trustee of a trust or as custodian for a minor. To ensure that all of your shares are voted, please provide a proxy or voting instructions for each account for which you received proxy materials.

Q: What happens if I do not return a proxy card or otherwise appoint a proxy?

A: The failure to return your proxy card (or to appoint a proxy over the Internet or by telephone or to vote in person) by the deadline of 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on January 24, 2018 will have the same effect as voting against adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: May I vote in person?

A: Yes. You may vote in person at the meeting, rather than signing and returning your proxy card or appointing a proxy over the Internet or by telephone, if you own shares in your own name. However, we encourage you to return your signed proxy card, or appoint a proxy over the Internet or by telephone, to ensure that your shares are voted. You may also vote in person at the Special Meeting if your shares are held in “street name” through a broker or bank provided that you bring a legal proxy from your broker or bank and present it at the Special Meeting. You may also be asked to present photo identification for admittance to the special meeting.

Q: May I vote over the Internet or by telephone?

A: Yes. You may vote by appointing a proxy over the Internet or by telephone by following the instructions included on the enclosed proxy card.

Q: What happens if I transfer my shares of BroadSoft common stock after the record date?

A: The record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting is earlier than the effective time of the merger. Therefore, transferors of shares of BroadSoft common stock after the record date but prior to the consummation of the merger will retain their right to vote at the special meeting, but the right to receive the merger consideration will transfer with the shares.

Q: May I revoke my proxy or change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card or otherwise appointed a proxy?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before the shares reflected on your proxy card (or with respect to which you have appointed a proxy over the Internet or by telephone) are voted at the Special Meeting. You can do this in one of four ways. First, you can send a written, dated notice to our corporate secretary stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete, sign, date and submit a new proxy card bearing a later date. Third, you can submit a subsequent proxy over the Internet or by telephone. Fourth, you can attend the meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions received from your broker to change your voting instructions.

Q: If my shares are held in “street name” by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will not vote your shares with respect to the adoption of the merger agreement without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares, following the procedure provided by your broker. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted with respect to the adoption of the merger agreement, which will have the same effect as voting against adoption of the merger agreement. In addition, your broker will not vote your shares with respect to the approval of, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger or, to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the stock certificates or book-entry shares pursuant to such letter of transmittal. Please do NOT return your stock certificate(s) with your proxy.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible; however, the merger is subject to various closing conditions, including BroadSoft stockholder approval, the expiration or termination of the required waiting period under the HSR Act and obtaining applicable foreign antitrust approvals. We cannot assure you that all conditions to the merger will be satisfied or, if satisfied, as to the date by which they will be satisfied.

Q: When will I receive the cash consideration for my shares of BroadSoft common stock?

A: After the merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the stock certificates or book-entry shares pursuant to such letter of transmittal. When you properly return and complete the required documentation described in the written instructions or letter of transmittal, you will receive from the exchange agent a payment of the cash consideration for your shares.

Q: Why am I being asked to cast an advisory vote to approve the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger?

A: In accordance with rules adopted by the SEC, we are required to provide our stockholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory vote on the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger.

Q: What will happen if our stockholders do not approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger?

A: Approval of the "golden parachute" compensation arrangements payable under existing agreements that the named executive officers of BroadSoft may receive in connection with the merger is not a condition to completion of the merger. The vote with respect to the "golden parachute" compensation arrangements is an advisory vote and will not be binding on Cisco or us. Therefore, if the merger agreement is adopted by our stockholders and completed, the "golden parachute" compensation arrangements will still be paid to our named executive officers as long as any other conditions applicable thereto are satisfied, regardless of the results of the vote.

Q: Who can help answer my additional questions?

RISK FACTORS RELATED TO PROPOSAL 1

In connection with Proposal 1, you should consider the following factors in conjunction with the other information included in this proxy statement.

If the proposed merger is not completed, our business could be materially and adversely affected and our stock price could decline.

On October 20, 2017, we entered into a definitive merger agreement with Cisco Systems, Inc. (“Cisco”) pursuant to which, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco would merge with and into us, with us continuing on as the surviving entity and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco. The merger is subject to closing conditions, which include among other conditions, the adoption of the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock, the absence of any order or restraint or applicable legal requirement prohibiting, making illegal or enjoining the completion of the merger, the expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act and the receipt of certain applicable foreign antitrust approvals. Therefore, the merger may not be completed or may not be completed as quickly as expected. If the merger agreement is terminated, the market price of BroadSoft common stock will likely decline, as we believe that our market price reflects an assumption that the merger will be completed. For example, on August 29, 2017, the last full trading day prior to published speculation regarding a potential transaction involving BroadSoft, BroadSoft common stock closed at $43.05 per share. On October 20, 2017, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger, BroadSoft common stock closed at $53.90 per share, and, on the next trading day, following the announcement of our entering into the merger agreement, our stock price closed at $54.80 per share. In addition, our stock price may be adversely affected as a result of the fact that we have incurred and will continue to incur significant expenses related to the merger, all or a portion of which will not be recovered if the merger is not completed. If the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, we may be obligated to pay Cisco a termination fee of $56 million. As a consequence of the failure of the merger to be completed, as well as of some or all of these potential effects of the termination of the merger agreement, our business could be materially and adversely affected.

The existence of the pending merger could have an adverse effect on our business, revenue and results of operations.

While the merger is pending, it creates uncertainty about our future. As a result of this uncertainty, customers may decide to delay, defer or cancel purchases of our products and/or services, pending completion of the merger or termination of the merger agreement. If these decisions represent a significant portion of our anticipated revenue, our results of operations and quarterly revenues could be substantially below the expectations of market analysts.

In addition, while the merger is pending, we are subject to a number of risks that may adversely affect our business, revenue and results of operations, including:

- the diversion of management and employee attention and the unavoidable disruption to our relationships with customers and vendors may detract from our ability to grow revenues and minimize costs;
- the fact that we have incurred and will continue to incur significant expenses related to the merger;
- the fact that, pursuant to the merger agreement, we must generally conduct our business in the ordinary course and we are subject to a variety of other restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the closing of the merger or termination of the merger agreement; and
- the fact that we may be unable to respond effectively to competitive pressures, industry developments and future opportunities.

If the merger occurs, our stockholders will not be able to participate in any upside to our business.

Upon consummation of the merger, our stockholders will receive $55.00 in cash per share, without interest and subject to applicable tax withholding, for each share of BroadSoft common stock owned by them, but will not receive any shares of Cisco common stock. As a result, if our business following the merger performs well, our current stockholders will not receive any additional consideration, and will therefore not receive any benefit from the performance of our business.

CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The statements contained in this proxy statement relating to the completion of the merger and other future events are forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. THE COMPANIES

BroadSoft, Inc.

BroadSoft is a leading global provider of software and services that enable telecommunications service providers to deliver hosted, cloud-based Unified Communications, or UC, to their enterprise customers. In addition to voice telephony, UC offers additional features such as full integration with mobile devices, high definition, or HD, voice and video calling and conferencing, instant messaging and presence, or IM&P, team collaboration and desktop sharing.

LITIGATION RELATING TO THE MERGER

On November 16, 2017, Sebastian Agostino, a purported stockholder of BroadSoft, filed a putative class action complaint against BroadSoft and our board of directors in the United States District Court for the District of Maryland (the “Maryland District Court”), captioned Agostino v. BroadSoft, Inc. et al., Case No. 8:17-cv-3415. The complaint filed by Agostino (the “Agostino Complaint”) alleges that (a) BroadSoft and our board of directors violated Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder, by filing this proxy statement, which allegedly fails to disclose and/or misrepresents material information about the merger, and (b) the members of our board of directors, as control persons of BroadSoft, violated Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act in connection with the filing of this allegedly materially deficient proxy statement. Agostino has asked the Maryland District Court to, among other things, (i) preliminarily and permanently enjoin the defendants from proceeding with the merger, unless and until the defendants disclose material information allegedly omitted from this proxy statement, (ii) rescind, to the extent already implemented, the merger agreement or any of the terms thereof, or grant the plaintiff rescissory damages and (iii) direct the defendants to account to the plaintiff for all damages allegedly suffered as a result of the defendant’s wrongdoing.

On November 22, 2017, Anthony Franchi, a purported stockholder of BroadSoft, filed a putative class action complaint against BroadSoft, our board of directors, Cisco and Merger Sub in the Maryland District Court, captioned Franchi v. BroadSoft, Inc. et al., Case No. 8:17-cv-3488. The complaint filed by Franchi (the “Franchi Complaint”) alleges that (a) BroadSoft and our board of directors violated Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 14a-9 promulgated thereunder, by filing this proxy statement, which allegedly contains statements that omit to state material facts necessary to make such statements not materially false or misleading, and (b) the members of our board of directors, Cisco and Merger Sub, as control persons of BroadSoft, violated Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act in connection with the filing of this allegedly materially deficient proxy statement. Franchi has asked the Maryland District Court to, among other things, (i) preliminarily and permanently enjoin the defendants from proceeding with the merger, (ii) in the event defendants consummate the merger, rescind it and set aside or award rescissory damages, (iii) direct our board of directors to disseminate a proxy statement that does not contain any untrue statements of material fact and that states all material facts required to make the statements contained therein not misleading, (iii) declare that the defendants violated Sections 14(a) and/or 20(a) of the Exchange Act and (iii) award plaintiff the costs of the Franchi Complaint, including reasonable allowance for plaintiff’s attorneys’ and experts’ fees.

BroadSoft believes that the above described claims are without merit and intends to vigorously defend both actions. BroadSoft cannot predict the outcome of or estimate the possible loss or range of loss from either matter. It is possible that additional, similar complaints may be filed or the complaints described above will be amended. If this occurs, BroadSoft does not intend to announce the filing of each additional, similar complaint or any amended complaint unless it contains allegations that are substantially distinct from those made in the pending actions described above.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

We are furnishing this proxy statement to you as part of the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at the Special Meeting.

Date, Time and Place

The Special Meeting will be held at the BroadSoft's headquarters at 9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20878, at 9:00 a.m., local time, on January 25, 2018.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

You will be asked at the Special Meeting to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. Based on its review, our board of directors has unanimously (a) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, (b) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, taken together, are at a price and on terms that are fair to, and in the best interest of BroadSoft and its stockholders, (c) approved the execution, delivery and performance by BroadSoft of the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and (d) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. You will also be asked to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger. You will also be asked to vote on a proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Record Date; Stock Entitled to Vote; Quorum

Only holders of record of BroadSoft common stock at the close of business on December 11, 2017, the Record Date, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting. At the close of business on the Record Date, 31,775,976 shares of BroadSoft common stock were issued and outstanding and such shares were held by approximately 17 holders of record. A quorum will be present at the Special Meeting if a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to vote are represented in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting. In the event that a quorum is not present at the Special Meeting, or there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement, we expect that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies. Holders of record of BroadSoft common stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to one vote per share at the Special Meeting on each proposal presented.

Vote Required

The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to vote thereon at the close of business on the Record Date. If you abstain from voting or do not vote, either in person or by proxy, it will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement. Broker non-votes will have the same effect as "against" votes with respect to the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

The approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of BroadSoft common stock present, in person or by proxy, at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter. If you abstain from voting, either in person or by proxy, on this matter, it will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of this matter. Broker non-votes will have no effect with respect to this matter.

The proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement, requires the approval of the holders of a majority of the shares of BroadSoft common stock present, in person or by proxy, at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter. If you abstain from voting, either in person or by proxy, on this matter, it will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of this matter. Broker non-votes will have no effect with respect to this matter.

Voting of Proxies

All shares represented by properly executed proxies received in time for the Special Meeting will be voted at the Special Meeting in the manner specified by the holders. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted “For” the adoption of the merger agreement, “For” approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, and “For” approval of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

To vote, please complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card or, to vote by appointing a proxy over the Internet or by telephone, follow the instructions provided below. If you attend the Special Meeting and wish to vote in person, you may withdraw your proxy and vote in person. If your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote at the Special Meeting.

Shares of BroadSoft common stock represented at the Special Meeting but not voted, including shares of BroadSoft common stock for which proxies have been received but for which stockholders have abstained, will be treated as present at the Special Meeting for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of all business.

Only shares affirmatively voted for the adoption of the merger agreement, including properly executed proxies that do not contain specific voting instructions, will be counted in favor of that proposal. If you properly execute a proxy card, appoint a proxy over the Internet or by telephone or attend the Special Meeting in person, but abstain from voting on any of the proposals at the Special Meeting, it will (a) have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement, (b) have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger and (c) have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement. If you do not properly execute a proxy card, do not appoint a proxy over the Internet or by telephone and do not attend the Special Meeting in person, it will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement, and will have no effect on each of the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, and the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement. Brokers who hold shares in street name for customers have the authority to vote on “routine” proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. However, brokers are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to approval of non-routine matters, such as the adoption of the merger agreement and the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger and the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement, and, as a result, absent specific instructions from the beneficial owner of such shares, brokers are not empowered to vote those shares, referred to generally as “broker non-votes.” Broker non-votes, if any, will be treated as shares that are present at the Special Meeting for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists and will have the same effect as votes against the adoption of the merger agreement, but will have no effect on the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, and the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

We do not expect that any matter other than the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, and, the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement will be brought before the Special Meeting.

Voting over the Internet or by Telephone

You may also grant a proxy to vote your shares over the Internet or by telephone. The law of Delaware, under which we are incorporated, specifically permits electronically transmitted proxies, provided that each such proxy contains or is submitted with information from which the inspector of election can determine that such proxy was authorized by the stockholder.

The Internet and telephone voting procedures described below are designed to authenticate stockholders' identities, to allow stockholders to grant a proxy to vote their shares and to confirm that stockholders' instructions have been recorded properly. Stockholders granting a proxy to vote over the Internet should understand that there may be costs associated with electronic access, such as usage charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies, that must be borne by the stockholder.

For Shares Registered in Your Name

Stockholders of record may go to www.proxyvote.com to grant a proxy to vote their shares over the Internet. Have your proxy card in hand when you access the web site and follow the instructions to obtain your records and to create an electronic voting instruction form. Any stockholder using a touch-tone telephone may also grant a proxy to vote shares by calling 1-800-690-6903 and following the recorded instructions.

For Shares Registered in the Name of a Broker or Bank

If your shares are held in a brokerage account or by another nominee, such as a bank or trust, then such broker or other nominee is considered to be the stockholder of record with respect to your shares. However, you are still considered to be the beneficial owner of those shares, with your shares being held in "street name." Most beneficial owners whose stock is held in street name receive instructions for authorizing votes by the broker or other nominee.

If your shares are held in street name, you may be eligible to vote your shares by telephone or through the Internet. A large number of banks and brokerage firms provide eligible stockholders the opportunity to vote in this manner. If your bank or brokerage firm allows for this, your voting form provided by your broker or other nominee will provide instructions for such alternative method of voting.

General Information for All Shares Voted over the Internet or by Telephone Votes submitted over the Internet or by telephone must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on January 24, 2018. Submitting your proxy over the Internet or by telephone will not affect your right to vote in person should you decide to attend the Special Meeting.

Revocability of Proxies

The grant of a proxy on the enclosed proxy card or over the Internet or by telephone does not preclude a stockholder from voting in person at the Special Meeting. You may revoke your proxy at any time before the shares reflected on your proxy card (or with respect to which you have appointed a proxy over the Internet or by telephone) are voted at the Special Meeting by:

- filing with our corporate secretary a properly executed and dated revocation of proxy;

- submitting a properly completed, executed and dated proxy card to our corporate secretary bearing a later date;
- submitting a subsequent vote over the Internet or by telephone; or
- appearing at the Special Meeting and voting in person.

Your attendance at the Special Meeting will not in and of itself constitute the revocation of a proxy. If you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, you must follow the directions received from your broker to change these instructions.

Solicitation of Proxies

All proxy solicitation costs will be borne by us. In addition to solicitation by mail, our directors, officers, employees and agents may solicit proxies from stockholders by telephone or other electronic means or in person. We also may reimburse brokers and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their expenses in sending these materials to you and getting your voting instructions. We have also retained the services of a paid solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., or MacKenzie, to solicit proxies. We anticipate that the cost of utilizing the services of MacKenzie for the solicitation of proxies will be approximately $40,000, plus expenses, and will be paid by BroadSoft.

You should not send your stock certificates with your proxy card. A letter of transmittal with instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the stock certificates or book-entry shares pursuant to such letter of transmittal will be mailed to our stockholders as soon as practicable after completion of the merger.

Delivery of this Proxy Statement to Multiple Stockholders with the Same Address

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (for example, brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address, if we believe the stockholders are members of the same family, by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those stockholders. Each stockholder will continue to receive a separate proxy card or voting instruction card. This process, which is commonly referred to as “householding,” potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies by reducing the volume of duplicate information.

A number of brokers with account holders who are our stockholders will be “householding” our proxy materials. A single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker or us that they will be “householding” communications to your address, “householding” will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If your household received a single proxy statement, but you would prefer to receive your own copy, please notify your broker and direct your written request to BroadSoft, Inc., Attention: Investor Relations, 9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20878, or contact our Investor Relations Department at (561) 404-2130. If you would like to receive your own set of our proxy materials in the future, please contact your broker or BroadSoft’s Investor Relations and inform them of your request. Be sure to include your name, the name of your brokerage firm and your account number. Conversely, if you and another person sharing your same address are receiving multiple copies of annual reports or proxy statements and you would like to request that you only receive one copy, please contact your broker or BroadSoft’s Investor Relations and inform them of your request. Be sure to include your name, the name of your brokerage firm and your account number.

Stockholder List

A list of BroadSoft stockholders entitled to vote at the Special Meeting will be available for inspection at our principal executive offices located at 9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350, Gaithersburg, Maryland 20878, at least ten days prior to the date of the Special Meeting and continuing through the Special Meeting for any purpose germane to the meeting. The list will also be available at the meeting for inspection by any stockholder present at the meeting.

PROPOSAL 1 — ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

THE MERGER

The discussion under the sections of this proxy statement entitled “The Merger” and “The Merger Agreement” summarizes the material terms of the merger and the merger agreement. Although we believe that the description covers the material terms of the merger and the merger agreement, this summary may not contain all of the information that is important to you. We urge you to read this proxy statement, the merger agreement and the other documents referred to herein carefully for a more complete understanding of the merger and the merger agreement. The discussion of the merger and the merger agreement in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

Background of the Merger

BroadSoft is a leading provider of software and services that enable telecommunications service providers to deliver hosted, cloud-based enterprise voice and other Unified Communications, or UC, capabilities to their enterprise customers. Our UC solutions allow our customers to offer to enterprises a cloud-based alternative to premise-based private branch exchange, or PBX, solutions. BroadSoft business application suite empowers users and teams to share ideas and work simply to achieve breakthrough performance.

Our board of directors, also referred to herein as “our board,” and our senior management regularly review BroadSoft’s operations, financial performance, capital structure, strategic initiatives and product portfolio and pipeline. As part of this ongoing review, our board has regularly evaluated BroadSoft’s long-term strategy, as well as other strategic alternatives that might be available to enhance stockholder value.

Starting in March 2016, at the request of a private equity firm (“Party A”), we engaged in a series of discussions with Party A regarding a potential strategic transaction. On July 12, 2016, Party A delivered a non-binding written proposal to our senior management to acquire 100% of the shares of BroadSoft capital stock in an all-cash transaction for $46 per share, subject to due diligence and other conditions, including a requirement for a minimum cash balance on BroadSoft’s balance sheet at the closing of the transaction (the “Party A July 2016 Proposal”). Our stock was trading in the range of approximately $44 - $45 per share at that time.

On July 18, 2016 and July 28, 2016, our board held telephonic meetings with our senior management and representatives of Jefferies, as our financial advisor, and representatives of Cooley LLP, as our outside legal counsel (“Cooley”), attending the meetings, during which meetings our board reviewed the Party A July 2016 Proposal. Cooley reviewed with our board its fiduciary duties and Jefferies provided a review of the financial aspects of the Party A July 2016 Proposal. Our board also established a strategic transaction committee of independent directors (the “Strategic Transaction Committee”) to assist our board in connection with the consideration of the Party A July 2016 Proposal and strategic alternatives generally. Our board appointed Mr. Markley, the chairman of our board, and Messrs. Gavin, Maine and Bernardi as the members of the Strategic Transaction Committee and noted that the Strategic Transaction Committee was being formed as a matter of convenience to permit a subset of the members of our board to be able to meet and make decisions on an expedited basis and not to address any potential conflicts of interest among the members of our board or senior management, and our board reserved the right to approve any transactions involving BroadSoft. Following discussions, our board determined that the Party A July 2016 Proposal was inadequate. Jefferies communicated to Party A that the price was inadequate and discussions with Party A subsequently terminated in 2016 without Party A making any other proposals.

In connection with its review of the Party A July 2016 Proposal, our board requested that our senior management conduct a review to assess whether BroadSoft could or should make additional acquisitions to facilitate or reduce the risks attendant to our transition from being a software provider to a cloud communications provider or make other transformative acquisitions as an independent public company. On August 2, 2016, the Strategic Transaction Committee held a meeting with our senior management and Jefferies and reviewed potential acquisition or combination candidates and did not identify any significant transactions that the committee would recommend be pursued.

As more fully described below, in 2017, we received in-bound interest from a number of financial parties that ultimately resulted in a strategic review process. As part of the process, BroadSoft and/or its financial advisors had discussions with 16 parties, comprising both financial and strategic parties (including Cisco) regarding potential strategic transactions. Nine parties (including Cisco) entered into confidentiality agreements with BroadSoft and met with our senior management. Five parties submitted one or more proposals for a potential strategic transaction with BroadSoft, including Cisco, Party A, Party B, a strategic party (“Party C”), a portfolio company of a private equity firm (“Party D”) and another private equity firm (“Party E”). We first opened a virtual data room on July 8, 2017 that was updated from time to time, and ultimately provided access to the data room to Cisco, Party A, Party B, Party D and Party E.

The confidentiality agreements entered into with the eight parties other than Cisco either contained standstill provisions that terminated upon execution of the definitive agreement with Cisco or did not contain a standstill provision.

On February 14, 2017, representatives of Qatalyst Partners informed our senior management that a group consisting of two private equity firms (such group, “Party B”) had contacted Qatalyst Partners to determine whether we would be interested in engaging in strategic discussions. During this discussion, representatives of Qatalyst Partners also indicated that based on its knowledge of Cisco, it believed that Cisco could potentially have a strategic interest in BroadSoft and offered to make an introduction to Cisco. Qatalyst Partners had been engaged by us in 2013 in connection with our board’s consideration of a transaction at that time in light of its reputation and substantial knowledge and expertise in the unified communications industry and mergers and acquisition transactions generally.

On March 23, 2017, representatives of Qatalyst Partners contacted Rowan Trollope, senior vice president and general manager of Cisco’s Applications Business Group, regarding a potential strategic transaction between BroadSoft and Cisco and also discussed arranging a meeting between the senior managements of BroadSoft and Cisco.

On April 6, 2017, Mr. Tessler met with Mr. Trollope in Cisco’s offices in San Francisco and Tom Puorro, vice president and general manager of Cisco’s Unified Communications Technology Group, via video teleconference, to discuss a potential strategic transaction between BroadSoft and Cisco.

On April 27, 2017, at a regular meeting of our board, senior management and our board reviewed our market position, growth rates and possible shifts in our strategic direction as well as the strategic landscape in which we operate, discussed the interest expressed by third parties in BroadSoft, and discussed the benefits and detriments of various strategic alternatives.

On May 2, 2017, BroadSoft entered into a confidentiality agreement with Cisco that included a 12-month standstill provision pursuant to which Cisco would be prohibited from taking certain actions with respect to BroadSoft during such period.

On May 3, 2017, at the request of Party C, our senior management had an initial meeting with representatives of Party C at Party C’s corporate headquarters to discuss a potential strategic combination of Party C and BroadSoft for cash and stock consideration. Our senior management had subsequent meetings with Party C to review each party’s financial performance and operations and assess the potential for a strategic combination.

On May 11, 2017, our senior management had preliminary discussions with Cisco about BroadSoft and our business.

In June 2017, Mr. Markley negotiated an amendment to the engagement letter between BroadSoft and Qatalyst Partners that was entered into in 2013 and separately negotiated an engagement letter with Jefferies, to provide financial advisory services to support our board's ongoing evaluation and review of strategic opportunities. Jefferies was retained in light of its reputation and substantial knowledge and expertise in the unified communications industry and mergers and acquisition transactions generally and not to address any conflict of interest of Qatalyst Partners. Prior to such formal engagement, each of Jefferies and Qatalyst Partners, collectively referred to as our financial advisors, had been advising our board from time to time on its ongoing review of long-term strategy and other strategic alternatives.

On June 1, 2017, at the request of Party D, our senior management had a meeting with representatives of Party D to discuss Party D's interest in pursuing a potential combination of BroadSoft and Party D for unspecified cash and stock consideration. Following this meeting, our senior management and the members of the Strategic Transaction Committee discussed Party D's interest and senior management subsequently encouraged Party D to consider submitting a proposal for an all-cash transaction.

On June 20, 2017, we received a non-binding written joint proposal from Party B, expressing interest to acquire 100% of the capital stock of BroadSoft in an all-cash transaction at a price range of $49 - $51 per share subject to completion of due diligence and other conditions (the "Party B June 20 Proposal"). On the same day, we received a non-binding proposal from Party E to acquire 100% of the capital stock of BroadSoft in an all-cash transaction at a price range of $48.50 - $50 per share subject to completion of due diligence and other conditions (the "Party E June 20 Proposal"). Our stock was trading in the range of approximately $42 - $43 per share at that time. At the direction of our board, Qatalyst Partners managed communications with Party B, while Jefferies managed communications with Party E.

On June 22, 2017, a representative of Party A expressed interest to our senior management to reengage in further discussions regarding a potential strategic transaction between BroadSoft and Party A.

On June 23, 2017, our board held a special meeting by telephone, with senior management and representatives of Cooley also attending. Messrs. Markley and Tholen reviewed with our board the Party B June 20 Proposal and the Party E June 20 Proposal and the status of discussions with Cisco and other third parties. Representatives of Cooley reviewed with our board its fiduciary duties. Our board then discussed potential next steps with respect to such parties and the timing of a potential market check considering the need for confidentiality and the potential disruptive effect of the process on employees and the business. Our board authorized the Strategic Transaction Committee and our senior management to work with our financial advisors to continue to negotiate the proposals from Party B and Party E and to continue discussions with Cisco and other potentially interested third parties, including Party A, Party C and Party D.

On June 27 and June 28, 2017, we held meetings with representatives of Cisco to provide limited due diligence information regarding BroadSoft and its business. Following the meetings, we continued to have due diligence review discussions with Cisco throughout the month of July 2017.

Throughout June and July 2017, at the direction of the Strategic Transaction Committee, our financial advisors reached out to three other strategic parties, all of whom declined to engage in any discussion for a strategic transaction with BroadSoft.

On July 14, 2017, at the direction of our board, representatives of Jefferies sent bid process letters to Party A, Party C and Party E soliciting a submission of a proposal on definitive terms by July 24, 2017, and representatives of Qatalyst Partners did the same for Party B. The process letters were sent to obtain more certainty regarding the potential maximum value, financing plans for the financial parties and the proposed value and mixture of cash and stock expected to be proposed by Party C. Following discussions with our financial advisors, our senior management made a determination not to send Cisco a process letter to allow time for Cisco to continue its due diligence review and to encourage Cisco to submit a proposal for an all-cash transaction.

On July 21, 2017, Party B indicated that it could not support its prior value indication following refinement of its financial model and discussions with Party B terminated.

On July 24, 2017, we received an updated proposal from Party E proposing to acquire 100% of the capital stock of BroadSoft in an all-cash transaction for $49 per share, subject to due diligence and other conditions (the "Party E July 24 Proposal"). On July 25, 2017, we received an updated proposal from Party A proposing to acquire 100% of the capital stock of BroadSoft in an all-cash transaction for $50 per share, subject to due diligence and other conditions (the "Party A July 25 Proposal"). Our stock was trading in the range of approximately $43 – $44 per share at that time.

On July 26, 2017, the Strategic Transaction Committee met, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley also attending. Representatives of our financial advisors, respectively, updated the Strategic Transaction Committee on the status of discussions with third parties, preliminary results of the market check and the outstanding proposals, including the Party A July 25 Proposal and the Party E July 24 Proposal. Representatives of our financial advisors, respectively, reported that Cisco was continuing its evaluation and due diligence but needed more time to submit a proposal and that Party C was holding a board meeting on July 27, 2017 to discuss the submission of a proposal for a stock and cash combination. Representatives of our financial advisors, respectively, also reviewed the financing plans of Party A and Party E and presented their preliminary assessment of the Party A July 25 Proposal and the Party E July 24 Proposal. Representatives of Cooley also reviewed fiduciary duty considerations with the committee.

On July 27, 2017, our board held a regular meeting with representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley joining for a portion of the meeting. During the meeting, our board reviewed with our senior management management's financial projections for the years 2017 through 2022, including the key underlying assumptions. Following discussions, our board authorized use of these financial projections by our financial advisors in preparing financial analyses in connection with our board's ongoing evaluation of strategic alternatives and our standalone prospects. Representatives of our financial advisors presented their preliminary assessment of the Party A July 25 Proposal and the Party E July 24 Proposal and our board discussed such proposals, the status of the strategic process and potential next steps.

On August 1, 2017, Party C informed Mr. Tessler and representatives of Jefferies that it did not intend to make a proposal and discussions with Party C terminated.

On August 7, 2017, Mr. Puorro informed Mr. Tessler that Cisco's board of directors required more time to consider and submit a proposal for a strategic transaction with BroadSoft.

On August 14, 2017, a representative of Party D contacted Mr. Tholen to reengage in discussions regarding a potential all-cash transaction between BroadSoft and Party D.

On August 14, 2017, the Strategic Transaction Committee met, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors also attending. Representatives of our financial advisors updated the committee on the status of discussions with third parties, including Party A, Party D and Party E and reported that Party A had not engaged in extensive due diligence and had not confirmed its July 25 Party A Proposal. Representatives of our financial advisors reported that Cisco was continuing to evaluate their interest in a strategic transaction with BroadSoft. The committee then authorized Mr. Tessler to contact Cisco to assess Cisco's level of interest. Following the meeting, Mr. Tessler contacted Mr. Trollope on August 25, 2017 and August 28, 2017 and had discussions regarding the status of Cisco's evaluation, and during the month of September 2017, representatives of Cisco, including Mr. Trollope, contacted Mr. Tessler from time to time to discuss market conditions and strategy in general in connection with Cisco's evaluation of a potential strategic transaction with BroadSoft.

On August 18, 2017, at Mr. Markley's instruction, representatives of Jefferies provided a draft merger agreement contemplating an all-cash acquisition of 100% of the capital stock of BroadSoft by Party E, and requested that Party E provide a mark-up that they would be willing to execute as soon as practicable.

During the week of August 21, 2017, BroadSoft received a response from Party E on the draft merger agreement and received an updated proposal that reduced the proposed acquisition price to $48.40 per share from $49 per share contained in the Party E July 24 Proposal. The updated proposal included a tender offer condition that BroadSoft have a minimum amount of cash balance on its balance sheet at closing.

Also during that week, our senior management continued discussions with representatives of Party D in connection with its due diligence review.

On August 26, 2017, we received a non-binding proposal from Party D and its financial sponsor that contemplated a leveraged recapitalization in which Party D would be merged with BroadSoft and BroadSoft's stockholders would receive $44 per share in cash through a special dividend distribution and retain a publicly traded common equity stake of 20% in the combined company (the "Party D August 26 Proposal"). The proposal contemplated that the sponsor and its funds would control 80% of the combined company as a controlled subsidiary under the NASDAQ Stock Market Rules, and was subject to completion of due diligence and other conditions.

During the week of August 28, 2017, our senior management continued to conduct due diligence meetings with representatives of Party E, and at the direction of our senior management, representatives of Jefferies and Cooley continued negotiations with Party E to obtain an improved proposal.

On August 30, 2017, Reuters reported that BroadSoft was exploring its strategic options, including a potential sale of BroadSoft, and was working with Jefferies. BroadSoft was not the source of the story and declined to comment. Following such press article, our stock price traded up to $48.40 and closed on August 30 at $48.00, an 11% increase over the closing price of $43.05 on the immediately preceding trading day.

Following the Reuters article, we received inbound interest from four additional parties (included in the 16 total parties). As a result of these inquiries, at the direction of the Strategic Transaction Committee and our senior management, representatives of Jefferies held initial discussions with each of the four parties; three of these four parties declined to move forward, and we entered into a confidentiality agreement with one strategic party. We had engaged in prior discussions with this strategic party in 2013, which were subsequently terminated, and thereafter the strategic party had not reengaged with us. After focused discussions, the strategic party elected again not to move forward or make a proposal, and discussions with the strategic party terminated.

On August 31, 2017 and September 1, 2017, representatives of Cooley and Jefferies had discussions with representatives of Party D's outside legal counsel to discuss the Party D August 26 Proposal, including the proposed legal structure and timeline, the tax implications and the proposed financing plan.

On September 1, 2017, following a meeting of the Strategic Transaction Committee, representatives of Jefferies communicated to Party E that our board would not continue to move forward on a potential strategic transaction at a price that was less than $50 per share. Party E declined to increase its price and discussions were terminated. On the same day, our senior management reached out to Mr. Trollope to seek an update on Cisco's status.

On September 5, 2017, our board held a special telephonic meeting, with senior management and representatives of Jefferies and Cooley also attending. Our board reviewed the current status of the discussions regarding the Party D August 26 Proposal. Our senior management discussed their views on the business rationale of a combination with Party D. Representatives of Jefferies discussed the financial aspects of the Party D August 26 Proposal, including the potential value of the 20% stake in the highly leveraged public company assuming Party D's synergy assumptions were validated and assuming execution of Party D's preliminary financial plan for the combined company. Our board discussed potential benefits and detriments of a potential transaction with Party D, including the risks and uncertainties associated with the value of the combined company, given the expected debt leverage, the limited public float and controlled-company governance structure and the execution risks of the strategic plan. Our board also discussed the need to validate synergies and the value of the stock through a due diligence review of Party D and its business. Following discussions, our board authorized Jefferies to continue discussions with Party D to attempt to obtain an improved proposal and to make a counterproposal at $52 per share in cash or, in the alternative, $48 per share in cash and a 20% common equity stake in the combined company, subject to additional financial and legal due diligence reviews of Party D and its business to, among other things, validate Party D's synergy projections. Representatives of Jefferies also noted for our board that they had received several inbound inquiries from additional third parties after the Reuters article on August 30, 2017, but none of them had demonstrated active interest. They also updated our board on Mr. Tessler's conversations with Cisco and that we were waiting on a response from Cisco on their interest to engage further in strategic discussions with us.

Later on September 5, 2017, we received an updated non-binding written proposal from Party E to acquire up to 40% of the capital stock of BroadSoft for $47.50 per share in cash through a tender offer transaction, and immediately following the consummation of the tender offer, to effect a leveraged recapitalization, which combined with BroadSoft's cash, would fund a special dividend distribution of $26.50 per share to all remaining BroadSoft stockholders, including Party E. Following discussions among the members of the Special Transaction Committee, this proposal was rejected as inadequate.

Over the weekend of September 8, 2017, representatives of Cooley continued conversations with representatives of Party D's outside legal counsel to explore alternative legal structures and financial statement requirements for a transaction with Party D and the potential impact on timing of a transaction.

On September 11, 2017 the Strategic Transaction Committee met by phone, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley also attending. Representatives of our financial advisors and the Strategic Transaction Committee reviewed the status of third-party discussions. The Strategic Transaction Committee noted that Party D had verbally agreed to increase its proposal to $45 per share in cash and a 20% common equity stake but had declined to make an all-cash proposal. After review of the various outstanding proposals and potential next steps, the Strategic Transaction Committee authorized senior management and our financial advisors to encourage Cisco to submit a definitive proposal as quickly as possible, continue engaging Party E to obtain an improved proposal for at least $50 per share in cash, and accelerate the due diligence review of Party D and its business to validate Party D's synergy assumptions and the potential value of the 20% common equity stake in the combined company.

On September 12, 2017, Messrs. Tessler and Tholen had dinner with representatives of Party D and its financial sponsor. At the dinner, the representatives of Party D and its financial sponsor verbally increased its proposal to $47 per share in cash and a 20% common equity stake in the combined company. Party D confirmed this proposal in writing the following day, subject to finalizing legal structuring, legal documentation, financing commitments and due diligence review.

On September 15, 2017, the Strategic Transaction Committee met by phone, with senior management and representatives of Cooley also attending. Mr. Tholen updated the committee on the revised proposal from Party D, the status of our due diligence review of Party D and the status of the strategic review process generally. The committee discussed potential next steps and the potential complexities, risks and uncertainties involved in the proposed transaction with Party D. After discussion, the committee authorized senior management and our advisors to continue our due diligence review of Party D and business and legal discussions with Party D.

On September 18, 2017, Mr. Tessler spoke to Mr. Trollope to inform him that our board was considering proposals, and to inquire whether Cisco was intending to submit a proposal. Representatives of Qatalyst Partners later spoke to representatives of Cisco's corporate development team to deliver the same message. Over the following week, our senior management and our advisors conducted due diligence review meetings with representatives of Party D and its financial sponsor regarding Party D, projected synergies and a strategic plan for the combined company. Our advisors also continued discussions with Party D's advisors regarding the proposed transaction, including our preferred legal structure and financial statement requirements and timing, and requested a detailed financial model for the combined company from Party D's financial sponsor. During this period, Party A formally withdrew from further discussions with our senior management and representatives of Jefferies.

On September 25, 2017, we received draft debt commitment documents from Party D, and on September 28, 2017, Cooley provided a draft merger agreement to Party D's outside legal counsel contemplating a "double dummy" merger rather than a tender offer and dividend recapitalization as contemplated in the Party D August 26 Proposal.

On September 26, 2017, we received a written non-binding proposal from Party E to acquire 100% of the capital stock of BroadSoft in an all-cash transaction for $50 per share, subject to providing Party E with an exclusive negotiating period.

On September 27, 2017, we received a verbal non-binding proposal from Cisco to acquire 100% of the capital stock of BroadSoft in an all-cash transaction for $54 per share, subject to providing Cisco with an exclusive negotiating period. The following day, the Strategic Transaction Committee met by phone, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley also attending. The committee discussed the current status of the proposals from Cisco, Party E and Party D and potential next steps. The committee noted that Party E, who had previously conditioned its proposal on BroadSoft having a specified amount of cash on its balance sheet, was unlikely to be able to increase its price to be competitive with Cisco's current proposal. The committee also discussed the uncertainties and risks associated with Party D's mixed-consideration proposal and the value of the 20% common equity stake in the combined company, including that BroadSoft had not yet validated the synergies or operating plan for the combined company. The committee also discussed the potential antitrust-related risks of a transaction with Cisco. Following discussion, the committee authorized representatives of Qatalyst Partners to communicate to Cisco that we would be willing to grant them exclusivity for a period of two weeks if Cisco would increase its price to $58 per share and with the understanding that Cisco's due diligence review would be substantially confirmatory in nature and our board would require contractual protections to address any antitrust-related risks.

On September 29, 2017, Cisco increased its proposal to $55 per share, which was confirmed in writing (the "Cisco Final Proposal"). The Cisco Final Proposal was subject to completion of due diligence and other customary conditions and contained requirements for a limited number of key BroadSoft employees (who were unidentified at that time) agreeing to work for the surviving corporation of the merger. Cisco also required that we agree to exclusivity through October 31, 2017 as a condition to continuing discussions. Representatives of Qatalyst Partners and Cooley continued discussions with representatives of Cisco and negotiated terms of an exclusivity agreement that would terminate immediately if Cisco reduced the price below $55 per share, subject to approval of the Strategic Transaction Committee.

Later on September 30, 2017, the Strategic Transaction Committee met by phone, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley also attending. The Strategic Transaction Committee and our financial advisors reviewed the status of discussions with Cisco and potential next steps with the other third parties. The committee discussed the likelihood of improving Cisco's proposal further, terms of the exclusivity agreement and protections relating to antitrust-related risks BroadSoft would seek were it to pursue a strategic transaction with Cisco. Following discussion, taking into account the potential benefits as well as the uncertainties and risks associated with Party D's proposal, including the uncertainty of obtaining the level of equity and debt financing required for the transaction proposed by Party D, achieving the proposed revenue and cost synergies, the value of the equity consideration in the combined company, and the risk that Cisco might terminate discussions if BroadSoft did not agree to exclusivity on the requested terms, the Strategic Transaction Committee authorized the execution of the exclusivity agreement with Cisco. Following the meeting, representatives of Jefferies informed Party E and Party D that BroadSoft was entering into exclusive negotiations with another party and ceasing all discussions with them. Following this call, we entered into an exclusivity agreement with Cisco through October 31, 2017.

On October 1, 2017, we received an updated non-binding proposal from Party D to acquire 100% of capital stock of BroadSoft for $51 per share in cash and retention of a 15% common equity stake in the combined company, and on October 4, 2017 we received a mark-up of the proposed merger agreement (the "Party D Final Proposal"). However, we did not engage in any discussion with Party D in compliance with the exclusivity agreement with Cisco.

After entering into exclusivity with Cisco, we provided more detailed due diligence information to representatives of Cisco, Fenwick & West LLP, Cisco's outside legal counsel ("Fenwick"), and Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer LLP, Cisco's outside antitrust counsel ("A&P"), including by granting access to the virtual data room.

On October 6, 2017, Fenwick provided Cooley with a proposed draft of the merger agreement for the proposed transaction between BroadSoft and Cisco.

During the week of October 9, 2017, representatives of Cisco conducted a series of onsite due diligence meetings with representatives of BroadSoft. Representatives from our financial advisors, Cooley and A&P were also present at the meetings.

On October 13, 2017, Cooley provided a revised draft of the merger agreement to Fenwick. Between October 13, 2017 and the execution of the merger agreement, at the direction of the Strategic Transaction Committee and our senior management, representatives of Cooley negotiated the terms of the merger agreement and related schedules with representatives of Fenwick.

On October 15, 2017, our board held a special telephonic meeting, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley also attending. Mr. Tholen updated our board on the due diligence meetings with Cisco and the negotiation of the merger agreement. Mr. Tholen informed the Board that Cisco was negotiating employment and retention agreements with Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen to be signed concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement with Cisco as a condition to signing. Mr. Tholen also informed our board that with the prior approval of Mr. Markley the executives retained outside legal counsel to represent them in such discussions. Representatives of Cooley discussed with our board their antitrust analysis of the proposed transaction with Cisco as well as potential terms in the merger agreement relating to antitrust risk to be considered. Our board also discussed with representatives of our financial advisors the financial aspects of the Party D Final Proposal based on the due diligence review of Party D that was conducted prior to entering into exclusivity with Cisco as well as the potential benefits and the complexities and uncertainties associated with the Party D Final Proposal. Representatives of Cooley also reviewed with our board their fiduciary duties in connection with considering a sale of BroadSoft.

On October 16, 2017, following discussions between Fenwick and Cooley regarding issues in the merger agreement, Fenwick provided a revised draft of the merger agreement to Cooley.

On October 17, 2017, the Strategic Transaction Committee met by phone, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley also attending. The committee reviewed the status of discussions with Cisco. Representatives of Cooley reviewed with the committee their analysis on the antitrust approval process, including timing and risks, and the status of the merger agreement negotiations, including deal protections and antitrust-related provisions. Later that day, Cooley provided a revised draft of the merger agreement to Fenwick reflecting input from the committee and our senior management.

On October 18, 2017, the Strategic Transaction Committee met by phone, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley also attending. Senior management and our advisors reviewed with the committee the differing positions of the parties regarding the antitrust-related issues and other open issues in the merger agreement.

Later that day, the compensation committee of our board was presented with the proposed compensation and retention terms of employment for Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen with Cisco and approved certain amendments to the terms of the PSU awards for Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen and certain other executives and approved certain payments under our 2017 Executive Bonus Plan.

During the day of October 19, 2017, the parties continued to negotiate the merger agreement and related schedules. Later that day, our board held a special telephonic meeting, with senior management and representatives of Cooley also attending. Our board reviewed with representatives of Cooley the parties' current positions on the antitrust-related issues and other open issues of the merger agreement. Following discussions, and based on the recommendation of the committee members and senior management, our board authorized continuing to pursue a transaction with Cisco without an antitrust reverse termination fee, taking into account other terms of the merger agreement taken as a whole and the potential value to BroadSoft stockholders. After the meeting, Mr. Tessler discussed key issues in the merger agreement with representatives of Cisco and provided a revised draft of the merger agreement to representatives of Cisco. During the day of October 20, 2017, the parties continued to negotiate the merger agreement and related schedules.

In the evening of October 20, 2017 after market close, our board held a special telephonic meeting, with senior management and representatives of our financial advisors and Cooley also attending. Representatives of Cooley reviewed our board's fiduciary duties in the context of considering the proposed transaction with Cisco, the terms of the proposed merger agreement by referring to an executive summary of the merger agreement distributed in advance of the meeting, and the antitrust-related risks and approval process. The board asked questions and discussed the proposed transaction and related risks. Representatives of Qatalyst Partners reviewed with our board, its financial analysis of the per share merger consideration, and rendered to our board its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated as of October 20, 2017, that, as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the matters and the limitations set forth therein, the per share merger consideration to be paid to the holders of BroadSoft common stock (other than as specified in such opinion) is fair from a financial point of view to such holders. Representatives of Jefferies also reviewed with our board, its financial analysis of the per share merger consideration, and rendered to our board a written opinion, dated as of October 20, 2017, that, as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the matters and the limitations set forth therein, the per share merger consideration to be paid to the holders of BroadSoft common stock (other than as specified in such opinion) is fair from a financial point of view to such holders. For a more detailed discussion of our financial advisors' opinions, please see below under the caption "The Merger — Opinions of BroadSoft's Financial Advisors." The opinions of Qatalyst Partners and Jefferies are attached to this proxy statement as Annex B-1 and Annex B-2, respectively. Then, Mr. Gavin, a director and chairman of our board's compensation committee, made a presentation to our board regarding the compensation and retention arrangements of the employment agreements negotiated between Cisco and Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen. These agreements and arrangements are more fully described under "The Merger — Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger." Following consideration of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including consideration of the factors described in "The Merger — Reasons for the Merger", our board unanimously (a) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, (b) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, taken together, are at a price and on terms that are fair to, and in the best interest of BroadSoft and its stockholders, (c) approved the execution, delivery and performance by BroadSoft of the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and (d) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby the merger.

Following our board meeting, the definitive merger agreement was executed by representatives of BroadSoft, Cisco, and Merger Sub late on the evening of October 20, 2017.

Execution of the merger agreement was publicly announced early on the morning of October 23, 2017. Later in the morning, we also announced the execution of the merger agreement to our customers and partners who attended the BroadSoft Connections 2017 annual customer conference in Phoenix, Arizona.

Reasons for the Merger

Reasons for the Recommendation of the Board of Directors

On October 20, 2017, our board of directors unanimously (a) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, (b) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, taken together, are at a price and on terms that are fair to, and in the best interest of BroadSoft and its stockholders, (c) approved the execution, delivery and performance by BroadSoft of the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and (d) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger.

Our board of directors consulted with our management, our outside legal advisor, Cooley LLP, and our financial advisors, Qatalyst Partners and Jefferies, and considered the following factors (which are not listed in any relative order of importance) in reaching its conclusion to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and to recommend to our stockholders approval of the adoption of the merger agreement, all of which it viewed as generally supporting its decision to approve the business combination with Cisco:

- the merger consideration consists solely of cash, providing certainty, near-term value and liquidity to our stockholders;
- the current and historical market price of BroadSoft common stock, including the fact that the $55.00 price to be paid for each share in connection with the merger is the all-time high price for BroadSoft common stock and represents (a) a 28% premium to the closing price of $43.05 per share on August 29, 2017, the last trading day prior to published speculation regarding a potential transaction involving BroadSoft, and a 26% and 28% premium, respectively, over the average closing trading prices for the 30-day period and 90-day period ended on August 29, 2017 and (b) a 2% premium to the closing price of $53.90 per share on October 20, 2017, the last trading day before the merger was approved by our board of directors and publicly announced, and a 5% and 14% premium, respectively, over the average closing trading prices for the 30-day period and 90-day period ended on October 20, 2017;
- our board of directors' familiarity with our current and historical financial condition, results of operations, prospects, business strategy, competitive position, properties, assets and prospects;
- our board of directors' consideration of the Projections prepared by our management described under "The Merger — Certain Projections Utilized by BroadSoft in Connection with the Merger";
- our board of directors' consideration of BroadSoft's strategic alternatives, including remaining an independent public company and pursuing our strategic business plan and/or pursuing a possible transformative combination, and its belief that the sale of BroadSoft for $55 per share in cash is a better alternative, considering, among other things, its projected stock trading price (taking into account its earnings multiple (prior to the published speculation) and projected earnings), and the growth rates and financial performance that BroadSoft would need to achieve for BroadSoft to obtain additional value for its stockholders, given that BroadSoft's earnings multiple already exceeded the median multiple for comparable companies in our industry and given the risks of achieving these financial results, including competitive and technology risks and risks associated with continued geographic expansion;

- our board of directors' belief that BroadSoft, with the assistance of its financial advisors, had negotiated the highest price per share of common stock that Cisco was willing to pay for BroadSoft and the highest price reasonably available to BroadSoft under the circumstances;
- (a) the fact that BroadSoft had engaged in a fulsome process to obtain the best value reasonably available for our stockholders and created an opportunity for other potentially interested parties to negotiate a transaction with BroadSoft if such parties were interested in a strategic transaction and (b) the fact that the $55.00 per share cash consideration in the merger with Cisco was higher than the value of any alternative acquisition proposal that resulted from the process;
- the fact that Cisco's obligation to consummate the merger is not subject to any financing condition;
- the fact that the merger agreement was unanimously approved by our board of directors, which is comprised of a majority of independent directors who are not affiliated with Cisco or Merger Sub or any of their affiliates and are not employees of BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries, and which retained and received advice from our financial advisors and legal advisor in evaluating, negotiating and recommending the terms of the merger agreement;
- the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, which were the product of arm's-length negotiations between the parties, including our board of directors' ability under the merger agreement to withdraw or modify its recommendation in favor of the approval of adoption of the merger agreement in certain circumstances, including in connection with a superior proposal or certain intervening events, and its right to terminate the merger agreement in certain circumstances prior to the time that BroadSoft's stockholders approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger to accept a superior proposal, subject to the payment of the termination fee of $56 million;
- the conclusion of our board of directors that the termination fee of $56 million and the circumstances when such termination fee may be payable, are reasonable in light of the potential benefit of the merger;
- the opinion, dated as of October 20, 2017, of Qatalyst Partners and the opinion, dated as of October 20, 2017, of Jefferies to our board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of each of such opinions, of the merger consideration to be paid to holders of BroadSoft common stock (excluding Cisco, Merger Sub or any of their respective affiliates), each of which opinions was based on and subject to the matters considered, the procedures followed, the assumptions made and various limitations of and qualifications to the review undertaken as more fully described under the section entitled "The Merger — Opinions of BroadSoft's Financial Advisors";
- the requirement that the merger agreement be adopted and approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to vote thereon;
- the fact that the merger is not subject to approval by Cisco stockholders; and
- the availability of appraisal rights under the DGCL to BroadSoft's stockholders who comply with all of the required procedures under the DGCL, which allows such holders to seek appraisal of the fair value of the shares of BroadSoft common stock.

Our board of directors also considered the potential risks of the merger and other potentially negative factors, including the following:

- the fact that we would no longer exist as an independent, publicly traded company, and our stockholders would no longer participate in any future earnings or growth of BroadSoft and would not benefit from any potential future appreciation in value of BroadSoft;
- the fact that receipt of the merger consideration generally will be taxable to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- the risk that the merger might not be consummated in a timely manner or at all due to a failure of certain conditions, including with respect to the required clearance of the transaction by U.S. and applicable foreign antitrust regulatory authorities, and as a result, the trading price of BroadSoft common stock may be adversely affected;

- the risk that the parties may incur significant costs and delays resulting from seeking governmental consents and approvals necessary for completion of the merger;
- the risk to BroadSoft's business, sales, operations and financial results in the event that the merger is not consummated;
- the risk of diverting management's attention from other strategic priorities to focus on matters relevant to the merger;
- the potential impact on BroadSoft's business from any negative reaction by customers, suppliers or other constituencies after the announcement of the merger;
- the possible loss of key management or other BroadSoft personnel during the pendency of the merger;
- the fact that, pursuant to the merger agreement, we must generally conduct our business in the ordinary course and we are subject to a variety of other restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the closing of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement;
- the $56 million termination fee payable by BroadSoft upon the occurrence of certain events, including the potential of such termination fee to deter other potential acquirers from proposing an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to BroadSoft's stockholders;
- that certain terms of the merger agreement prohibit BroadSoft and its representatives from soliciting third-party bids and from accepting, approving or recommending third-party bids except in limited circumstances, which terms could reduce the likelihood that other potential acquirers would propose an alternative transaction that may be more advantageous to our stockholders;
- the fact that our executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of our stockholders, as described under "The Merger — Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger"; and
- the exclusivity agreement with Cisco limited the board's ability to assess the interest of other potential acquirers from September 29, 2017, the date the exclusivity agreement was executed, until October 20, 2017, the date the merger agreement was executed.

The board of directors concluded that the risks, uncertainties, restrictions and potentially negative factors associated with the merger were outweighed by the potential benefits of the merger.

The foregoing discussion of our board of directors' reasons for its recommendation to approve the merger is not meant to be exhaustive, but addresses the material information and factors considered by our board of directors in consideration of its recommendation. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by our board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, our board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination and recommendation. Rather, the directors made their determinations and recommendations based on the totality of the information presented to them, and the judgments of individual members of our board of directors may have been influenced to a greater or lesser degree by different factors.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the approval of the adoption of the merger agreement.

Opinions of BroadSoft's Financial Advisors

Opinion of Qatalyst Partners

BroadSoft retained Qatalyst Partners to act as financial advisor to our board of directors in connection with a potential transaction such as the merger and to evaluate whether the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock, other than Cisco or any affiliate of Cisco, pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. BroadSoft selected Qatalyst Partners to act as its financial advisor based on Qatalyst Partners' qualifications, expertise, reputation and knowledge of the business and affairs of BroadSoft and the industry in which it operates. Qatalyst Partners provided its written consent to the reproduction of its opinion in this proxy statement. At the meeting of our board of directors on October 20, 2017, Qatalyst Partners rendered its oral opinion, that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the considerations, limitations, qualifications, assumptions and other matters set forth therein, the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock, other than Cisco or any affiliate of Cisco, pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Following the meeting, Qatalyst Partners delivered its written opinion, dated October 20, 2017, to our board of directors.

The full text of Qatalyst Partners' written opinion to our board of directors, dated October 20, 2017, is attached hereto as Annex B-1 and is incorporated in this proxy statement by reference. The opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications of the review undertaken by Qatalyst Partners in rendering its opinion. You should read the opinion carefully in its entirety. Qatalyst Partners' opinion was provided to our board of directors and addresses only, as of the date of the opinion, the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock, other than Cisco or any affiliate of Cisco, pursuant to the merger agreement, and it does not address any other aspect of the merger. It does not constitute a recommendation to any BroadSoft stockholder as to how to vote with respect to the merger or any other matter and does not in any manner address the price at which BroadSoft common stock will trade at any time. The summary of Qatalyst Partners' opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Qatalyst Partners reviewed the merger agreement, certain related documents and certain publicly available financial statements and other business and financial information of BroadSoft. Qatalyst Partners also reviewed certain forward-looking information relating to BroadSoft prepared by BroadSoft's management, including financial projections and operating data of BroadSoft which we refer to as financial forecasts described in the section of this proxy statement captioned "Certain Projections Utilized by BroadSoft in Connection with the Merger" (the "Projections"). Additionally, Qatalyst Partners discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of BroadSoft with BroadSoft's senior management. Qatalyst Partners also reviewed the historical market prices and trading activity for BroadSoft common stock and compared BroadSoft's financial performance and the prices and trading activity of BroadSoft common stock with that of certain other selected publicly traded companies and their securities. In addition, Qatalyst Partners reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected acquisition transactions and performed such other analyses, reviewed such other information and considered such other factors as Qatalyst Partners deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Qatalyst Partners assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information that was publicly available or supplied or otherwise made available to, or discussed with, Qatalyst Partners by BroadSoft. With respect to the Projections, Qatalyst Partners was advised by the management of BroadSoft and assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of BroadSoft's management of the future financial performance of BroadSoft and other matters covered thereby. Qatalyst Partners assumed that the merger would be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement, without any modification, waiver or delay. In addition, Qatalyst Partners assumed that in connection with the receipt of all the necessary approvals of the proposed merger, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions will be imposed that could have an adverse effect on BroadSoft or Cisco or the contemplated benefits expected to be derived in the proposed merger. Qatalyst Partners did not make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of BroadSoft nor was Qatalyst Partners furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. In addition, Qatalyst relied, without independent verification, upon the assessment of BroadSoft's management as to the existing and future technology and products of BroadSoft and the risks associated with such technology and products. Qatalyst Partners' opinion has been approved by Qatalyst Partners' opinion committee in accordance with its customary practice.

Qatalyst Partners' opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of the opinion. Events occurring after the date of the opinion may affect Qatalyst Partners' opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and Qatalyst Partners did not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. Qatalyst Partners' opinion does not address BroadSoft's underlying business decision to engage in the merger, or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to BroadSoft. The opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock, other than Cisco or any affiliate of Cisco, pursuant to the merger agreement, and Qatalyst Partners expressed no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount, nature or timing of the compensation to any of BroadSoft's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to such consideration.

The following is a brief summary of the material analyses performed by Qatalyst Partners in connection with its opinion dated October 20, 2017. The analyses and factors described below must be considered as a whole; considering any portion of such analyses or factors, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying Qatalyst Partners' opinion. For purposes of its analyses, Qatalyst Partners utilized both the Projections as well as research analyst consensus estimates for BroadSoft, which we refer to as the "Street Case." Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables are not intended to stand alone, and to more fully understand the financial analyses used by Qatalyst Partners, the tables must be read together with the full text of each summary. Considering the data set forth below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Qatalyst Partners' financial analyses.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Qatalyst Partners performed an illustrative discounted cash flow analysis, which is designed to imply a potential, present value of per share values for the common stock of BroadSoft as of September 30, 2017 by:

- adding:
 - a) the implied net present value of BroadSoft's estimated future unlevered free cash flows, based on the Projections for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2017 through fiscal year 2021 (which implied present value was calculated by using a range of discount rates of 8.0% to 13.0%, based on an estimated weighted average cost of capital for BroadSoft);
 - b) the implied net present value of a corresponding terminal value of BroadSoft, calculated by multiplying BroadSoft's estimated net operating profit after tax ("NOPAT") in fiscal year 2022, based on the Projections, by a range of multiples of fully-diluted enterprise value to next-twelve-months estimated NOPAT of 15.0x to 22.0x, and discounted to present value using the same range of discount rates used in item (a) above;
 - c) the estimated cash balance, net of the face value of outstanding convertible debt, of BroadSoft as of September 30, 2017, as provided by BroadSoft's management; and
- dividing the resulting amount by the number of fully-diluted shares of BroadSoft common stock (calculated using the treasury stock method) outstanding, taking into account RSUs, PSUs and stock options outstanding as of October 18, 2017, as provided by BroadSoft's management and treating in-the-money convertible debt on a net share basis, and applying a dilution factor derived from the forecasted stock based compensation provided to Qatalyst Partners in the Projections, which BroadSoft's management directed Qatalyst Partners to use for purposes of its opinion.

Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis implied a range of values for BroadSoft common stock of approximately $38.22 to $56.48 per share.

Based upon research analyst consensus estimates for calendar year 2018 as of October 18, 2017, and using the closing prices as of October 18, 2017 (except as noted above) for shares of the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners calculated, among other things, (a) the estimated calendar year 2018 price-to-earnings ratio (the “CY2018E P/E Multiples”) and (b) the implied fully-diluted enterprise value divided by the estimated calendar year 2018 EBITDA (the “CY2018E EBITDA Multiples”) for each of the selected companies.

Based on an analysis of the respective multiples for the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative multiple range for each of the respective multiples and applied this range to BroadSoft’s estimated statistic (a) based on the Projections and (b) based on the Street Case.

Based on an analysis of the CY2018E P/E Multiples for the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative multiple range of 16.0x to 25.0x and applied this range to BroadSoft’s estimated CY2018E Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes based on the Projections and the Street Case. For the purposes of this analysis, Qatalyst Partners added the per share present value of BroadSoft’s net operating losses and tax credits as of June 30, 2017, per BroadSoft’s management, to BroadSoft’s implied common stock price per share. The Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes was calculated based on a 25% statutory non-GAAP tax rate, per BroadSoft's management. Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis implied a range of values for BroadSoft common stock of approximately $35.11 to $54.68 per share based on the Projections, and $34.56 to $53.82 per share based on the Street Case.

Based on an analysis of the CY2018E EBITDA Multiples for the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative multiple range of 9.0x to 14.0x and applied this range to BroadSoft's estimated CY2018E EBITDA based on the Projections and the Street Case. This analysis implied a range of values for BroadSoft common stock of approximately $33.82 to $48.59 per share based on the Projections, and $32.14 to $46.44 per share based on the Street Case.

No company included in the selected companies analysis is identical to BroadSoft. In evaluating the selected companies, Qatalyst Partners made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters. Many of these matters are beyond the control of BroadSoft, such as the impact of competition on BroadSoft's business and the industry in general, industry growth and the absence of any material adverse change in BroadSoft's financial condition and prospects of or the industry or in the financial markets in general. Mathematical analysis, such as determining the arithmetic mean, median, or the high or low, is not in itself a meaningful method of using selected company data.

(1) Based on revised tender offer at 170 Kroner per share on November 16, 2009.

For each of the transactions listed above, Qatalyst Partners reviewed, among other things, (a) the price per share paid for the target company as a multiple of (i) last-twelve-months non-GAAP earnings per share of the target company ("LTM P/E Multiple"), (ii) analyst estimates of the next-twelve-months non-GAAP earnings per share ("NTM P/E Multiple"), as well as (b) the implied fully-diluted enterprise value of the target company as a multiple of (i) last-twelve-months EBITDA of the target company ("LTM EBITDA Multiple"), and (ii) analyst estimates of the next-twelve-months EBITDA of the target company (“NTM EBITDA Multiple”). Last-twelve-month and next-twelve-month periods were determined from the date of the last earnings release prior to, or in conjunction with, each respective transaction’s announcement date.

Based on an analysis of the LTM P/E Multiples for the selected transactions, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative multiple range of 18.0x to 27.0x and applied this range to BroadSoft’s Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes and BroadSoft’s as-reported non-GAAP earnings per share (calculated as the consecutive four quarters ended on June 30, 2017). For the purposes of the Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes analysis, Qatalyst Partners added the per share present value of BroadSoft’s net operating losses and tax credits as of June 30, 2017, per BroadSoft’s management, to BroadSoft’s implied common stock price per share. The Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes was calculated based on a 25% statutory non-GAAP tax rate, per BroadSoft’s management. Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis implied a range of values for BroadSoft common stock of approximately $28.40 to $42.45 per share based on the Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes, and $36.36 to $54.54 per share based on the as-reported non-GAAP earnings per share.

Based on an analysis of the NTM P/E Multiples for the selected transactions, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative multiple range of 16.0x to 23.0x and applied this range to the estimated Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes and BroadSoft’s as-reported non-GAAP earnings per share, based on the Street Case (calculated as the consecutive four quarters ending on June 30, 2018). For the purposes of the Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes analysis, Qatalyst Partners added the per share present value of BroadSoft’s net operating losses and tax credits as of June 30, 2017, per BroadSoft’s management, to BroadSoft’s implied common stock price per share. The Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes was calculated based on a 25% statutory non-GAAP tax rate, per BroadSoft’s management. Based on the calculations set forth above, this analysis implied a range of values for BroadSoft common stock of approximately $33.43 to $47.91 per share based on the Adjusted EPS after statutory taxes, and $41.76 to $60.03 per share based on the as-reported earnings per share.

Based on the analysis of the LTM EBITDA Multiples for selected transactions, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative multiple range of 10.0x to 15.0x applied to BroadSoft’s last-twelve-months EBITDA (calculated as the consecutive four quarters ended on June 30, 2017). This analysis implied a range of values for the common stock of approximately $26.27 to $37.05 per share.

Based on the analysis of the NTM EBITDA Multiples for the selected transactions, Qatalyst Partners selected a representative multiple range of 9.0x to 13.0x applied to BroadSoft’s estimated next-twelve-months EBITDA (calculated as the consecutive four quarters ending on June 30, 2018), based on the Street Case. This analysis implied a range of values for the common stock of approximately $30.75 to $41.50 per share.

No company or transaction utilized in the selected transactions analysis is identical to BroadSoft or the merger. In evaluating the selected transactions, Qatalyst Partners made judgments and assumptions with regard to general business, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond BroadSoft’s control, such as the impact of competition on BroadSoft’s business or the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any material adverse change in BroadSoft’s financial condition or the industry or in the financial markets in general, which could affect the public trading value of the companies and the aggregate value of the transactions to which they are being compared.

Miscellaneous

In connection with the review of the merger by our board of directors, Qatalyst Partners performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily amenable to a partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Qatalyst Partners considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor it considered. Qatalyst Partners believes that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all analyses as a whole, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. In addition, Qatalyst Partners may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Qatalyst Partners' view of BroadSoft's actual value. In performing its analyses, Qatalyst Partners made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond BroadSoft's control. Any estimates contained in Qatalyst Partners' analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates.

Qatalyst Partners conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of BroadSoft common stock, other than Cisco or any affiliate of Cisco, pursuant to the merger agreement. This analysis does not purport to be an appraisal or to reflect the price at which BroadSoft common stock might actually trade.

Qatalyst Partners' opinion and its presentation to our board of directors was one of many factors considered by our board of directors in deciding to approve the merger agreement. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of our board of directors with respect to the consideration to be received by the holders of BroadSoft common stock, other than Cisco or any affiliate of Cisco, pursuant to the merger agreement or of whether our board of directors would have been willing to agree to different consideration. The consideration payable in the merger was determined through arm's length negotiations between BroadSoft and Cisco and was approved by our board of directors. Qatalyst Partners provided advice to BroadSoft during these negotiations. Qatalyst Partners did not, however, recommend any specific consideration to BroadSoft or that any specific consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger.

Qatalyst Partners provides investment banking and other services to a wide range of corporations and individuals, domestically and offshore, from which conflicting interests or duties may arise. In the ordinary course of these activities, affiliates of Qatalyst Partners may at any time hold long or short positions, and may trade or otherwise effect transactions in debt or equity securities or loans of BroadSoft, Cisco or certain of their respective affiliates. During the two year period prior to the date of Qatalyst Partners' opinion, no material relationship existed between Qatalyst Partners and its affiliates and BroadSoft or Cisco pursuant to which compensation was received by Qatalyst Partners or its affiliates; however, Qatalyst Partners and its affiliates may in the future provide investment banking and other financial services to BroadSoft or Cisco or any of their respective affiliates for which it would expect to receive compensation.

Pursuant to a letter agreement dated August 27, 2013, as amended by a letter agreement dated June 1, 2017, Qatalyst Partners provided BroadSoft with financial advisory services in connection with the merger for which it will be paid approximately $32 million, $2.0 million of which was payable upon the delivery of its opinion (regardless of the conclusion reached therein), and the remaining portion of which will be paid upon, and subject to, consummation of the Merger. Additionally, BroadSoft paid Qatalyst Partners $75,000 at the execution of the letter agreement and $75,000 in 2013 following BroadSoft's first meeting with a company potentially interested in a strategic transaction with BroadSoft that BroadSoft determined to continue discussions with. BroadSoft has also agreed to reimburse Qatalyst for its expenses incurred in performing its services. BroadSoft has also agreed to indemnify Qatalyst Partners and its affiliates, their respective members, directors, officers, partners, agents and employees and any person controlling Qatalyst Partners or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, and expenses related to or arising out of Qatalyst Partners' engagement.

Opinion of Jefferies

BroadSoft has retained Jefferies to act as a financial advisor to BroadSoft in connection with the merger based on its reputation and substantial knowledge and expertise in the unified communications industry and mergers and acquisition transactions generally. In connection with this engagement, our board of directors requested that Jefferies evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of BroadSoft common stock (other than Cisco and its affiliates) pursuant to the merger. At the meeting of our board of directors on October 20, 2017, Jefferies rendered its oral opinion to our board of directors, confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated October 20, 2017, to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Jefferies as set forth in its opinion, the consideration to be received by holders of BroadSoft common stock (other than Cisco and its affiliates) pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Jefferies, dated October 20, 2017, to our board of directors is attached hereto as Annex B-2. Jefferies' opinion sets forth, among other things, the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Jefferies in rendering its opinion. We encourage you to read Jefferies' opinion carefully and in its entirety. Jefferies' opinion was provided for the use and benefit of our board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the holders of BroadSoft common stock (other than Cisco and its affiliates) pursuant to the merger as of the date of the opinion. It does not address any other aspects of the merger, including the underlying business decision by BroadSoft to engage in the merger, and does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of BroadSoft common stock should vote or act with respect to the merger or any matter related thereto. The summary of the opinion of Jefferies set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Jefferies, among other things:

- reviewed a draft dated October 20, 2017 of the merger agreement;
- reviewed certain publicly available financial and other information about BroadSoft;
- reviewed certain information furnished to Jefferies by BroadSoft's management, including the Projections, relating to the business, operations and prospects of BroadSoft;
- held discussions with members of senior management of BroadSoft concerning the matters described in the second and third bullets immediately above;
- reviewed the share trading price history and valuation multiples for BroadSoft common stock and compared them with those of certain other publicly traded companies that Jefferies deemed relevant;
- reviewed the proposed financial terms of the merger and compared them with the financial terms of certain other acquisition transactions that Jefferies deemed relevant; and
- conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as Jefferies deemed appropriate.

In Jefferies' review and analysis and in rendering its opinion, Jefferies assumed and relied upon, but did not assume any responsibility to independently investigate or verify, the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information that was supplied or otherwise made available by BroadSoft or that was otherwise publicly available to Jefferies (including, without limitation, the information described above), or that was otherwise reviewed by Jefferies. In its review, Jefferies relied on assurances of management of BroadSoft that it was not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information incomplete, inaccurate or misleading, and did not obtain any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent, derivative, off-balance sheet or otherwise) of, or conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of, BroadSoft. Jefferies was not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals of such physical inspections and did not assume any responsibility to obtain any such evaluations or appraisals.

With respect to the Projections (including estimates as to potential net operating loss carryforwards of BroadSoft on a standalone basis) provided to and reviewed by Jefferies, Jefferies' opinion noted that projecting future results of any company is inherently subject to uncertainty. We informed Jefferies, however, and Jefferies assumed, that such Projections were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the management of BroadSoft as to the future financial performance of BroadSoft. Jefferies expressed no opinion as to the Projections or the assumptions on which they were made.

Jefferies' opinion was based on economic, monetary, regulatory, market and other conditions existing and which could be evaluated as of the date of its opinion. Jefferies expressly disclaimed any undertaking or obligation to advise any person of any change in any fact or matter affecting Jefferies' opinion of which Jefferies became aware after the date of its opinion.

Jefferies made no independent investigation of any legal, regulatory, accounting or tax matters affecting BroadSoft or the merger, and Jefferies assumed the correctness in all respects meaningful to Jefferies' analysis of all legal and accounting advice given to BroadSoft and our board of directors, including, without limitation, advice as to the legal, regulatory, accounting and tax consequences of the terms of, and transactions contemplated by, the merger agreement to BroadSoft and its stockholders. In addition, in preparing its opinion, Jefferies did not take into account any tax or other consequences of the merger to, or individual circumstances of, any holder of BroadSoft common stock. In rendering its opinion, Jefferies assumed that the final form of the merger agreement would be substantially similar to the last draft reviewed by it and assumed that the merger would be consummated in accordance with its terms without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement and in compliance with all applicable laws, documents and other requirements. Jefferies also assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory or third party approvals, consents, waivers and releases for the merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed or occur that would have an adverse effect on BroadSoft, Cisco or that otherwise would be meaningful in any respect to its analyses or opinion.

Jefferies' opinion was for the use and benefit of our board of directors in its evaluation of the consideration from a financial point of view, and did not address the relative merits of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as compared to any alternative transaction or opportunity that might be available to BroadSoft. Jefferies' opinion also did not address the underlying business decision by BroadSoft to engage in the merger or the terms of the merger agreement or the documents referred to therein, including the form or structure of the merger or any term, aspect or implication of any guarantee, financing or other arrangements, agreements or understandings entered into in connection with, or contemplated by or resulting from, the merger or otherwise. Jefferies' opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of BroadSoft common stock should vote or act with respect to the merger or any matter. In addition, Jefferies did not express an opinion or view with respect to, and its opinion did not address, the fairness to, or any other consideration of, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of BroadSoft, other than the holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock. Jefferies expressed no opinion as to the price at which shares of BroadSoft common stock would trade at any time. Furthermore, Jefferies did not express any view or opinion as to the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount or nature of any compensation or other consideration payable or to be received by any of BroadSoft's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, in connection with the merger relative to the consideration to be received by holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock. Jefferies' opinion was authorized by the Fairness Committee of Jefferies.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Jefferies performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, which are summarized below. The following summary is not a complete description of all analyses performed and factors considered in connection with Jefferies' opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. With respect to the selected public companies and selected precedent transactions analyses summarized below, no company or transaction used as a comparison was identical or directly comparable to BroadSoft or the merger. These analyses necessarily involved complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the public trading, acquisition or other values of the companies or transactions concerned.

Jefferies believes that its analyses and the summary below must be considered as a whole. Considering any portion of Jefferies' analyses or the factors considered by Jefferies or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying the conclusion expressed in Jefferies' analyses and opinion. In addition, Jefferies may have given various analyses more or less weight than other analyses, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions, so that implied reference ranges resulting from any particular analysis described below should not be taken to be Jefferies' view of BroadSoft's actual value. Jefferies did not draft, in isolation, conclusions from or with regard to any one factor or method of analysis for purposes of its opinion, but rather arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and also on the application of Jefferies' own experience and judgment.

In performing its analyses, Jefferies made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, monetary, regulatory, market and other conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond our and Jefferies' control. The analyses performed by Jefferies are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Estimates of the financial value of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or securities actually may be sold or acquired. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the range of the valuations resulting from, any particular analysis described below are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty and should not be taken as Jefferies' view of the actual value of BroadSoft or its securities.

The analyses performed were prepared solely as part of Jefferies' analysis on the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock (other than Cisco or its affiliates) pursuant to the merger agreement, and were provided to our board of directors in connection with the delivery of Jefferies' opinion. The consideration payable in the merger was determined through negotiation between BroadSoft and Cisco, and the decision by BroadSoft to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of our board of directors. Jefferies' opinion and financial analyses were only one of many factors considered by the board of directors in its evaluation of the consideration and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the consideration payable in the merger.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Jefferies in connection with Jefferies' delivery of its opinion and presentation to our board of directors at its meeting on October 20, 2017. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Jefferies' financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data described below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Jefferies' financial analyses.

Jefferies reviewed total enterprise values (“TEV”), calculated as fully-diluted equity values based on closing stock prices on October 13, 2017, plus total debt, preferred stock and non-controlling interests (as applicable) less cash and cash equivalents, for the selected companies as a multiple of their respective estimated adjusted earnings per share for calendar years 2017 and 2018. Estimated financial data of the selected companies were based on publicly available Wall Street research analysts’ estimates, public filings and other publicly available information, calendarized in certain instances for comparative purposes. Estimated financial data of BroadSoft was based on publicly available information and the Projections.

Applying a range of selected multiples from each of the selected companies to BroadSoft’s estimated adjusted cash tax earnings per share for calendar years 2017 and 2018, respectively, Jefferies derived ranges of implied enterprise value for BroadSoft. Jefferies derived the below implied equity reference ranges per share of BroadSoft common stock, as compared to the consideration to be received by the holders of BroadSoft common stock (other than Cisco and its affiliates) pursuant to the merger, by subtracting total debt and adding cash and cash equivalents to the ranges of implied enterprise values for BroadSoft and dividing by BroadSoft’s fully diluted shares of BroadSoft common stock outstanding (including the make-whole shares from BroadSoft’s 2018 and 2022 convertible debt), based on the capitalization table provided to Jefferies by BroadSoft's management on October 18, 2017, which BroadSoft's management directed Jefferies to use for purposes of its opinion.

BroadSoft Price / CY18 Adj. Cash Tax EPS of $2.75	14.0x – 20.0x	$ 38.56 – $ 55.08

None of the selected companies is identical to BroadSoft. In evaluating the selected companies, Jefferies made numerous judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond BroadSoft's and Jefferies' control. Mathematical analysis, such as determining the median, is not in itself a meaningful method of using the selected companies' data.

Jefferies reviewed selected transactions announced since January 1, 2009 with an implied transaction enterprise value between $300 million and $4 billion.

Jefferies reviewed, among other things, publicly available enterprise transaction values of the selected transactions, if available, and otherwise calculated enterprise transaction values as the purchase prices paid for the target companies involved in such transactions adjusted for cash and debt on the applicable target companies' balance sheet at the time of acquisition if publicly available, in each case as a multiple of the respective target companies' last-twelve-months' revenue ("LTM Revenue"), last-twelve-months' EBITDA ("LTM EBITDA") and last-twelve-months' adjusted earnings per share ("LTM Adj. EPS").

Applying a range of selected multiples of 3.0x to 4.5x for LTM Revenue, 16.0x to 18.0x for LTM EBITDA and 20.0x to 24.0x LTM Adj. Cash Tax EPS, for the year ending December 31, 2017, and assuming a LTM Revenue of $386 million, LTM EBITDA of $97 million and LTM Adj. Cash Tax EPS of $2.41, Jefferies derived the below implied equity reference ranges per share of BroadSoft common stock, as compared to the consideration to be received by the holders of BroadSoft common stock (other than Cisco and its affiliates) pursuant to the merger, by subtracting total debt and adding cash and cash equivalents to the ranges of implied enterprise values for BroadSoft and dividing by BroadSoft's fully diluted shares of BroadSoft common stock outstanding, based on the capitalization table provided to Jefferies by BroadSoft's management on October 18, 2017, which BroadSoft's management directed Jefferies to use. Financial data for the selected transactions and BroadSoft were based on public filings, other publicly available information and the Projections.

Benchmark	Multiple Range	Implied Equity Reference Range Per Share of BroadSoft common stock
BroadSoft TEV / LTM (12/31/17) Revenue of $386 million	3.0x – 4.5x	$37.91 – $52.04
BroadSoft TEV / LTM (12/31/17) EBITDA of $97 million	16.0x – 18.0x	$47.49 – $52.10
BroadSoft Price / LTM (12/31/17) Adjusted Cash Tax Earnings Per Share of $2.41	20.0x – 24.0x	$48.27 – $57.93

No transaction selected by Jefferies for its analysis is identical to the merger. In evaluating the merger, Jefferies made numerous judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond BroadSoft's and Jefferies' control. Mathematical analysis, such as determining the median, is not in itself a meaningful method of analyzing transaction data.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Jefferies performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate the present value of the free cash flows of BroadSoft through the fiscal year ending 2022 using the Projections, discount rates ranging from 10.8% to 12.8%, which were based on a weighted average cost of capital calculation for the selected companies, and a net operating profit after taxes next-twelve-months multiple ranging from 14.0x to 20.0x. Jefferies also, per BroadSoft's management guidance, assumed that all net operating losses would be fully utilized by the end of 2019 and BroadSoft would have a 20% long term cash tax rate through the fiscal year ending 2020 and thereafter. To determine the implied total equity value for BroadSoft, Jefferies subtracted total debt and added cash and cash equivalents to the implied enterprise value of BroadSoft. To derive an implied equity reference range per share of BroadSoft common stock, as compared to the consideration to be received by the holders of BroadSoft common stock (other than Cisco and its affiliates) pursuant to the merger, Jefferies divided the total implied equity value by the amount of BroadSoft's fully diluted shares of common stock outstanding, based on the capitalization table provided to Jefferies by BroadSoft's management on October 18, 2017 and the forecasted stock based compensation provided to Jefferies in the Projections, which BroadSoft's management directed Jefferies to use for purposes of its opinion. This analysis indicated an implied equity reference range per share of common stock of $37.86 to $50.47.

Other Information

For reference purposes only, using publicly available information, Jefferies reviewed the premia offered in all-cash mergers and acquisitions transactions that were announced between January 1, 2008 and October 13, 2017. For each of these transactions, Jefferies calculated the premium represented by the offer price or merger consideration over the target company's closing stock price one trading day and 20 trading days prior to the transaction's announcement. The review indicated the following premia for those time periods prior to announcement:

Time Period Prior to Announcement	25th Percentile	75th Percentile
One-Day Premium	20%	44%
20-Day Premium	27%	53%

Applying a reference range of the 25th and the 75th percentile for each of the time periods described above to BroadSoft's unaffected one trading day stock price of $43.05 on August 29, 2017 and BroadSoft's unaffected 20 trading day stock price of $43.60 on August 2, 2017, Jefferies derived implied equity reference ranges of $51.52 to $61.96 with respect to the one trading day premium prior to affected date and $55.39 to $66.53 with respect to the 20 trading day premium prior to the affected date.

General

Jefferies' opinion was one of many factors taken into consideration by our board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger and should not be considered determinative of the views of our board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the consideration.

Jefferies was selected by our board of directors based on Jefferies' qualifications, expertise and reputation. Jefferies is an internationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm. Jefferies, as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, financial restructurings and other financial services.

Pursuant to a letter agreement, dated May 22, 2017, between BroadSoft and Jefferies, BroadSoft has agreed to pay Jefferies for its financial advisory services in connection with the merger a fee of approximately $15.9 million, $1,000,000 of which was payable upon the delivery of Jefferies' opinion (regardless of the conclusion reached therein). We have also agreed to reimburse Jefferies for certain expenses incurred in connection with Jefferies' engagement, and to indemnify Jefferies against liabilities arising out of or in connection with the services rendered or to be rendered by Jefferies under its engagement. Jefferies has, in the past, provided financial advisory and financing services to BroadSoft and may continue to do so and have received, and may receive, fees for the rendering of such services. Jefferies has not, in the past two years, provided financial advisory and/or financing services to BroadSoft or Cisco. Jefferies maintains a market in the securities of BroadSoft, and in the ordinary course of its business, Jefferies and its affiliates may trade or hold securities of BroadSoft or Cisco and/or their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in those securities. In addition, Jefferies may seek to, in the future, provide financial advisory and financing services to BroadSoft, Cisco or entities that are affiliated with BroadSoft or Cisco, for which Jefferies would expect to receive compensation.

Certain Projections Utilized by BroadSoft in Connection with the Merger

We do not, as a matter of course, publicly disclose forecasts or projections as to future performance, earnings or other results, other than our annual and quarterly guidance, due to the inherent unpredictability of the underlying long term assumptions, estimates and projections.

Our management prepared forward-looking financial information for the years 2017 through 2022, which was provided to our board of directors, as well as Qatalyst Partners and Jefferies, in July 2017 and thereafter updated the 2017 estimates in October 2017 only to reflect actual results through September 30, 2017, in connection with the evaluation of the proposed merger with Cisco and the merger consideration in comparison to other strategic alternatives. These internal financial forecasts for the years 2017 through 2022 (the "Projections") were based on the assumptions of (a) a 13% compounded annual growth rate ("CAGR") in total revenue for the period between 2016 and 2022, driven by 10% compounded annual growth rate for the same time period in software revenue (comprising a 15% CAGR between 2016 and 2019 and a 4% CAGR between 2019 and 2022 with the faster growth in the 2016-2019 timeframe driven by our transformation projects and slower growth in the 2019 to 2022 timeframe driven by a deceleration in those same transformation projects as they near completion), 19% compounded annual growth rate for 2016-2022 in maintenance and subscription revenue (comprising a 28% CAGR in SaaS revenue and a 13% CAGR in maintenance revenue) and de minimus growth in compounded annual professional services revenue for the period between 2016 and 2022, (b) an increase in non-GAAP gross margin by 60 basis points in 2022 as compared to 2016, driven by an increase in software gross margin by 169 basis points and maintenance and subscription gross margin increase of 47 basis points (comprising a 146 basis point increase in maintenance margin and a 14.4% increase in SaaS margin; the aggregate margin impact is muted given the much faster growth forecast in lower-margin SaaS revenue), partially offset by a decline in professional services gross margin of 11%, (c) projected operating expense percentage decline of 129 basis points in 2019 as compared to 2016 given strong software revenue growth during that time period followed by a projected operating expense percentage increase of 144 basis points in 2022 as compared to 2019 concomitant with the slowdown in software revenue growth and (d) net operating losses utilization that would keep cash tax rate below 9% through 2019E and 20% thereafter. The Projections were reviewed by our board of directors and authorized by the board for use by our financial advisors, Qatalyst Partners and Jefferies, respectively. In addition, in connection with the evaluation of a possible transaction with Cisco, we provided Cisco with a subset of the Projections, including revenue, adjusted EBITDA and EBIT for the years 2017 through 2019 that were prepared by our management and not for public disclosure.

The information set forth below is included solely to give BroadSoft's stockholders access to relevant portions of such financial projections and is not included in this proxy statement to influence any BroadSoft stockholder to vote in favor of the merger or for any other purpose, including whether or not to seek appraisal rights with respect to a stockholder's shares of BroadSoft common stock.

The Projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure or toward complying with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), nor were they prepared with a view toward compliance with published guidelines of the SEC, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of Projections. The Projections are not meant to be considered in isolation or as a substitute for results prepared in accordance with GAAP. In addition, the Projections were not based on any comprehensive set of accounting rules or principles, nor were they prepared with the assistance of or reviewed, compiled or examined by independent accountants. The Projections may differ from published analyst estimates and forecasts and do not take into account any events or circumstances after the date they were prepared, including the announcement of the merger.

The Projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain and may be beyond our management's control. Important factors that may affect actual results and result in such forecasts not being achieved include the risks and uncertainties detailed in our public periodic filings with the SEC. In addition, the Projections may be affected by our ability to achieve strategic goals, objectives and targets over the applicable period. The assumptions upon which the Projections were based necessarily involve judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive and regulatory conditions and financial market conditions and future business decisions that may not be realized and that are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and regulatory uncertainties and contingencies, including, among other things, the inherent uncertainty of the business and economic conditions affecting the industry in which we operate, and the risk and uncertainties described under "Caution Regarding Forward-Looking Statements", all of which are difficult or impossible to predict accurately and many of which are beyond our control. The Projections also reflect assumptions as to certain business decisions that are subject to change.

The Projections were developed by BroadSoft management on a standalone basis without giving effect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and therefore the Projections do not give effect to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or any changes to BroadSoft's operations or strategy that may be implemented after the consummation of the merger, including any costs incurred in connection with the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Furthermore, the Projections do not take into account the effect of any failure of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to be completed and should not be viewed as accurate or continuing in that context.

Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Projections will be realized, and actual results may vary materially from those shown. The inclusion of the Projections in this proxy statement should not be regarded as an indication that any of BroadSoft, Qatalyst Partners, Jefferies, Cisco or Sub or any of their respective affiliates, officers, directors, advisors or other representatives considered or consider the Projections necessarily predictive of actual future events, and the Projections should not be relied upon as such. None of BroadSoft, Qatalyst Partners, Jefferies, Cisco, Sub or any of their respective affiliates, officers, directors, advisors or other representatives can give any assurance that actual results will not differ from the Projections, and BroadSoft undertakes no obligation to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the Projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date such Projections were generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the Projections are shown to be in error. None of BroadSoft, or, to the knowledge of BroadSoft, Cisco or Sub, intends to make publicly available any update or other revisions to the Projections. None of BroadSoft or its respective affiliates, officers, directors, advisors or other representatives has made or makes any representation to any stockholder or other person regarding the ultimate performance of BroadSoft compared to the information contained in the Projections or that forecasted results will be achieved. BroadSoft has made no representation to Cisco or Sub, in the merger agreement or otherwise, concerning the Projections.

The Projections includes certain non-GAAP financial measures, including Adjusted EBITDA and EBIT, unlevered free cash flow, net operating income after cash taxes, net operating income after statutory taxes and earnings per share based on a non-GAAP number of outstanding shares (“EPS”). Certain of the financial projections set forth herein may be considered non-GAAP financial measures. Non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, financial information presented in compliance with GAAP, and non-GAAP financial measures as used by BroadSoft may not be comparable to similarly titled amounts used by other companies.

In light of the foregoing factors and the uncertainties inherent in these projections, stockholders of BroadSoft are cautioned not to place undue, if any, reliance on these projections.

Vote Required and Recommendation of the Board of Directors

At a special meeting of our board of directors held on October 20, 2017, our board of directors unanimously (a) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, (b) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, taken together, are at a price and on terms that are fair to, and in the best interest of, BroadSoft and its stockholders, (c) approved the execution, delivery and performance by BroadSoft of the merger agreement and consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and (d) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger.

Adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock entitled to vote thereon at the close of business on the Record Date. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will have the same effect as “against” votes with respect to the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that the BroadSoft stockholders vote “FOR” the adoption of the merger agreement, and thereby approve the merger.

Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the unanimous recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the merger, you should be aware that our directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of stockholders generally. Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger. Stockholders should take these benefits into account in deciding whether to vote for adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. As described in more detail below, these interests include:

- at the effective time of the merger, each outstanding vested stock option, vested RSU and vested PSU granted under BroadSoft’s equity plans (including those held by our directors and executive officers) (including such options, RSUs, and PSUs that vest in connection with the merger) will terminate and be converted into the right to receive from Cisco an amount of cash equal to $55.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, the excess, if any, of $55.00 over the exercise price of such option), without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding;
- each outstanding unvested stock option, unvested RSU and unvested PSU granted under BroadSoft’s equity plans held by the continuing employees and consultants of BroadSoft or its subsidiaries as of the effective time of the merger (including those held by our directors and executive officers) will be converted into and substituted for the right to receive from Cisco an amount of unvested cash equal to $55.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, the excess, if any, of $55.00 over the exercise price of such option), payable in accordance with the service-based vesting schedule for such equity award (including any applicable terms relating to termination and accelerated vesting of the equity award), without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding (the unvested PSUs will no longer be subject to performance-based vesting criteria but service-based vesting criteria only);
- accelerated vesting, upon the effective time of the merger, of the RSUs, held by non-employee non-continuing directors, as described in more detail below under the section of this proxy statement captioned “Cash-Out of Certain BroadSoft Equity Awards”;

- Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen have entered into employment agreements with Cisco setting forth the terms and conditions of these executives' continued employment with Cisco from and after the closing of the merger, as further described under the section "Future Arrangements with Cisco" below;
- other executive officers may be eligible to receive cash severance payments and benefits under individual Change in Control Severance Agreements upon certain types of terminations of employment that occur following the merger, but only if their respective employment is in fact so terminated; and
- accelerated vesting and payment of unvested cash in connection with qualifying terminations of an executive officer's employment following the merger, as described in more detail below under the section captioned "Compensation Related to Transaction or Subsequent Termination."

For further information with respect to the arrangements between BroadSoft and its executive officers, directors and affiliates described in this Item, as well as other arrangements between BroadSoft and its executive officers, directors, and affiliates, please see our Definitive Proxy Statement filed pursuant to Regulation 14A on March 17, 2017.

Outstanding Shares Held by Executive Officers and Directors

Directors and executive officers will receive the same cash consideration for any shares of BroadSoft stock on the same terms and conditions as the other stockholders of BroadSoft. As of October 31, 2017, the executive officers and directors of BroadSoft owned, in the aggregate, 332,019 shares of BroadSoft common stock (which, for clarity, excludes shares of BroadSoft common stock issuable upon the exercise of BroadSoft stock options and the vesting of BroadSoft RSUs and PSUs).

The following table sets forth (a) the number of shares of BroadSoft common stock owned as of October 31, 2017, by each of our executive officers and directors and (b) the aggregate merger consideration that would be payable for such shares.

Cash-Out of Certain BroadSoft Equity Awards

As described above:

- at the effective time of the merger, each outstanding vested stock option, vested RSU and vested PSU granted under BroadSoft's equity plans (including those held by our directors and executive officers) will terminate and be converted into the right to receive from Cisco an amount of cash equal to $55.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, the excess, if any, of $55.00 over the exercise price of such option), without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. Upon the effective time of the merger, the vesting of RSUs held by non-employee non-continuing directors will accelerate under the terms of their RSU awards; and
- each outstanding unvested stock option, unvested RSU and unvested PSU granted under BroadSoft's equity plans held by the continuing employees and consultants of BroadSoft or its subsidiaries as of the effective time of the merger (including those held by our directors and executive officers) will be converted into and substituted for the right to receive from Cisco an amount of unvested cash equal to $55.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, the excess, if any, of $55.00 over the exercise price of such option), payable in accordance with the service-based vesting schedule for such equity award (including any applicable terms relating to termination and accelerated vesting of the equity award), without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. The unvested PSUs will no longer be subject to performance-based vesting criteria but service-based vesting criteria only.

On October 18, 2017, in connection with BroadSoft's expected entry into the merger agreement, our compensation committee approved, and BroadSoft subsequently entered into, amendments to the terms of PSU awards granted on February 27, 2017 to each of Michael Tessler, Scott D. Hoffpauir and James A. Tholen, effective immediately prior to but subject to the occurrence of the merger (the "Key Employee PSU Amendments"). The Key Employee PSU Amendments provide that, in connection with the consummation of the merger, (a) such PSUs will convert into the right to receive an amount of unvested cash based on the sum of both the target number and the overachievement number of PSUs subject to the original award and (b) that, if the merger closes prior to the certification date of the PSUs for the 2017 calendar year, such unvested cash amount will vest one-third on March 1, 2018, with the remainder vesting in eight quarterly installments over a two-year period thereafter (or, if the merger closes after the certification date of the PSUs for the 2017 calendar year, the unvested portion will vest in quarterly installments over the remainder of the two-year period following the certification date (with the initial "catch up" installment vesting on the closing date if the closing occurs after June 1, 2018)), subject to continued service through such vesting dates. On the same date, our compensation committee also approved an amendment to the PSU award granted on February 27, 2017 to Dino Di Palma, effective immediately prior to but subject to the occurrence of the merger, that provides for conversion into the right to receive unvested cash based on the total number of PSUs subject to such award in connection with the merger to vest in full on December 31, 2018, subject to continued service through that date (together with the Key Employee PSU Amendments, the "PSU Amendments").

The table below provides a summary of the cash payments that would be payable to our executive officers and directors upon consummation of the merger in connection with the cancellation of outstanding vested stock options, vested RSUs and vested PSUs in exchange for the cash consideration described above, and assuming the merger closes on January 31, 2018.

Existing Change in Control Severance Agreements

We have entered into Change in Control Severance Agreements with each of our executive officers that contain severance provisions providing for continued payment of salary and payment for the cost of certain group health benefits for a specified period of time in the event that the executive officer is terminated without “cause” or resigns for “good reason” (as these terms are defined in such agreements) within one month prior to, or one year after, a change in control of BroadSoft (which would include the merger). Severance under these agreements is payable in the form of salary and payment for the cost of certain group health benefits for a period of 12 months, in the case of Mr. Tessler, nine months in the case of each of Messrs. Hoffpauir and Tholen and six months in the case of each of Messrs. Behbehani, Dourgarian and Di Palma. To receive any of the severance payments under these agreements, the executive officer would be required to execute, and not revoke, a release of claims against BroadSoft, its parents, subsidiaries, directors, executive officers and other related parties and comply with the provisions of the release, including confidentiality and non-disparagement provisions.

Future Arrangements with Cisco

On October 20, 2017, Cisco entered into an at-will Employment Agreement with each of Michael Tessler, BroadSoft’s President and Chief Executive Officer, and Scott D. Hoffpauir, BroadSoft’s Chief Technology Officer, and a Transitional Employment Agreement with James A. Tholen, BroadSoft’s Chief Financial Officer (collectively, the “Employment Agreements”), setting forth the terms and conditions of these executives’ continued employment with Cisco from and after the closing of the merger. The effectiveness of the Employment Agreements is contingent on the closing of the merger. The chairman of our board of directors approved the retention of outside legal counsel to represent the executives in the Employment Agreement negotiations.

The Employment Agreements provide, following the effective time of the merger, for (a) a base salary of $400,000, $365,000 and $365,000 for Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen, respectively, (b) a target annual bonus of $300,000, $255,500 and $255,500 for Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen, respectively, (c) payment of a one-time cash bridging bonus of $924,000 and $164,840, respectively for Mr. Tessler and Mr. Hoffpauir, in eight quarterly installments, and $82,420 for Mr. Tholen, in four quarterly installments, subject to the executive’s continued employment, and (d) payment of a retention bonus equal to (i) for Mr. Tessler, $4,333,333 payable in quarterly installments for a period of three years following the closing of the merger of $291,667 for the first eight quarterly installments and $500,000 for the last four quarterly installments, (ii) for Mr. Hoffpauir, $3,500,000 payable in quarterly installments for a period of three years following the closing of the merger of $250,000 for the first eight quarterly installments and $375,000 for the last four quarterly installments, and (iii) $200,000 for Mr. Tholen payable in two equal semi-annual installments following the merger, subject in each case to such executive’s continued employment.

Under each Employment Agreement, if an executive’s employment is terminated without “cause” or with “good reason” (as such terms are defined in the Employment Agreements) within three years following the closing date of the merger (or within one year of the closing date in the case of Mr. Tholen or if Mr. Tholen’s employment terminates at the end of his one-year transitional employment period), then subject to signing an effective release of claims, the executive will be entitled to receive a cash amount as severance equal to 12 months base salary and the cost to continue group health care coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (“COBRA”) for 12 months, which amount will be grossed up to cover applicable taxes, and, if such termination occurs within 12 months following the closing date of the merger, the remaining installments of the retention bonus described above that would have been payable with respect to such 12-month period. In the event of any such termination, or in the event of an executive’s death or disability, in any such case that occurs within 18 months following the closing date of the merger (or within 12 months, in the case of Mr. Tholen, or if Mr. Tholen’s employment terminates at the end of his one-year transitional employment period), the executive’s benefits will vest with respect to any unvested cash amount into which unvested RSUs and unvested PSUs converted in the merger. In addition, in the case of Messrs. Tessler and Hoffpauir, if the executive is terminated at any time without “cause”, the executive will become entitled to accelerated vesting with respect to the unvested cash amount into which unvested RSUs and unvested PSUs converted in the merger to the extent such amount would have vested had the executive continued in employment for 12 months following the date of termination, subject to signing an effective release of claims, provided such additional acceleration does not provide for any duplication of benefits. Following the closing of the merger, the severance benefits set forth in the Employment Agreements will supersede the severance benefits previously set forth in the respective Change in Control Severance Agreements for each of Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen.

The Employment Agreements require each executive to execute a non-competition agreement restricting the executive from competing with Cisco for the longer of (a) three years from the closing of the merger (or, in the case of Mr. Tholen, two years) and (b) one year following the termination of his employment, and from soliciting employees of Cisco for three years from the closing of the merger (or, in the case of Mr. Tholen, two years).

To our knowledge, except for the Employment Agreements and certain agreements described in this proxy statement between BroadSoft and its executive officers and directors, no other employment, equity contribution or other written agreement between any executive officer or director of BroadSoft, on the one hand, and Cisco or its affiliates, on the other hand, existed as of the date of this proxy statement, and the merger is not conditioned upon any executive officer or director of BroadSoft entering into any such agreement, arrangement or understanding.

It is possible that additional members of our current management team will enter into new employment or consulting arrangements with Cisco or its affiliates, with any such arrangements to become effective after the merger is completed, if at all. There can be no assurance that the applicable parties will reach an agreement on any terms, or at all.

Accelerated Vesting of RSU and PSU Awards

Under the terms of RSU and PSU awards granted to BroadSoft's executive officers, if a change in control occurs (including the merger), and an executive officer's employment is terminated without "cause" or the executive officer terminates employment with "good reason" (as such terms are defined in the equity award agreements) within one year following the change in control, then vesting of 100% of the then unvested cash amount into which such unvested RSUs and PSUs converted in the merger will accelerate. Following the closing of the merger, the acceleration benefits set forth in the Employment Agreements will supersede the acceleration benefits previously set forth in the respective equity award agreements for Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen.

2017 Bonus Payments

On October 18, 2017, in connection with BroadSoft's expected entry into the merger agreement, the Compensation Committee of our board of directors determined that payments to BroadSoft's executive officers would be made under BroadSoft's 2017 Executive Bonus Plan (the "2017 Bonus Plan") at 90% of each executive's target bonus for the year ending December 31, 2017. The 2017 Bonus Plan was previously described in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on March 3, 2017. Under the merger agreement, such bonuses shall be paid on the earlier of (a) February 28, 2018 and (b) immediately prior to the closing of the merger.

Compensation Related to Transaction or Subsequent Termination

This section sets forth the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding the compensation for each of our named executive officers and Dino Di Palma, our Chief Revenue Officer, that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger. This compensation is referred to as "golden parachute" compensation by the applicable SEC disclosure rules. The amounts set forth in the table are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur, including assumptions described in this proxy statement and in the footnotes to the table. As a result, the actual amounts, if any, that an executive officer receives may materially differ from the amounts set forth in the table.

The table below assumes that (a) the merger will occur on January 31, 2018, (b) the employment of the executive officer will be terminated on such date in a manner entitling the executive officer to receive severance payments and benefits under the terms of the executive officer’s Change in Control Severance Benefits Agreement or, with respect to Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen, under a new Employment Agreement entered into with Cisco in connection with the merger, (c) the executive officer’s base salary rate, target bonus and COBRA premium rate will remain unchanged (other than, with respect to Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen, changes under a new Employment Agreement entered into with Cisco in connection with the merger), (d) no executive officer receives any additional equity grants on or prior to the merger and (e) no executive officer enters into any other new agreements or is otherwise legally entitled to, prior to the merger, additional compensation or benefits. The amounts shown in the table do not include the value of payments or benefits that would have been earned, or any amounts associated with equity awards that would vest pursuant to their terms, on or prior to the assumed date of the merger, or the value of payments or benefits that are not based on or otherwise related to the merger. In the footnotes to the amounts shown in the table below, we refer to payments that are conditioned on both the occurrence of the merger as well as the executive officer’s termination of employment as being payable on a “double-trigger” basis and we refer to payments that are conditioned only upon the occurrence of the merger as being payable on a “single-trigger” basis. The individuals named below represent the executive officers that would be listed in our annual proxy with respect to the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016. As required by relevant SEC rules, we are also including our current Chief Revenue Officer, Mr. Di Palma, who joined BroadSoft in January 2017, in this table. While Mr. Di Palma’s compensation is set forth in this table, it is not subject to the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft’s named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger.

- (1) Represents cash severance payable if such executive experiences a qualifying termination following the merger under the terms of the employment agreements between such executive and Cisco, the terms of which are summarized under the heading “Future Arrangements with Cisco” above, in the case of Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen and the terms of the existing Change in Control Severance Agreements, in the case of Messrs. Behbehani, Dourgarian and Di Palma.
- (2) Represents the value of the unvested cash amounts into which unvested RSUs and PSUs will convert, as described under “Cash-Out of Certain BroadSoft Equity Awards” and “Accelerated Vesting of RSU and PSU Awards” above, that will accelerate and be paid to each executive under the terms of the award or, in the case of Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen, the terms of his Employment Agreement with Cisco in connection with a qualifying termination of his employment. Such accelerated vesting and payment of unvested cash amounts are “double trigger” in nature as they will only be payable on an accelerated basis in the event of a qualifying termination of employment following the merger.

The amounts for each executive officer represent:

Name	Unvested Cash (RSUs)	Unvested Cash (PSUs)(*)
Michael Tessler	$5,153,170	$3,696,275
Scott D. Hoffpauir	$2,641,155	$1,924,065
James A. Tholen	$2,641,155	$1,924,065
Taher G. Behbehani	$2,330,570	$401,555
Dennis D. Dourgarian	$884,676	—
Dino Di Palma	$733,370	$357,500

- * Assuming effectiveness of the PSU Amendments described above.
- (3) Represents the estimated cost of continued health plan coverage (assuming the monthly premium rates under BroadSoft’s existing group health insurance plans) during the applicable severance period payable under the terms of the severance agreements between such executive and BroadSoft or, in the case of Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen, under the terms of the employment agreements between each such executive and Cisco (which amounts will be grossed up to include applicable taxes), the terms of which are summarized under the headings “Existing Change in Control Severance Agreements” and “Future Arrangements with Cisco” above.
- (4) Represents the one-time “single-trigger” cash bridging bonuses of $924,000, $164,840 and $82,420, respectively, for Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen and payment of a retention bonus equal to $4,333,333, $3,500,000 and $200,000 respectively for Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen, subject to the executive’s continued employment as further described under the heading “Future Arrangements with Cisco” above. This disclosure assumes that each executive is not terminated on the closing date of the merger and remains employed with Cisco through all of the applicable vesting and payment dates set forth in the employment agreements.
- (5) Includes the value of 2017 cash bonuses payable to each executive officer under the 2017 Bonus Plan, as described under “2017 Bonus Payments,” above. The amount of each bonus payment is set forth in the table below. To the extent the merger closes prior to February 28, 2018, such payments would be considered “single trigger” in nature because they are not conditioned upon the termination of an executive’s employment. Mr. Di Palma does not participate in the 2017 Bonus Plan.

Name	2017 Bonus Payment
Michael Tessler	$553,500
Scott D. Hoffpauir	$283,500
James A. Tholen	$283,500
Taher G. Behbehani	$252,000
Dennis D. Dourgarian	$72,000
Dino Di Palma	—

- (6) Includes $10,333 of legal fees paid by BroadSoft on behalf of each of Messrs. Tessler, Hoffpauir and Tholen in connection with the negotiation of their respective employment agreements with Cisco, as described under “Future Arrangements with Cisco” above.

Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers and Insurance

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, members of our board of directors and our executive officers will be entitled to certain ongoing indemnification and coverage under directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policies following the merger. For a more detailed description of the provisions of the merger agreement relating to director and officer indemnification, please see “The Merger Agreement — Indemnification and Insurance” (page 77).

Appraisal Rights

If the merger is completed, holders of BroadSoft common stock will be entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (“Section 262”), provided that they comply with the conditions established by Section 262.

The discussion below is not a complete summary regarding your appraisal rights under Delaware law and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the relevant provisions of Delaware law, which are attached to this proxy statement as Annex C. Stockholders intending to exercise appraisal rights should carefully review Annex C. Failure to follow precisely any of the statutory procedures set forth in Annex C may result in a termination or waiver of these rights.

A record holder of shares of BroadSoft common stock who makes the demand described below with respect to such shares, who continuously is the record holder of such shares through the completion of the merger, who otherwise complies with the statutory requirements of Section 262 and who neither votes in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement nor consents thereto in writing will be entitled to an appraisal by the Delaware Court of Chancery (the “Delaware Court”) of the fair value of his or her shares of BroadSoft common stock. All references in this summary of appraisal rights to a “stockholder” or “holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock” are to the record holder or holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock. Except as set forth herein, stockholders of BroadSoft will not be entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger.

Under Section 262, where a merger is to be submitted for adoption at a meeting of stockholders, such as the Special Meeting, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, a constituent corporation must notify each of the holders of its stock for whom appraisal rights are available that such appraisal rights are available and include in each such notice a copy of Section 262. This proxy statement shall constitute such notice to the record holders of BroadSoft common stock.

Stockholders who desire to exercise their appraisal rights must satisfy all of the conditions of Section 262. Those conditions include the following:

- Stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must not vote “for” the adoption of the merger agreement. Also, because a submitted proxy not marked “against” or “abstain” will be voted “for” the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, the submission of a proxy not marked “against” or “abstain” will result in the waiver of appraisal rights.
- A written demand for appraisal of shares must be delivered to us before the taking of the vote on the merger agreement at the Special Meeting on January 25, 2018. The written demand for appraisal should specify the stockholder’s name and mailing address, and that the stockholder thereby intends to demand appraisal of his or her BroadSoft common stock. The written demand for appraisal of shares is in addition to and separate from a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement or an abstention from such vote. Merely voting against the adoption of the merger agreement will not preserve your right of appraisal or constitute written demand for appraisal under Delaware law.
- A demand for appraisal should be executed by or for the stockholder of record, fully and correctly, as such stockholder’s name appears on the share certificate. If the shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, this demand must be executed by or through the fiduciary. If the shares are owned by or for more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, such demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record. However, the agent must identify the record owner and expressly disclose the fact that, in exercising the demand, he is acting as agent for the record owner. A person having a beneficial interest in BroadSoft common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below in a timely manner to perfect whatever appraisal rights the beneficial owners may have.

- A stockholder who elects to exercise appraisal rights should mail or deliver his, her or its written demand to BroadSoft, Inc. at 9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350, Gaithersburg, Maryland, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

Within ten days after the completion of the merger, the surviving corporation must provide notice of the completion of the merger to all of our stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and have not voted for the adoption of the merger agreement.

Within 120 days after the completion of the merger, either the surviving corporation or any stockholder who has complied with the required conditions of Section 262 may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Delaware Court, with a copy served on the surviving corporation in the case of a petition filed by a stockholder, demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of all dissenting stockholders. There is no present intent on the part of the surviving corporation to file an appraisal petition and stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that the surviving corporation will file such a petition or that the surviving corporation will initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of such shares. Accordingly, holders of BroadSoft common stock who desire to have their shares appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262.

Within 120 days after the completion of the merger, any stockholder who has satisfied the requirements of Section 262 will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving corporation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of BroadSoft common stock not voting in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal were received by BroadSoft or the surviving corporation and the number of holders of such shares. Such statement must be mailed within ten days after the stockholder's request has been received by the surviving corporation or within ten days after the expiration of the period for the delivery of demands as described above, whichever is later. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the surviving corporation the statement described in this paragraph.

If a petition for an appraisal is timely filed, at the hearing on such petition, the Delaware Court will determine which stockholders are entitled to appraisal rights. The Delaware Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Delaware Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder. Under Section 262, the Delaware Court shall also dismiss the proceedings as to all stockholders who are otherwise entitled to appraisal rights unless (a) the total number of shares entitled to appraisal exceeds 1% of the outstanding shares of BroadSoft common stock eligible for appraisal or (b) the value of the consideration provided in the merger or consolidation for such total number of shares exceeds $1 million. Where proceedings are not dismissed, the Delaware Court will appraise the shares of BroadSoft common stock owned by such stockholders, determining the fair value of such shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. However, at any time before the entry of judgment in the proceedings, BroadSoft may pay to each stockholder entitled to appraisal an amount of cash, in which case interest will accrue after such entry of judgment only upon the sum of (a) the difference, if any, between the amount so paid and the fair value of the shares as determined by the Delaware Court and (b) interest theretofore accrued, unless paid at that time. BroadSoft is under no obligation to make such voluntary cash payment prior to such entry of judgment.

Although we believe that the $55.00 per share cash consideration payable in the merger is fair to our stockholders, no representation is made as to the outcome of the appraisal of fair value as determined by the Delaware Court and stockholders should recognize that such an appraisal could result in a determination of a value higher or lower than, or the same as, the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger agreement. Moreover, we do not anticipate that the surviving corporation will offer more than the $55.00 per share cash consideration to any stockholder exercising appraisal rights and reserve the right to assert, in any appraisal proceeding, that, for purposes of Section 262, the “fair value” of a share of BroadSoft common stock is less than the $55.00 per share cash consideration. In determining “fair value,” the Delaware Court is required to take into account all relevant factors. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that “proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court” should be considered and that “fair price obviously requires consideration of all relevant factors involving the value of a company.” The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that, in making this determination of fair value, the court must consider market value, asset value, dividends, earnings prospects, the nature of the enterprise and any other facts which could be ascertained as of the date of the merger that throw any light on future prospects of the merged corporation. Section 262 provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion that does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. The Delaware Supreme Court has construed Section 262 to mean that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, that are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the merger and not the product of speculation, may be considered.

The cost of the appraisal proceeding may be determined by the Delaware Court and taxed against the parties as the Delaware Court deems equitable in the circumstances. However, costs do not include attorneys’ and expert witness fees. Each dissenting stockholder is responsible for his or her attorneys’ and expert witness expenses, although, upon application of a dissenting stockholder, the Delaware Court may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any dissenting stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees and the fees and expenses of experts, be charged pro rata against the value of all shares of stock entitled to appraisal.

Any stockholder who has duly demanded appraisal in compliance with Section 262 will not, after the completion of the merger, be entitled to vote for any purpose any shares subject to such demand or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on such shares, except for dividends or distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date prior to the completion of the merger.

At any time within 60 days after the completion of the merger, any stockholder will have the right to withdraw his, her or its demand for appraisal and to accept the $55.00 per share cash consideration offered in the merger agreement. After this period, a stockholder may withdraw his, her or its demand for appraisal and receive payment for his, her or its shares as provided in the merger agreement only with the consent of the surviving corporation. If no petition for appraisal is filed with the court within 120 days after the completion of the merger, stockholders’ rights to appraisal (if available) will cease. Inasmuch as the surviving corporation will have no obligation to file such a petition, any stockholder who desires a petition to be filed is advised to file it on a timely basis. Any stockholder may withdraw such stockholder’s demand for appraisal by delivering to the surviving corporation a written withdrawal of his, her or its demand for appraisal and acceptance of the merger consideration, except (a) that any such attempt to withdraw made more than 60 days after the completion of the merger will require written approval of the surviving corporation and (b) that no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Delaware Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Delaware Court deems just; provided, however, that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder’s demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger within 60 days after the effective date of the merger, as set forth in the relevant provisions of Section 262.

Failure by any BroadSoft stockholder to comply fully with the procedures described above and set forth in Annex C to this proxy statement may result in termination of such stockholder’s appraisal rights. In view of the complexity of exercising your appraisal rights under Delaware law and if you are considering exercising these rights, you should consult with your legal counsel.

Delisting and Deregistration of BroadSoft Common Stock

If the merger is completed, BroadSoft common stock will be promptly delisted from The NASDAQ Global Select Market and will be promptly deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Certain Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following summary is a general discussion of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences to our stockholders who are U.S. persons (as defined below) whose common stock is converted into cash in the merger assuming the merger is consummated as contemplated herein. This summary is based on the current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), applicable Treasury Regulations, judicial authority, and administrative rulings, each as in effect as of the date hereof. These laws and authorities are subject to differing interpretations or to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could alter the tax consequences to our stockholders as described herein. No ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) has been or will be sought with respect to any aspect of the transactions described herein, and no opinion of counsel will be rendered in connection with the transactions described herein. Accordingly, the discussion below neither binds the IRS nor precludes it from adopting a contrary position. The tax treatment of the merger to our stockholders will vary depending on their particular situations.

This summary is for the general information of our stockholders only and does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax effects of the merger. Accordingly, our stockholders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the particular tax consequences to them of the merger, including applicable federal, state, local and non-U.S. tax consequences. For example, this summary does not consider the effect of (a) any U.S. federal non-income tax laws, (b) any applicable state, local, or non-U.S. tax laws, or (c) the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income or the alternative minimum tax. In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences of transactions effectuated prior to, concurrently with, or after the completion of the merger (whether or not such transactions occur in connection with the merger), including, without limitation, any transaction involving the acquisition or disposition of shares of BroadSoft common stock other than pursuant to the merger, or the tax consequences to holders of stock options, RSUs, PSUs or similar rights to acquire BroadSoft common stock issued by BroadSoft that are converted in connection with the merger. In addition, it does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may affect particular BroadSoft stockholders in light of their particular circumstances or to stockholders who are subject to special tax rules, including, without limitation, stockholders who, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

- are not “U.S. persons” as defined below;
- are broker-dealers, traders in securities, financial institutions, mutual funds, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, insurance companies, or tax-exempt entities;
- hold their shares as part of an integrated investment (including a hedge or as part of a hedging, “straddle,” pledge against currency risk, “constructive” sale or “conversion” transaction or other risk reduction transaction) consisting of shares of BroadSoft common stock and one or more other positions;
- hold common stock that constitutes “qualified small business stock” for purposes of Section 1202 of the Code or as “Section 1244 stock” for purposes of Section 1244 of the Code;
- do not hold their shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment);
- have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar;
- hold their shares through individual retirement or other tax-deferred accounts;
- acquired their shares in a transaction subject to the gain rollover provisions of Section 1045 of the Code;

- acquired their shares pursuant to the settlement of RSUs or PSUs, the exercise of a compensatory option or in other compensatory transactions;
- acquired their shares pursuant to the exercise of warrants or conversion rights under convertible instruments; or
- are partnerships or other entities or arrangements treated as partnerships or disregarded entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes, S corporations or other pass-through entities (including hybrid entities).

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. person” is a beneficial owner of BroadSoft common stock that is:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States or someone treated as a U.S. citizen or resident for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- a corporation, including any entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;
- an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust, if its administration is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or a trust in existence on August 20, 1996, that has made a valid election under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

IN VIEW OF THE FOREGOING AND BECAUSE THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSION IS INTENDED AS A GENERAL SUMMARY ONLY, EACH STOCKHOLDER SHOULD CONSULT SUCH STOCKHOLDER’S OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES, INCLUDING THE APPLICABLE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND NON-U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES, AND ANY TAX REPORTING REQUIREMENTS OF THE MERGER AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS IN LIGHT OF SUCH STOCKHOLDER’S OWN TAX SITUATION.

In General

The conversion of BroadSoft common stock into cash in the merger will be a taxable transaction. Generally, this means that our stockholders will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (a) the amount of cash they receive in the merger, and (b) their adjusted tax basis in their BroadSoft common stock. For this purpose, BroadSoft stockholders who acquired different blocks of shares of BroadSoft common stock at different times for different prices must calculate gain or loss separately for each identifiable block of shares of BroadSoft common stock surrendered in the exchange.

Subject to various exceptions, a stockholder’s gain or loss on the disposition of BroadSoft common stock will be characterized as capital gain or loss and will generally be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder has held their BroadSoft common stock for more than one year as of the effective time of the merger. If a stockholder’s holding period for any BroadSoft common stock is one year or less at the effective time of the merger, any gain or loss with respect to such BroadSoft common stock will be treated as short-term capital gain or loss. Long-term capital gains recognized by certain non-corporate stockholders generally are currently taxable at preferential rates relative to the rates applicable to other forms of income. Capital losses are subject to limitations on deductibility.

Appraisal or Dissenter’s Rights

A BroadSoft stockholder who exercises appraisal or dissenters’ rights for such stockholder’s BroadSoft common stock with respect to the merger and receives payment for such stock in cash will generally recognize capital gain or loss, measured by the difference between the cash received and such stockholder’s tax basis in its BroadSoft common stock. Stockholders who exercise appraisal or dissenters' rights are urged to consult their own tax advisors. Interest, if any, awarded in an appraisal proceeding by a court would be included in such stockholder's income as ordinary income for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

A BroadSoft stockholder may be subject to backup withholding with respect to certain reportable payments including taxable proceeds received in exchange for the stockholder's shares of BroadSoft common stock in the merger. Backup withholding will generally not apply, however, to a BroadSoft stockholder who furnishes the exchange agent with a correct taxpayer identification number on IRS Form W-9 (if such stockholder is a U.S. person as defined in the instructions thereto) or the appropriate IRS Form W-8 (if the stockholder is not such a U.S. person) or otherwise establishes a basis for exemption from backup withholding. Each BroadSoft stockholder and, if applicable, each other payee, should properly complete and sign the IRS Form W-9 included with the letter of transmittal (or the applicable IRS Form W-8) to provide the information and certification(s) necessary to avoid the imposition of backup withholding, unless an exemption applies and is established in a manner satisfactory to the exchange agent. BroadSoft stockholders who fail to provide their correct taxpayer identification numbers and the appropriate certifications, or to establish an exemption as described above, will be subject to backup withholding on cash they receive in the merger and may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. BroadSoft stockholders should consult their tax advisors as to their qualifications for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining such an exemption. If the exchange agent withholds on a payment to a stockholder, the affected stockholder should contact its tax advisor regarding whether and how any refund, credit or other tax benefit might be recognized with respect to any such withheld amounts.

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION IS NOT INTENDED TO BE A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OR DESCRIPTION OF ALL POTENTIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER. IN ADDITION, THE DISCUSSION DOES NOT ADDRESS TAX CONSEQUENCES THAT MAY VARY WITH, OR ARE CONTINGENT ON, A STOCKHOLDER'S INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES OR TO CERTAIN TYPES OF STOCKHOLDERS MENTIONED ABOVE. MOREOVER, THE DISCUSSION DOES NOT ADDRESS ANY NON-INCOME TAX OR ANY NON-U.S., STATE OR LOCAL TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER.

Antitrust Matters

Under the HSR Act or any foreign or other antitrust law and the rules that have been promulgated thereunder, certain acquisitions may not be completed until information has been furnished to the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ"), to the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC"), or to certain applicable foreign antitrust authorities and applicable HSR Act waiting period requirements have been satisfied, early termination of the HSR Act waiting period has been granted, or the applicable foreign antitrust approvals have been obtained. The merger of BroadSoft with Merger Sub and the conversion of shares of BroadSoft common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration are subject to the provisions of the HSR Act and certain other applicable foreign antitrust laws. The merger therefore cannot be completed until the expiration or early termination of the HSR Act waiting period and the receipt of certain applicable foreign antitrust approvals following the filing of Hart-Scott-Rodino Notification and Report Forms and any other applicable foreign antitrust filings by Cisco and BroadSoft. BroadSoft and Cisco each filed the requisite notification and report forms with the FTC and DOJ on November 13, 2017. Cisco is withdrawing its filing on December 13, 2017, and will refile on December 15, 2017 to provide the antitrust agencies more time to review the transaction. Both BroadSoft and Cisco will also file the requisite filings in certain other applicable foreign jurisdictions. The merger agreement provides that each of Cisco and BroadSoft will use its respective reasonable best efforts to obtain all consents and approvals required to be obtained by it for the consummation of the merger, including regulatory clearance. However, if any legal proceeding is instituted or (threatened to be instituted) challenging the merger or the related transactions as violative of any antitrust law, Cisco does not have any obligation to litigate or contest any such legal proceeding or order resulting therefrom and Cisco does not have any obligation to make proposals, execute or carry out agreements or submit to orders providing for (a) the sale, license or other disposition or holding separate (through the establishment of a trust or otherwise) of any assets or categories of assets of Cisco or BroadSoft or any of their respective affiliates, (b) the imposition of any limitation or restriction on the ability of Cisco or any of its affiliates to freely conduct their business or, following the closing of the merger, BroadSoft's business or own such assets or (c) the holding separate of the shares of BroadSoft capital stock or any limitation or regulation on the ability of Cisco or any of its affiliates to exercise full rights of ownership of the shares of BroadSoft capital stock (any of the foregoing, an "Antitrust Restraint").

At any time before or after the completion of the merger, notwithstanding that the HSR Act waiting period has ended and the applicable foreign antitrust approvals have been obtained, the FTC, the DOJ, a state, foreign country, or private individual could take action to enjoin the merger under the antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable. We cannot be sure that a challenge to the merger will not be made or that, if a challenge is made, that we will prevail.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following description summarizes the material provisions of the merger agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement. The merger agreement is included as Annex A to this proxy statement. We encourage you to read it carefully and in its entirety. The merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about BroadSoft. Such information can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the other public filings BroadSoft makes with the SEC, which are available without charge at www.sec.gov.

The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the merger agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the merger agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the merger agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of affairs of BroadSoft without considering the entirety of public disclosure about BroadSoft as set forth in BroadSoft's SEC filings. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in this proxy statement or in other public disclosures by BroadSoft.

The Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL"), at the effective time of the merger, BroadSoft and Cisco will consummate the merger, whereby Merger Sub will be merged with and into BroadSoft. The separate existence of Merger Sub will cease and BroadSoft will continue as the surviving corporation. As the surviving corporation, BroadSoft will continue to exist following the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cisco.

Closing and Effective Time of Merger

Unless the merger agreement is terminated (as described under "The Merger Agreement — Termination of the Merger Agreement") and unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing between BroadSoft, Cisco and Merger Sub, subject to satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to closing (described under "The Merger Agreement — Conditions to the Merger"), the consummation of the merger (which we refer to as the "closing") will take place on the third business day (or as otherwise mutually agreed) after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to closing (other than any such conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions). However, if the closing would otherwise occur on or between January 15, 2018 and January 26, 2018, Cisco may, in its discretion, delay the closing until the first business day following such period, so long as, as of the date the closing would have otherwise occurred (a) each party has delivered to the other party the certificates required to be delivered by it pursuant to the merger agreement, (b) each party irrevocably confirms in writing to the other party that the conditions to closing applicable to it have been satisfied or are waived and that it is ready, willing and able to close on such date and (c) between (and including) the date upon which those requirements have first been fulfilled and the closing, BroadSoft has not materially breached its covenants and agreements applicable to it between the date of the merger agreement and the closing as more fully described under the section entitled "The Merger Agreement — Conduct of Business Prior to Closing."

The merger will become effective upon the date and time the certificate of merger is accepted by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or such later date and time as is agreed upon in writing by BroadSoft and Cisco and specified in the certificate of merger, which we refer to as the "effective time of the merger."

The Certificate of Incorporation of the surviving corporation will be amended and restated as of the effective time of the merger to conform to Attachment A to the certificate of merger (the form of which is attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement), and the bylaws of the surviving corporation will be amended and restated as of the effective time of the merger to conform to Exhibit B to the merger agreement. The directors of Merger Sub and the officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the directors and officers, respectively, of the surviving corporation immediately after the effective time of the merger.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each share of BroadSoft common stock then outstanding will be converted automatically into the right to receive the merger consideration of $55.00 per share in cash upon the surrender of the stock certificates or book-entry shares, as applicable, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding, other than the following shares:

- each share of BroadSoft common stock then held by BroadSoft as treasury stock and by any of its direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, which will be canceled and retired and will cease to exist, and no consideration will be delivered in exchange therefor;
- each share of BroadSoft common stock then held by Cisco, Merger Sub or any other subsidiary of Cisco, which will be canceled and retired and will cease to exist, and no consideration will be delivered in exchange therefor; and
- each share owned by stockholders who have properly demanded (and not withdrawn or lost) their right to appraisal and payment under Section 262 of the DGCL, which will be treated as described in further detail in this proxy statement under “The Merger — Appraisal Rights.”

Subject to the above exceptions, from and after the effective time of the merger, each holder of BroadSoft common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective of the merger will cease to have any rights with respect to such shares, except as otherwise provided in the merger agreement or by applicable law, and such shares will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be canceled.

Payment for Shares of Common Stock

Cisco has designated its transfer agent, Computershare Inc., to act as exchange agent for the holders of shares of BroadSoft common stock. At or prior to the effective time of the merger, Cisco will deposit, or will cause its direct or indirect subsidiary to deposit, with such exchange agent cash sufficient to pay the aggregate merger consideration payable to BroadSoft’s stockholders.

Promptly after the effective time of the merger, Cisco will instruct the exchange agent to mail to all record holders of BroadSoft common stock whose shares were converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the stock certificates or book-entry shares pursuant to such letter of transmittal. Upon surrender to the exchange agent of certificates or book-entry shares representing shares of BroadSoft common stock, together with a letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may be reasonably required by the exchange agent, or in the case of book-entry shares, an appropriate agent’s message, the holder of such certificates or book-entry shares will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the merger consideration for each share of BroadSoft common stock evidenced by such certificates or book-entry shares. No interest will accrue or be paid on the merger consideration payable upon the surrender of any certificates or book-entry shares for the benefit of the holder thereof. Each of the surviving corporation, Cisco, their respective subsidiaries and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause the exchange agent to deduct and withhold) from the merger consideration payable to any holder of BroadSoft common stock, stock options, RSUs, PSUs or any other consideration otherwise payable pursuant to the merger agreement such amounts as it is required by any legal requirement to deduct and withhold with respect to taxes.

You should not send your stock certificate with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your stock certificate to the exchange agent without a letter of transmittal.

Treatment of Equity Awards

Stock Options. At the effective time of the merger, each vested stock option (including stock options the vesting of which accelerates in connection with the merger) that is unexpired and outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger under BroadSoft's 1999 Stock Option Plan or Amended and Restated 2009 Equity Incentive Plan (collectively, the "Equity Plans") will be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash from Cisco equal to the number of shares subject to such option multiplied by the excess, if any, of the merger consideration over the exercise price of such stock option, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. At the effective time of the merger, each unvested stock option under the Equity Plans that is unexpired and outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and held by continuing employees or contractors of the surviving corporation will be substituted by Cisco and converted into a right to receive unvested cash from Cisco, payable in accordance with the service-based vesting schedule for such award and subject to any applicable terms relating to termination and accelerated vesting, equal to the number of shares subject to such stock option multiplied by the excess, if any, of the merger consideration over the exercise price of such stock option, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding.

Restricted Stock Units. At the effective time of the merger, each vested RSU (including RSUs the vesting of which accelerates in connection with the merger) under the Equity Plans that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled and converted into the right to receive cash from Cisco equal to the number of shares subject to such RSU multiplied by the merger consideration, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. At the effective time of the merger, each unvested RSU under the Equity Plans that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and held by continuing employees or contractors of the surviving corporation will be substituted by Cisco and converted into a right to receive unvested cash from Cisco, payable in accordance with the service-based vesting schedule for such award and subject to any applicable terms relating to termination and accelerated vesting, equal to the number of shares subject to such RSU multiplied by the merger consideration, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding.

Performance Stock Units. At the effective time of the merger, each vested PSU (including PSUs the vesting of which accelerates in connection with the merger) under the Equity Plans that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be canceled and converted into the right to receive unvested cash from Cisco equal to the number of shares subject to such PSU multiplied by the merger consideration, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. At the effective time of the merger, each unvested PSU under the Equity Plans that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and held by continuing employees or contractors of the surviving corporation will be substituted by Cisco and converted into a right to receive cash from Cisco, payable in accordance with the service-based vesting schedule for such award and subject to any applicable terms relating to termination and accelerated vesting, equal to the number of shares subject to such PSU multiplied by the merger consideration, without interest and subject to all applicable tax withholding. Any such outstanding unvested PSUs under the Equity Plans held by continuing employees or contractors of the surviving corporation that are subject to performance-based criteria will be converted into a right to receive such cash amount subject to a service-based criteria only.

The effect of the merger upon our other employee benefit plans is more fully described under "The Merger Agreement — Employee Benefits."

In the merger agreement, Cisco and Merger Sub each made representations and warranties relating to, among other things:

- the corporate organization, good standing, power and qualification of Cisco and Merger Sub;
- Cisco’s and Merger Sub’s corporate power and authority to enter into the merger agreement;

Many of BroadSoft’s representations and warranties are qualified by a knowledge, materiality or Material Adverse Effect standard. For purposes of the merger agreement, “knowledge” means the knowledge of certain specified employees of the Company after reasonable inquiry under the circumstances. For purposes of the merger agreement, “Material Adverse Effect” or “MAE” means with respect to BroadSoft and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, any change, event, occurrence, circumstance, condition or effect (each, an “Effect”) that, individually or taken together with all other Effects, and regardless of whether or not such Effect, considered together with all other Effects, would constitute a breach of the representations or warranties made by such person in the merger agreement (a) would, or would reasonably be expected to, be or become materially adverse to the financial condition, properties, assets (including intangible assets), business, operations or results of operations of BroadSoft and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole and (b) would, or would reasonably be expected to, prohibit or materially impede BroadSoft’s ability to consummate the transactions in accordance with the merger agreement and applicable laws. However, none of the following will be deemed in and of themselves, either alone or in combination, to constitute, and none of the following will be taken into account in determining whether there is, or would reasonably likely to be, a Material Adverse Effect on BroadSoft and its subsidiaries:

- changes in general economic conditions or financial, credit, foreign exchange, securities or capital markets, including any disruption thereof, in the United States or elsewhere in the world;
- changes generally affecting the industry in which BroadSoft and its subsidiaries operate;
- changes in applicable laws;

- changes in United States generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP, or other accounting regulations or principles or interpretations thereof, that apply to BroadSoft and its subsidiaries;
- national or international political conditions, any outbreak or escalation of hostilities, insurrection or war, or acts of terrorism;
- epidemics, quarantine restrictions, wildfires, earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, other natural disasters or similar calamity or crisis;
- changes in the trading volume or trading prices of such entity's capital stock in and of themselves (however, such exception will not apply to any underlying Effect that may have caused such change in the trading prices or volumes);
- any failure, in and of itself, to meet market revenue or earnings expectations, including revenue or earnings projections or predictions made by BroadSoft (whether or not publicly announced) or securities or financial analysts and any resulting analyst downgrades of BroadSoft's securities in and of themselves (however, such exception will not apply to any underlying Effect that may have caused such failure or such downgrades);
- changes in BroadSoft's and its subsidiaries' relationships with employees, customers, distributors, suppliers, vendors, licensors or other business partners as a result of the announcement or pendency of the merger agreement or the anticipated consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (however, such exception will not apply with respect to the representations and warranties regarding non-contravention or to the closing condition regarding accuracy of representations of BroadSoft and Cisco's termination right in the event of any breach of representations and warranties or covenants by BroadSoft to the extent related to such portions of such representations and warranties);
- any actions taken or failure to take action, in each case, that Cisco has expressly approved, consented to or requested in writing; or
- any legal proceeding brought or threatened by a current or former stockholder of BroadSoft against BroadSoft relating to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The first six exceptions listed above will not apply to the extent that such changes disproportionately and adversely affect BroadSoft and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as compared to other participants in the industry in which BroadSoft and its subsidiaries operate.

Conduct of Business Prior to Closing

BroadSoft agreed in the merger agreement that, until the effective time of the merger, except as required or otherwise expressly contemplated under the merger agreement or as required to comply with applicable legal requirements, with the written consent of Cisco or as set forth in the disclosure schedule that BroadSoft delivered to Cisco in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, BroadSoft will and will cause its subsidiaries to:

- conduct its and their businesses in the ordinary course in substantially the same manner as conducted beforehand;
- use commercially reasonable efforts to pay all material indebtedness and material taxes when due, subject to good faith disputes over such material indebtedness or material taxes;
- promptly notify Cisco of any knowledge of any notice from any person alleging that the consent of such person is or may be required in connection with any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and any legal proceeding commenced, or, to its knowledge threatened, relating to or involving BroadSoft or its subsidiaries that relates to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

- use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve intact its present business organizations, keep available the services of its present officers and key employees and preserve its relationships with customers, suppliers, distributors, licensors, licensees and others having material business dealings with it;

- use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain all of the real property leased by BroadSoft and its subsidiaries in accordance with the terms of the applicable lease in all material respects.

BroadSoft also agreed that, until the effective time of the merger, except as required or otherwise expressly contemplated under the merger agreement or as required to comply with applicable legal requirements, with the written consent of Cisco or as set forth in the disclosure schedule that BroadSoft delivered to Cisco in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, BroadSoft will not and will cause its subsidiaries not to:

- enter into any contract for (a) the purchase or sale of any real property or (b) the lease of any real property involving an aggregate amount in excess of $500,000 per annum for any such lease;
- materially change the policy in which it extends warranties, discounts or credits to customers generally (subject to certain exceptions);
- enter into any contract that would be required to be reported by BroadSoft pursuant to Item 404 of Regulation S-K;
- enter into or materially modify any currency exchange, interest rate, commodities or other hedging or derivative transactions or arrangements, or other investment or cash management transactions or arrangements other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice;
- enter into or materially modify any contract for the joint development with any other person of any material product, system, software, content, technology or intellectual property by or for BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries;
- enter into any contract relating to the membership of, or participation by, BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries in, or the affiliation of BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries with, any industry standards group or association in which BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries contributes and/or shares in pooled patent rights;
- enter into any joint marketing or marketing support contract involving an amount in excess of $1,000,000 per annum; or
- agree in writing or otherwise to take, any of the actions described in the clauses above.

Proxy Statement, Board Recommendation and Stockholders Meeting

BroadSoft has agreed to, as promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of the merger agreement, establish a record date for, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold the stockholders' meeting, which is the Special Meeting that is the subject of this proxy statement, to consider and vote upon the adoption of the merger agreement, obtain advisory approval of the compensation that the named executive officers of the Company may receive in the merger and such other matters as agreed to by Cisco. Except as communicated in a change of recommendation by BroadSoft's board of directors in compliance with the merger agreement, BroadSoft will use its reasonable best efforts to solicit from its stockholders proxies in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and will take all other reasonable action necessary or advisable to obtain such proxies and the required stockholder vote to adopt the merger agreement and to secure the vote or consent of its stockholders required by all applicable laws and its organizational documents. As promptly as reasonably practicable following the later of (a) receipt and resolution of SEC comments with respect to the proxy statement and (b) the expiration of the ten-day waiting period under applicable securities laws, BroadSoft must file the definitive proxy statement and cause such definitive proxy statement to be mailed to its stockholders.

BroadSoft may adjourn or postpone the Special Meeting (a) to the extent necessary to ensure that any supplement or amendment to the proxy statement that BroadSoft reasonably determines (after consultation with Cisco, except with respect to any acquisition proposal (as defined below) or other permitted circumstances) is necessary to comply with applicable laws, is provided to its stockholders in advance of the Special Meeting, (b) if, as of the time that the Special Meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient shares of BroadSoft common stock represented at such meeting to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the Special Meeting, (c) if, as of the time that the Special Meeting is originally scheduled, adjournment or postponement of the Special Meeting is necessary to enable BroadSoft to solicit additional proxies required to obtain required stockholder vote to adopt the merger agreement or (d) as necessary to provide for the expiration of any time period required to allow BroadSoft's board of directors to make a change of recommendation in compliance with the merger agreement.

Except in the circumstances described in this proxy statement under "The Merger Agreement — Ability to Change Board Recommendation/Termination in Connection with a Superior Proposal," BroadSoft's board of directors has agreed to unanimously recommend to BroadSoft's stockholders that the stockholders approve the adoption of the merger agreement and include such recommendation in this proxy statement and also agreed that neither its board of directors nor any committee thereof will withhold, withdraw, qualify, amend or modify, or publicly propose or resolve to withhold, withdraw, qualify, amend or modify in a manner adverse to Cisco or Merger Sub, such recommendation.

The merger agreement further provides that, prior to the termination of the merger agreement, the Company's obligations to call, give notice of, or convene the Special Meeting, will not be limited by the occurrence of any acquisition proposal, superior proposal or change of recommendation, except that the Special Meeting may be delayed or postponed in limited circumstances described in the proxy statement under "The Merger Agreement — Ability to Change Board Recommendation/Termination in Connection with a Superior Proposal."

No Solicitation of Other Offers

Under the merger agreement, BroadSoft agreed to, and agreed to cause its subsidiaries and their respective representatives to, immediately cease all existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any person conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal and to direct any person (and their representatives) with which BroadSoft has engaged in any such activities within the 12-month period preceding the date of the merger agreement to promptly return or destroy all confidential information previously provided to such person. BroadSoft agreed not to, and agreed to cause its subsidiaries not to, waive any rights under "standstill" or similar covenants in confidentiality or non-disclosure agreements entered into in connection with any acquisition proposal. BroadSoft has also agreed that, except as permitted by the merger agreement, after the date of the merger agreement until the earlier of the closing and the termination of the merger agreement, none of the board of directors of BroadSoft, BroadSoft and its subsidiaries will, nor will they authorize or permit any of their respective representatives to:

- solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage, facilitate or induce the making, submission or public announcement of any inquiry, indication of interest, proposal or offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal;
- enter into, participate in, maintain or continue any communications (except to provide written notice as to the existence of these provisions and to clarify the terms and conditions of any acquisition proposal) or negotiations regarding, or deliver or make available to any person any non-public information with respect to, or knowingly take any other action regarding, any inquiry, indication of interest, proposal or offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal;
- agree to, accept, approve, endorse or recommend (or publicly propose or announce any intention to agree to, accept, approve, endorse or recommend) any acquisition proposal;
- enter into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet or any other agreement, understanding or contract (whether binding or not) contemplating or otherwise relating to any acquisition proposal (other than an acceptable confidentiality agreement (as defined below));
- submit any acquisition proposal to the vote of any securityholders of BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries;

- approve any transaction, or any third party becoming an “interested stockholder,” under Section 203 of the DGCL; or
- resolve, propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Notwithstanding these restrictions, if, at any time prior to the time that BroadSoft’s stockholders approve the adoption of the merger agreement, BroadSoft or any of its representatives receives an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal that BroadSoft’s board of directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with financial advisors and outside legal counsel, is or could reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal (as defined below), BroadSoft may:

- enter into discussions with such person regarding such acquisition proposal; and
- deliver or make available to such person non-public information regard BroadSoft and its subsidiaries.

However, prior to taking any of the actions listed above, BroadSoft must have complied with the following:

- none of BroadSoft, its subsidiaries and their representatives have violated the non-solicitation and related provisions in any material respect;
- the board of directors of BroadSoft must first conclude in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations to BroadSoft’s stockholders under applicable laws;
- prior to making available any material non-public information, BroadSoft must first receive from such person an executed customary confidentiality agreement that contains terms that are no less favorable in the aggregate to BroadSoft than the terms in the confidentiality agreement with Cisco but does not have to contain any “standstill” provisions and that does not include any exclusive right to negotiate with such person or having the effect of restricting BroadSoft from fulfilling its obligations under the merger agreement (an “acceptable confidentiality agreement”);
- prior to engaging in any discussions, BroadSoft must first provide to Cisco written notice of its intent to engage in such discussions; and
- prior to or contemporaneously with delivering or making available any non-public information, BroadSoft must concurrently deliver to Cisco such non-public information to the extent such non-public information has not been previously delivered or made available to Cisco by BroadSoft.

BroadSoft must also as promptly as practicable (and in any event within one business day) notify Cisco orally and in writing after receipt by BroadSoft and/or any subsidiary (and/or to the knowledge of BroadSoft, by any representative (excluding employees who are not directors or officers) of any acquisition proposal, any inquiry, indication of interest, proposal or other offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, or any request for non-public information that could reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal. Such notice is required to describe the material terms and conditions of the acquisition proposal, inquiry, indication of interest, proposal offer or request and the identity of the person submitting such acquisition proposal, inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request. BroadSoft must keep Cisco reasonably informed as promptly as practicable (and in any event within one business day) of the status and material details of, and material amendments or modifications to, any such acquisition proposal, inquiry, indication of interest, proposal, offer or request and any related material correspondence or communications. BroadSoft shall provide Cisco as promptly as practicable (and in any event within one business day) with a copy of all written materials related thereto. BroadSoft agreed to notify Cisco about any meeting of its board of directors at which the BroadSoft board of directors discusses any acquisition proposal promptly following the meeting.

The merger agreement defines an “acquisition proposal” as any agreement, offer, proposal or indication of interest (other than the merger agreement or any other offer, proposal or indication of interest by Cisco), or any public announcement of intention to enter into any such agreement or of (or intention to make) any offer, proposal or indication of interest, relating to, or involving: (a) any acquisition or purchase by any person, directly or indirectly, of more than 20% of the outstanding voting securities of BroadSoft or any securities of any of its subsidiaries or any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 20% or more of the outstanding voting securities of BroadSoft, (b) any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction involving BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to which the stockholders of BroadSoft immediately preceding such transaction hold securities representing less than 80% of the outstanding voting power of the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction (or parent entity of such surviving or resulting entity), (c) any sale, acquisition, disposition, mortgage, pledge or other transfer of more than 20% of the assets of BroadSoft and its subsidiaries other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, or (d) any liquidation or dissolution of BroadSoft, or any extraordinary dividend, whether of cash or other property, in each case of clauses (a) – (d) in any single transaction or series of related transactions.

The merger agreement defines a “superior proposal,” with respect to BroadSoft, as an unsolicited, bona fide written offer submitted after the date of the merger agreement by a person to acquire, directly or indirectly, (a) pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation or other business combination (including by means of a tender offer followed by a back-end merger) beneficial ownership of 50% or more of the outstanding voting securities of BroadSoft or (b) 50% or more of the assets of BroadSoft, in each case, for consideration consisting exclusively of cash, contingent value rights and/or publicly-traded equity securities that the board of directors of BroadSoft has concluded in its good faith judgment (following consultation with its outside legal counsel and a financial advisor of national standing), taking into account, among other things, all legal, financial, regulatory, timing and other aspects of the offer, including conditions to consummation and the person making the offer, in each case deemed relevant by the board of directors of BroadSoft (i) would be, if consummated, more favorable, from a financial point of view, to BroadSoft’s stockholders (in their capacities as stockholders) than the terms of the merger agreement and (ii) is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms proposed.

In addition to the rights described above, BroadSoft may terminate the merger agreement, pay a termination fee and enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal under certain circumstances. See “The Merger Agreement — Ability to Change Board Recommendation/Termination in Connection with a Superior Proposal.”

Ability to Change Board Recommendation/Termination in Connection with a Superior Proposal

On October 20, 2017, prior to the execution of the merger agreement, BroadSoft’s board of directors unanimously (a) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are advisable, (b) determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, taken together, are at a price and on terms that are fair to, and in the best interest of BroadSoft and its stockholders, (c) approved the execution, delivery and performance by BroadSoft of the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger and (d) resolved to recommend that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve the adoption of the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger. The merger agreement provides that BroadSoft’s board of directors, or any committee thereof, will not withhold, withdraw, qualify, amend or modify, or publicly propose or resolve to withhold, withdraw, qualify, amend or modify in a manner adverse to Cisco or Merger Sub, the board’s recommendation with respect to the merger agreement. The merger agreement also provides that BroadSoft may not fail to include the board’s recommendation with respect to the merger agreement in this proxy statement.

However, nothing in the merger agreement will prevent BroadSoft’s board of directors from withholding, withdrawing, qualifying, amending (in a manner adverse to Cisco) or modifying (in a manner adverse to Cisco) its recommendation with respect to the merger agreement in this proxy statement (a “change of recommendation”) in connection with a superior proposal or BroadSoft from terminating the merger agreement to enter into a definitive agreement to accept a superior proposal if:

- the approval of BroadSoft’s stockholders of the adoption of the merger agreement has not yet been obtained;

- BroadSoft has complied in all material respects with its obligations with respect to calling the Special Meeting and has not breached the non-solicitation and related provisions of the merger agreement;
- a superior proposal has been submitted to BroadSoft, has not been withdrawn and continues to be a superior proposal;
- BroadSoft has given Cisco at least four business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action along with certain information relating to such superior proposal;
- if requested by Cisco, BroadSoft negotiates in good faith with Cisco during such notice period to make changes to the transaction terms so that such superior proposal would no longer be a superior proposal in comparison to the revised terms of the transaction;
- within such four business day period, Cisco has not made a written, binding and irrevocable offer that the board of directors of BroadSoft has concluded in good faith (following consultation with its outside legal counsel and a financial advisor of national standing) to be at least as favorable as such superior proposal; and
- the board of directors of BroadSoft has concluded in good faith (following consultation with its outside legal counsel) that, in light of the superior proposal and any modifications proposed by Cisco, the failure to make a change of recommendation and terminate the merger agreement would be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations to BroadSoft's stockholders under applicable law.

In addition, nothing in the merger agreement will prevent BroadSoft's board of directors from making a change of recommendation for a reason unrelated to an acquisition proposal if:

- the approval of BroadSoft's stockholders of the adoption of the merger agreement has not yet been obtained;
- BroadSoft has complied with its obligations with respect to calling the Special Meeting and has not breached the non-solicitation and related provisions of the merger agreement;
- BroadSoft's board of directors has concluded in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that, in light of material facts, events and/or circumstances that as of the date of the merger agreement were unknown by BroadSoft and which were not reasonably foreseeable as of the date of the merger agreement (an "intervening event") and the failure to make a change of recommendation would be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations to BroadSoft's stockholders under applicable law (provided that in no event will any of the following, in and of itself, constitute or be deemed an intervening event: (a) any determination by BroadSoft's board of directors that the amount payable by Cisco in the merger is not sufficient, (b) BroadSoft exceeding any earnings projections or predictions made by BroadSoft (whether or not publicly announced) or securities or financial analysts and any resulting analyst upgrades of BroadSoft's securities or any change in the trading price of its common stock, (c) any facts, events or circumstances resulting from any breach of the merger agreement by BroadSoft or (d) the receipt, existence or terms of any acquisition proposal or any matter relating thereto or the consequences thereof);
- BroadSoft has given Cisco at least four business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action along with certain information relating to such intervening event;
- if requested by Cisco, BroadSoft negotiates in good faith with Cisco during the notice period to make changes to the transaction terms so that such changes to the terms obviate the need for the board of directors of BroadSoft to make a change of recommendation for an intervening event; and
- if within such four business day period, Cisco has not made a written, binding and irrevocable offer that BroadSoft's board of directors concludes in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and a financial advisor of national standing) would obviate the need for BroadSoft's board of directors to make such change of recommendation (with the merger agreement providing that

(a) BroadSoft's board of directors must convene a meeting to consider any such offer by Cisco promptly following the receipt thereof, (b) BroadSoft's board of directors will not make a change of recommendation for four business days after receipt by Cisco of the notice of an intervening event and (c) any material change in the facts, events or circumstances related to the intervening event shall require a new notice of an intervening event to Cisco and a new two-business day period and discussion process).

In addition, if BroadSoft's board of directors decides to terminate the merger agreement with Cisco following receipt of a superior proposal upon the terms summarized above or Cisco terminates the merger agreement following a change of recommendation under certain scenarios, BroadSoft must pay the applicable termination fee as described in further detail under "The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees."

Agreements to Use Reasonable Best Efforts

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including with respect to antitrust laws, which are discussed further below, BroadSoft and Cisco have agreed to apply for or otherwise seek, and use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain, all consents and approvals required to be obtained by them for the consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

With regard to antitrust laws, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, BroadSoft and Cisco have agreed to make any initial filings required under the HSR Act and any other additional filings required by applicable antitrust laws, including all applicable foreign antitrust approvals set forth in the disclosure schedule that BroadSoft delivered to Cisco in connection with the execution of the merger agreement.

Notwithstanding these covenants, Cisco and its affiliates are not obligated to:

- litigate or contest any legal proceeding instituted or threatened to be instituted challenging the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as violative of any antitrust law; or
- make proposals, execute or carry out agreements or submit to government orders providing for (a) the sale, license or other disposition or holding separate (through the establishment of a trust or otherwise) of any assets or categories of assets of Cisco or BroadSoft or any of their respective affiliates, (b) the imposition of any limitation or restriction on the ability of Cisco or any of its affiliates to freely conduct their business or, following the closing, BroadSoft's business or own such assets or (c) the holding separate of the shares of BroadSoft's capital stock or any limitation or regulation on the ability of Cisco or any of its affiliates to exercise full rights of ownership of the shares of BroadSoft's capital stock (an "Antitrust Restraint").

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, from and after the effective time of the merger until the sixth anniversary of the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries will honor and fulfill all rights to indemnification by BroadSoft and its subsidiaries to their respective present and former directors and officers pursuant to any indemnification agreements with BroadSoft or such subsidiary made available to Cisco and any indemnification or advancement provisions under BroadSoft's or such subsidiary's certificate of incorporation or bylaws (or equivalent organizational documents) as in effect on the date of the merger agreement with respect to their acts and omissions as directors and officers of BroadSoft or such subsidiary occurring prior to the effective time, in each case, subject to applicable law.

From the effective time of the merger and ending on the sixth anniversary of the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation will maintain in effect, and Cisco will cause the surviving corporation to maintain in effect, for the benefit of the present and former directors and officers of BroadSoft and its subsidiaries, with respect to their acts and omissions as directors and officers occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, the existing policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by BroadSoft or any subsidiary as of the date of the merger agreement in the form made available by BroadSoft to Cisco prior to the date of the merger agreement, to the extent that directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage is commercially available. However, (a) the surviving corporation may substitute for the existing policy a policy or policies of comparable coverage, including a "tail" or "runoff" insurance policy, (b) the surviving corporation will not be required to pay annual premiums for the existing policy (or for any substitute or "tail" policies) in excess of an amount equal to 300% of the most recently paid annual premium for the existing policy and (c) if requested by Cisco, BroadSoft will issue a broker of record letter acceptable to Cisco permitting its insurance broker to negotiate and place such "tail" or "runoff" insurance of comparable coverage, Cisco will have the right to negotiate such coverage and BroadSoft will reasonably cooperate therewith.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, by giving written notice to Cisco at least two business days prior to the effective time of the merger, in lieu of the foregoing insurance, BroadSoft may, at its sole discretion, purchase a comparable "tail" or "runoff" extension to the existing policy for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger for a premium not to exceed an amount equal to 300% of the most recently paid annual premium for the existing policy.

Employee Benefits

As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, Cisco will ensure that each employee of BroadSoft and any of its subsidiaries will receive retirement, health and welfare benefits that in the aggregate for each such employee are no less favorable than those provided to a similarly situated employee of Cisco or its affiliates taking into account the employee's geographic location.

Cisco will, or will cause the surviving corporation to and instruct its affiliates to, as applicable, recognize the service of each employee of BroadSoft and any of its subsidiaries before the effective time of the merger (to the same extent recognized by BroadSoft or its affiliates immediately prior to the effective time of the merger) as if such service had been performed with Cisco or its affiliates for all purposes under the vacation, paid time off and severance plans maintained by Cisco or its affiliates after the effective time of the merger and for purposes of eligibility, vesting, level of benefit and benefit accrual (but not for purposes of benefit accrual under a defined benefit pension plan) under all other employee benefit plans or arrangements maintained by Cisco or its affiliates that such employees may be eligible to participate in after the effective time of the merger.

With respect to any welfare plan maintained by Cisco or its affiliates in which employees of BroadSoft and any of its subsidiaries are eligible to participate after the effective time of the merger, Cisco shall, and shall cause the surviving corporation and its other affiliates to, to the extent permitted by the relevant welfare plan and consistent with such plans' application to similarly situated employees of Cisco or its affiliates, waive all limitations as to waiting periods, actively-at-work requirements, evidence or insurability requirements, preexisting condition limitations and other exclusions with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to such employees (and their spouses, domestic partners and dependents) to the extent such conditions and exclusions were satisfied or did not apply under the welfare plans maintained by BroadSoft or its affiliates prior to the effective time of the merger.

Other Covenants

The merger agreement contains additional agreements between BroadSoft and Cisco relating to, among other things:

- Cisco's access to the properties, books, contracts and records of BroadSoft and each of its subsidiaries and all other information concerning its business, results of operations, product development efforts, properties (tangible and intangible, including intellectual property) and personnel of BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries as Cisco may reasonably request between the date of the merger agreement and the earlier of the effective time of the merger and the termination of the merger agreement (subject to applicable legal obligations and restrictions);

- stock exchange delisting by BroadSoft;
- control of securityholder litigation;
- confidentiality;
- press releases and other public announcements relating to the merger, the merger agreement, or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- actions necessary if state takeover laws are or become applicable to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to ensure that the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable;
- notice of certain matters;
- terminate benefit plans if requested by Cisco;
- certain tax certificates and documents;
- certain actions required to be taken by BroadSoft with respect to its convertible notes; and
- the actions necessary to cause the dispositions of certain common stock and equity-based securities by directors and officers of BroadSoft pursuant to the merger agreement to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Further, BroadSoft has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts (not to require a concession or expenditure other than immaterial processing or consent fees) to obtain, prior to the closing, all consents, waivers and approvals of or under contracts of BroadSoft or one of its subsidiaries reasonably requested by Cisco. However, any failure to obtain such consents, waivers or approvals will not be considered a breach of covenant for all purposes of the merger agreement.

Conditions to the Merger

Conditions to Each Party's Obligations. Each party's obligation to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction, at or prior to the closing of the merger, of each of the following conditions:

- the adoption of the merger agreement by our stockholders;
- no order issued by any governmental authority or other legal or regulatory restraint or prohibition preventing the consummation of the merger will be in effect, nor shall any action have been taken by any governmental authority, and no law will have been enacted, entered, enforced or deemed applicable to the merger that prohibits, makes illegal or enjoins the consummation of the merger;
- all applicable waiting periods (and any extensions thereof) applicable to the merger under the HSR Act will have expired or early termination of such waiting periods shall have been granted; and
- all applicable foreign antitrust approvals that have been set forth in the disclosure schedule that BroadSoft delivered to Cisco in connection with the execution of the merger agreement will have been obtained (the last three such conditions, the "Joint Antitrust Conditions").

Conditions to Obligations of Cisco and Merger Sub. The obligations of Cisco and Merger Sub to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the closing of each of the following conditions, any of which may be waived, in writing, by Cisco (with the merger agreement providing that each such condition is solely for the benefit of Cisco and may be waived by Cisco in its sole discretion without notice, liability or obligation to any person):

- the representations and warranties of BroadSoft regarding certain matters relating to BroadSoft's capitalization must be accurate in all respects as of the date of the merger agreement and at and as of the closing as if made on and as of the closing (except for representations and warranties that address matters only as to a specified date, which representations and warranties must be true and correct with respect to such specified date), except where the failure to be so accurate in all respects is not in excess of 0.5% of the fully-diluted capitalization of BroadSoft;

- the representations and warranties of BroadSoft regarding certain matters relating to due organization and subsidiaries of BroadSoft, BroadSoft's corporate authority to enter into the merger agreement, the due execution, delivery and enforceability of the merger agreement, the required stockholder vote and financial advisors must be accurate in all material respects as of date of the merger agreement and at and as of the closing as if made on and as of the closing (except for representations and warranties that address matters only as to a specified date, which representations and warranties must be true and correct with respect to such specified date);
- the representations and warranties of BroadSoft regarding certain matters relating to the absence of any Material Adverse Effect on BroadSoft since June 30, 2017, must be accurate in all respects as of the date of the merger agreement and at and as of the closing as if made on and as of the closing (except for representations and warranties that address matters only as to a specified date, which representations and warranties must be true and correct with respect to such specified date);
- the representations and warranties of BroadSoft set forth in the merger agreement other than those listed above, disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained in the merger agreement relating to materiality or Material Adverse Effect or any similar standard or qualification, must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and at and as of the closing as if made on and as of the closing (except for representations and warranties that address matters only as to a specified date, which representations and warranties must be true and correct with respect to such specified date), except where the circumstances causing the failure of such representations or warranties to be true and correct have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect;
- BroadSoft must have performed and complied in all material respects with all covenants and other agreements in the merger agreement required to be performed and complied with by it at or prior to the closing;
- since the date of the merger agreement, there must not have been any Material Adverse Effect that is then continuing;
- (a) no order shall have been issued by any court, and no other applicable law will have been enacted, entered, enforced or deemed applicable to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by a governmental authority that shall be in effect and that provides for an Antitrust Restraint and that would prevent or condition the consummation of the merger and (b) there shall not be pending any legal proceeding brought by any governmental authority seeking any of the foregoing (the "Cisco Antitrust Condition" and together with the Joint Antitrust Conditions, the "Antitrust Conditions"); and
- Cisco must have received a certificate signed on behalf of BroadSoft by its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, to the effect that certain of the closing conditions have been satisfied.

Conditions to Obligations of BroadSoft. The obligations of BroadSoft to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the closing of each of the following conditions, any of which may be waived, in writing, by BroadSoft (it being understood that each such condition is solely for the benefit of BroadSoft and may be waived in writing by BroadSoft in its sole discretion without notice, liability or obligation to any person):

- the representations and warranties of Cisco and Merger Sub regarding certain matters relating to due organization of Cisco and Merger Sub, Cisco's and Merger Sub's corporate authority to enter into the merger agreement, the due execution, delivery and enforceability of the merger agreement and the ownership of BroadSoft stock by Cisco and Merger Sub as of the date of the merger agreement must be accurate in all material respects as of date of the merger agreement and at and as of the closing as if made on and as of the closing (except for representations and warranties that address matters only as to a specified date, which representations and warranties must be true and correct with respect to such specified date);

- the representations and warranties of Cisco and Merger Sub set forth in the merger agreement other than those listed above, disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or “Parent Material Adverse Effect” or any similar standard or qualification, must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and at and as of the closing as if made on and as of the closing (except for representations and warranties that address matters only as to a specified date, which representations and warranties must be true and correct with respect to such specified date), except where the circumstances causing the failure of such representations or warranties to be true and correct have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a “Parent Material Adverse Effect,” which means any effect that would, or would reasonably be expected to, prohibit or materially impede Cisco’s or Merger Sub’s ability to consummate the transactions in accordance with the merger agreement and applicable legal requirements;
- Cisco must have performed and complied in all material respects with all covenants and other agreements in the merger agreement required to be performed and complied with by it at or prior to the closing; and
- BroadSoft must have received a certificate signed on behalf of Cisco by a duly authorized officer, to the effect that certain of the closing conditions have been satisfied.

BroadSoft and Cisco can provide no assurance that all of the conditions precedent to the merger will be satisfied or waived by the party permitted to do so.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated prior to the effective time of the merger by mutual written consent of Cisco and BroadSoft at any time. Also, either Cisco or BroadSoft may terminate the merger agreement prior to the effective time of the merger if:

- the closing has not occurred by July 20, 2018 (the “End Date”), which will be extended for an additional three month period and for another three month period, at BroadSoft’s election, if the only closing condition that has not been satisfied as of each relevant extension relates to antitrust approval (provided that this right to terminate the merger agreement will not be available to any party if the failure to consummate the merger by such dates, as the case may be, is principally caused by the material breach by such party of the merger agreement);
- a governmental entity will have issued a final and nonappealable order or taken any other final and nonappealable action, permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger (provided that this right to terminate the merger agreement will not be available to any party that has materially breached its obligations under the merger agreement in any manner that principally caused the existence of such order or action in any material respect); or
- the holders of BroadSoft common stock fail to approve the adoption of the merger agreement at the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof.

BroadSoft can terminate the merger agreement prior to the effective time of the merger if:

- at any time prior to approval of the adoption of the merger agreement by holders of BroadSoft common stock, to accept a superior proposal and enter into a binding written definitive acquisition agreement providing for the consummation of a transaction constituting a superior proposal (provided that BroadSoft may terminate the merger agreement pursuant to this provision only if it has: (a) complied in all material respects with its obligations under the merger agreement with respect to the superior proposal, (b) concurrently entered into a definitive agreement pursuant to which such superior proposal is to be effected and (c) paid, or concurrently pays, to Cisco the termination fee (as described below)); or

- a breach of any representation or warranty contained in the merger agreement or failure to perform any covenant or obligation in the merger agreement on the part of Cisco or Merger Sub will have occurred, which breach or failure to perform or comply would give rise to the failure to satisfy certain conditions to completion of the merger, and such breach or failure cannot be cured by the End Date, or if capable of being cured, will not have been cured within 20 days of the date BroadSoft gives Cisco notice of such breach or failure to perform, or, if earlier, by the End Date.

Cisco can terminate the merger agreement prior to the effective time of the merger if:

- prior to obtaining the approval of the adoption of the merger agreement by holders of BroadSoft common stock, (a) BroadSoft's board of directors fails to include its recommendation to BroadSoft's stockholders to approve the merger agreement in this proxy statement when mailed, (b) the board of directors of BroadSoft effects a change of recommendation, (c) BroadSoft agrees to, accepts, approves, endorses or recommends (or publicly proposes or announces any intention to agree to, accept, approve, endorse or recommend) any acquisition proposal, (d) BroadSoft enters into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet or any other agreement, understanding or contract (whether binding or not) contemplating or otherwise relating to any acquisition proposal (other than an acceptable confidentiality agreement), (e) BroadSoft's board of directors or BroadSoft submits any acquisition proposal to the vote of any securityholders of BroadSoft or any of its subsidiaries, (f) BroadSoft's board of directors or any of its committees approves any transaction pursuant to which any third party, but for such approval, becomes an "interested stockholder" under Section 203 of the DGCL, (g) BroadSoft fails to convene or hold the Special Meeting, (h) BroadSoft's board of directors fails to reaffirm its recommendation of the merger agreement within ten business days after Cisco requests in writing that such recommendation be reaffirmed in response to an acquisition proposal or material modification to an acquisition proposal that has been publicly announced (or if such request is delivered less than ten business days prior to the Special Meeting, no later than one business day prior to the Special Meeting; provided that if such acquisition proposal is subsequently modified within such period, then BroadSoft's board of directors will be required to reaffirm such recommendation no later than one business day prior to the Special Meeting), (i) BroadSoft materially breaches any of the obligations with respect to calling the Special Meeting and non-solicitation and related provisions of the merger agreement or (j) a tender or exchange offer has been commenced and BroadSoft fails to send to its stockholders, within ten business days after such tender or exchange offer is first published, a statement that BroadSoft unconditionally recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer (the "Rejection Recommendation") and reaffirm its recommendation of the merger agreement or fails to reaffirm the Rejection Recommendation in any press release published by BroadSoft or in any Schedule 14D-9, at any time after the foregoing ten business day period (each of the foregoing, a "Triggering Event"); or
- a breach of any representation or warranty contained in the merger agreement or failure to perform any covenant or obligation in the merger agreement on the part of BroadSoft will have occurred, which breach or failure to perform or comply would give rise to the failure to satisfy certain conditions to completion of the merger, and such breach or failure cannot be cured by the End Date, or if capable of being cured, will not have been cured within 20 days of the date Cisco gives BroadSoft notice of such breach or failure to perform, or, if earlier, by the End Date.

Fees and Expenses

Except as described below under "The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees," all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring such expenses whether or not the merger is consummated.

Termination Fees

Termination Fee. BroadSoft will be required to pay Cisco a termination fee equal to $56 million if the merger agreement is terminated:

- by Cisco because of the occurrence of a Triggering Event;
- by either Cisco or BroadSoft because (a) the holders of BroadSoft common stock failed to approve adoption of the merger agreement at the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, or (b) before obtaining the stockholder approval at the Stockholder Meeting, the closing did not occur on or prior to the End Date, in each case at a time that Cisco would have been entitled to terminate the merger agreement because of the occurrence of a Triggering Event;
- by BroadSoft in order to accept a superior proposal; or
- by either Cisco or BroadSoft because (a) the holders of BroadSoft common stock failed to approve adoption of the merger agreement at the Special Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, (b) before obtaining the stockholder approval, the closing did not occur on or prior to the End Date or (c) before obtaining the stockholder approval, BroadSoft breached a representation or warranty contained in the merger agreement or failed to perform any of its covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform or comply would give rise to the failure to satisfy certain conditions to completion of the merger, and in each such case, (i) any person will have publicly announced an acquisition proposal (or an acquisition proposal will have become publicly known) prior to such termination (unless publicly withdrawn prior to such termination) and (ii) within 12 months of such termination BroadSoft entered into a definitive agreement with respect to an acquisition that is ultimately consummated (even if after such 12-month period) or consummated an acquisition (with “acquisition” meaning (i) a merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction or series of transactions involving BroadSoft pursuant to which the stockholders of BroadSoft immediately preceding such transaction or series of transactions hold less than 50% of the aggregate equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction or series of transactions or any direct or indirect parent thereto, (ii) a sale or other disposition in a transaction or series of transactions by BroadSoft or its subsidiaries of assets representing in excess of 50% of the aggregate fair market value of the assets of BroadSoft and its subsidiaries immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions or (iii) the acquisition by any person or group (including by way of a tender offer or an exchange offer or issuance by BroadSoft), directly or indirectly, in a transaction or series of transactions, of beneficial ownership or a right to acquire beneficial ownership of shares representing in excess of 50% of the voting power of the shares of BroadSoft common stock outstanding immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions).

The parties have agreed that in no event will BroadSoft be required to pay the termination fee on more than one occasion. The termination fee, if paid, will be the sole and exclusive remedy of Cisco, Merger Sub and their respective affiliates against BroadSoft and any of its affiliates for any loss suffered as a result of the failure of merger to be consummated or for a breach or failure to perform under the merger agreement or otherwise in the circumstances in which the termination fee is payable.

Parent Expense Reimbursement. Cisco will be required to reimburse BroadSoft’s reasonable fees and expenses not in excess of $10 million in connection with any filings and review of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement under antitrust laws if the merger agreement is terminated by either Cisco or BroadSoft because (a) the closing will not have occurred on or prior to the close of business on the End Date or (b) a court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental body issued a final and nonappealable decree or ruling, or took any other action, having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger or making consummation of the merger illegal, and in each case, at the time of termination all of the closing conditions to the merger have been satisfied or waived other than (i) any of the Antitrust Conditions and (ii) any such conditions that by their nature cannot be satisfied until the closing date so long as such conditions would be satisfied if the closing date were the date of termination of the merger agreement.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated by BroadSoft or Cisco in accordance with its terms, the merger agreement will become void and there will be no liability on the part of Cisco or BroadSoft or their respective stockholders or representatives following any such termination except with regard to liability as a result of fraud or willful and material breach by such party of its representations, warranties, covenants or the agreements under the merger agreement. However, the provisions of the merger agreement regarding confidentiality, payment of the termination fee and expense reimbursement and the general provisions in Article VIII of the merger agreement shall survive any termination.

The parties are entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of the merger agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of the merger agreement, in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity.

Amendment

Subject to applicable law, the parties may amend the merger agreement by executed written agreement, prior to obtaining the approval of the adoption of the merger agreement by holders of BroadSoft common stock at the Special Meeting, with the approval of the respective boards of directors of BroadSoft and Cisco.

PROPOSAL 2 — ADVISORY VOTE ON COMPENSATION

The Advisory Vote on Compensation

Section 14A of the Exchange Act requires that BroadSoft provide its stockholders with the opportunity to vote to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation arrangements that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger, as disclosed in the section entitled "The Merger — Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger," beginning on page 48.

Our board of directors encourages you to review carefully the named executive officer merger-related compensation information disclosed in this proxy statement, and to cast a vote either to approve or disapprove, on an advisory basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to BroadSoft's named executive officers in connection with the merger, through the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, that the stockholders of BroadSoft approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation to be paid by BroadSoft to its named executive officers, that is based on, or otherwise relates to, its proposed acquisition by Cisco Systems, Inc., in the table set forth in the section of the proxy statement for the merger entitled "The Merger — Interests of Our Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger," and in the related notes and narrative disclosure."

The advisory vote on the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger is a vote separate and apart from the vote to adopt the merger agreement. Accordingly, you may vote for adoption of the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger and vote not to adopt the merger agreement or vice versa. Approval of this proposal is not a condition to completion of the merger, and the vote with respect to this proposal is advisory only. Because the vote is advisory only, it will not be binding on either BroadSoft or Cisco.

Vote Required and Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter, provided there is a quorum, is required for approval of this proposal on an advisory (non-binding) basis.

Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. Broker non-votes will have no effect in determining whether or not the proposal is approved.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that the BroadSoft stockholders vote "FOR" the adoption of the resolution to approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger.

PROPOSAL 3 — AUTHORITY TO ADJOURN THE SPECIAL MEETING

The Adjournment Proposal

If at the Special Meeting of stockholders, the number of shares of BroadSoft common stock represented and voting in favor of approval of the merger agreement is insufficient to adopt that proposal under the Delaware General Corporation Law, we may move to adjourn the Special Meeting to enable our board of directors to solicit additional proxies in respect of such proposal. In that event, we will ask our stockholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal, and not the proposal regarding the adoption of the merger agreement or the proposal to approve, on an advisory basis, the compensation that BroadSoft's named executive officers may receive in connection with the merger.

In this proposal, we are asking you to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by our board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy or attorney-in-fact to adjourn the Special Meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If the stockholders approve the adjournment proposal, we could adjourn the Special Meeting and any adjourned session of the Special Meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from stockholders that have previously voted. Among other things, approval of the adjournment proposal could mean that, even if we had received proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against the approval of the merger agreement to defeat that proposal, we could adjourn the Special Meeting without a vote on the merger agreement and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to votes in favor of adoption of the merger agreement.

Failure for this proposal to pass will not affect the ability of the holder of any proxy solicited by us to adjourn the Special Meeting in the event insufficient shares of BroadSoft common stock are represented to establish a quorum, or for any other lawful purpose.

Vote Required and Recommendation of the Board of Directors

Approval of the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary for the purpose of soliciting proxies requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter.

Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. Broker non-votes will have no effect in determining whether or not the proposal is approved.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that the BroadSoft stockholders vote "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of October 20, 2017 (the “Agreement Date”), by and among Cisco Systems, Inc., a California corporation (“Parent”), Brooklyn Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (“Sub”), and BroadSoft, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”).

RECITALS

A. The board of directors of the Company (the “Company Board”) and the boards of directors of Parent and Sub (or duly authorized committees thereof) have determined that it would be advisable to, and in the best interests of, their respective companies and the stockholders of their respective companies that Sub merge with and into the Company (the “Merger”), with the Company to survive the Merger and to become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and, in furtherance thereof, have approved and declared advisable this Agreement and the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement (collectively, the “Transactions”).

B. Parent, Sub and the Company desire to set forth certain representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements in connection with the Merger as set forth herein.

C. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement and as a material inducement to the willingness of Parent to enter into this Agreement, certain employees of the Company (the “Key Employees”) are entering into employment agreements and agreements ancillary thereto (collectively, the “Employment Offer Documents”), in each case to become effective upon the Closing.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1.4. Effective Time. At the Closing, after the satisfaction or waiver in writing of each of the conditions set forth in Article VI, Sub and the Company shall cause the Certificate of Merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the relevant provisions of Delaware Law (the time of acceptance by the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware of such filing, or such later time as may be agreed by Parent and the Company and specified in the Certificate of Merger, being referred to herein as the “Effective Time”).

1.5. Effect of the Merger. At the Effective Time, the effect of the Merger shall be as provided in this Agreement, the Certificate of Merger and the applicable provisions of Delaware Law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time, all property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company shall vest in the Surviving Corporation, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the Company shall become debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

1.6. Certificate of Incorporation; Bylaws.

(a) At the Effective Time, the certificate of incorporation of the Company shall be amended in its entirety to read as set forth in Attachment A to the Certificate of Merger, until thereafter amended as provided by Delaware Law and such certificate of incorporation.

(b) At the Effective Time, the parties hereto shall cause the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation to be amended and restated in their entirety to read as set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto, until thereafter amended as provided by Delaware Law, the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation and such bylaws.

1.7. Directors and Officers of the Surviving Corporation.

(a) The parties hereto shall take all necessary action prior to the Closing so that, effective as of the Effective Time, the members of the board of directors of Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be appointed as the sole members of the board of directors of the Surviving Corporation until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified or their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) The parties hereto shall take all necessary action prior to the Closing so that, effective as of the Effective Time, the officers of Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be appointed as the sole officers of the Surviving Corporation until their respective successors are duly appointed and qualified or their earlier death, resignation or removal in accordance with the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

1.8. Effect on Company Capital Stock, Company Options, Company RSUs and Company PSUs.

(a) On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and without any action on the part of any holder of Company Capital Stock:

(i) Company Common Stock. At the Effective Time, each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Dissenting Shares and shares cancelled pursuant to Section 1.8(c)) shall be automatically converted into the right to receive, subject to and in accordance with Section 1.9, an amount of cash equal to the Per Share Cash Amount, without interest. As of the Effective Time, all such shares of Company Common Stock shall automatically be cancelled and no longer be deemed outstanding, and the holders thereof shall not have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Per Share Cash Amount, without interest, upon surrender of Certificates and/or Uncertificated Shares in accordance with Section 1.9.

(ii) Vested Company Options, Vested Company RSUs and Vested Company PSUs. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Parent will not assume any Vested Company Option, Vested Company RSU or Vested Company PSU. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without the need for any further action on the part of the holder thereof, each Vested Company Option that is unexpired, unexercised and outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, each Vested Company RSU that is unexpired, outstanding and has not yet been settled as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, and each Vested Company PSU that is unexpired, outstanding and has not yet been settled as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, each subject to and in accordance with Section 1.9, shall terminate and shall be converted into and represent the right to receive the applicable Cash-Out Amount from Parent for such Vested Company Option, Vested Company RSU or Vested Company PSU; provided that the Surviving Corporation and Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from such Cash-Out Amount the required amount of withholding for Taxes pursuant to Section 1.12. The Cash-Out Amount payable pursuant to this Section 1.8(a)(ii) shall be rounded to the nearest cent and computed after aggregating Cash-Out Amounts for all Vested Company Options, Vested Company RSUs or Vested Company PSUs held by such Person.

(iii) Unvested Company Options and Unvested Company RSUs. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Parent will not assume any Unvested Company Option or any Unvested Company RSU. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without the need for any further action on the part of the holder thereof, each Unvested Company Option held by a Continuing Employee or Continuing Consultant that is unexpired, unexercised and outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, and each Unvested Company RSU held by a Continuing Employee or Continuing Consultant that is unexpired, outstanding and has not yet been settled as of immediately prior to the Effective Time, each subject to and in accordance with Section 1.8(a)(v) and Section 1.9, shall, in each case, be converted into and substituted for the right to receive the applicable Cash-Out Amount from Parent for such Unvested Company Option or Unvested Company RSU in accordance with the terms of this Section 1.8(a)(iii) (the “Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs)”).

(iv) Unvested Company PSUs. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Parent will not assume any Unvested Company PSU. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without the need for any further action on the part of the holder thereof, each Unvested Company PSU held by a Continuing Employee or Continuing Consultant that is unexpired, outstanding and has not yet been settled as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be subject to service-based vesting as provided in Schedule 1.8(a)(iv) of the Company Disclosure Letter only and shall no longer be subject to any performance-based vesting criteria. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without the need for any further action on the part of the holder thereof, each Unvested Company PSU held by a Continuing Employee or Continuing Consultant that is unexpired, outstanding and has not yet been settled immediately prior to the Effective Time, subject to and in accordance with Section 1.8(a)(v) and Section 1.9, shall be converted into and substituted for the right to receive the applicable Cash-Out Amount from Parent for such Unvested Company PSU in accordance with the terms of this Section 1.8(a)(iv) (the “Unvested Cash (PSUs)”) and, together with the Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs), the “Unvested Cash”).

(v) Payment of Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) and Unvested Cash (PSUs). The cash payment pursuant to (i) Section 1.8(a)(iii) for Unvested Company Options and Unvested Company RSUs shall be subject to the same restrictions and vesting arrangements (including all provisions with respect to the acceleration of vesting following the Effective Date that would apply if such awards were assumed by Parent, including pursuant to applicable Employment Offer Documents) that were applicable to such Unvested Company Options or Unvested Company RSUs, and (ii) Section 1.8(a)(iv) in exchange for Company PSUs shall be subject to the same restrictions and service-based vesting arrangements (including all provisions with respect to the acceleration of vesting following the Effective Date, including pursuant to applicable Employment Offer Documents, and assuming conversion of performance-based vesting to service-based vesting as provided in Schedule 1.8(a)(iv) of the Company Disclosure Letter) that were applicable to such Company PSUs, in each case as of the Effective Time by virtue of Section 1.8(a)(iii) and Section 1.8(a)(iv) as applicable. Therefore, the Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) and Unvested Cash (PSUs) shall not be payable by Parent at the Effective Time, and shall instead become payable by Parent on the date that such Unvested Company Options, Unvested Company RSU or Company PSUs would have become vested under the vesting schedule in place for such awards at the Effective Time (subject to the restrictions and other terms of such vesting schedule and giving effect to all applicable terms with respect to the acceleration of vesting and any applicable Employment Offer Document); provided that if such vesting conditions and terms are not satisfied and vesting ceases at any point after the Effective Time (after giving effect to any applicable terms of acceleration), no further cash payments will be made with respect to Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) and Unvested Cash (PSUs). Parent shall make, or in its discretion shall cause the Surviving Corporation to make, all such required payments to holders of Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) and Unvested Cash (PSUs) no later than the earlier of (A) the 15th day of the calendar month immediately following the calendar month in which the corresponding Unvested Company Option, Unvested Company RSU and Company PSUs would have become vested under the service-based vesting schedule in place for such awards at the Effective Time and (B) the end of the calendar year in which the corresponding Unvested Company Option, Unvested Company RSU or Company PSUs, would have become vested (subject to the restrictions and other terms of such service-based vesting schedule and giving effect to the applicable terms with respect to all acceleration of vesting and any applicable Employment Offer Documents); provided that Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from such Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) and Unvested Cash (PSUs) the required amount of withholding for Taxes pursuant to Section 1.12. The Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a)(iii) and Unvested Cash (PSUs) payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a)(iv) on a given payment date shall be rounded to the nearest cent and computed after aggregating Cash-out Amounts for all Unvested Company Options, Unvested Company RSUs and Company PSUs represented by a particular grant previously held by such Person that would have vested on the relevant vesting date. All amounts payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a)(iii) and Section 1.8(a)(iv) shall be paid without interest. No Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) or Unvested Cash (PSUs), or right thereto, may be pledged, encumbered, sold, assigned or transferred (including any transfer by operation of law), by any Person, other than Parent, or be taken or reached by any legal or equitable process in satisfaction of any Liability of such Person, prior to the distribution to such Person of such Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) and Unvested Cash (PSUs) in accordance with this Agreement.

(b) Capital Stock of Sub. At the Effective Time, each share of capital stock of Sub that is issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without further action on the part of the sole stockholder of Sub, be converted into and become one share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation (and the shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation into which the shares of Sub capital stock are so converted shall be the only shares of the Surviving Corporation's capital stock that are issued and outstanding immediately after the Effective Time). The certificate evidencing ownership of shares of Sub common stock will evidence ownership of the same number of shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(c) Cancellation of Company Capital Stock Owned by the Company and Parent. At the Effective Time, all shares of Company Capital Stock that are owned by the Company as treasury stock immediately prior to the Effective Time, and each share of Company Capital Stock owned by Parent or any direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Company or subsidiary of Parent immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be cancelled without any conversion thereof.

(d) Adjustments. In the event of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into capital stock), reorganization, reclassification, combination, recapitalization or other like change with respect to the Company Capital Stock occurring after the Agreement Date and prior to the Effective Time, all references in this Agreement to specified numbers of shares of any class or series affected thereby, and all calculations provided for that are based upon numbers of shares of any class or series (or trading prices therefor) affected thereby, shall be equitably adjusted to the extent necessary to provide the parties hereto the same economic effect as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, reorganization, reclassification, combination, recapitalization or other like change.

(e) Appraisal Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if any stockholder of the Company that is entitled to assert appraisal rights properly demands to be paid the “fair value” of such holder’s shares of Company Capital Stock in accordance with Delaware Law and complies with all conditions and obligations of Section 262 thereof, meaning such perfected appraisal rights are not effectively withdrawn or lost, each Dissenting Share held by such Dissenting Stockholder shall not be converted at the Effective Time into the right to receive the applicable portion of the consideration payable in the Merger, but shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by Delaware Law to a holder of Dissenting Shares. The Company shall give Parent (i) prompt notice of any such demands received by the Company, including any stockholder’s notice of their intent to demand payment pursuant to Delaware Law that the Company receives prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting, withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to Delaware Law and received by the Company, and (ii) the right to participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to such demands under Delaware Law. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, voluntarily make any payment or offer to make any payment with respect to, or settle or offer to settle, any claim or demand in respect of any Dissenting Shares. If, after the Effective Time, any Dissenting Stockholder shall fail to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost the right to seek appraisal rights, the Dissenting Shares held by such Dissenting Stockholder shall immediately be converted into the right to receive the cash payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a) in respect of such shares as if such shares never had been Dissenting Shares, and Parent shall issue and deliver to the holder thereof at (or as promptly as reasonably practicable after) the applicable time or times specified in Section 1.9(c), following the satisfaction of the applicable conditions set forth in Section 1.9(c), the amount of cash to which such holder would be entitled in respect thereof under Section 1.8(a) as if such shares never had been Dissenting Shares (and all such cash shall be deemed for all purposes of this Agreement to have become deliverable to such holder pursuant to Section 1.8(a)).

1.9. Surrender of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. Parent’s transfer agent, Computershare Inc. (or such other agent or agents as may be appointed by Parent), shall act as exchange agent (the “Exchange Agent”) in the Merger.

(b) Parent to Deposit Cash. On or prior to the Closing Date, Parent shall, or shall cause a direct or indirect subsidiary of Parent to, deposit with the Exchange Agent for exchange in accordance with this Article I the cash payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a)(i) and Section 1.8(a)(ii) (which, for the avoidance of doubt, excludes the Unvested Cash) (provided that the cash payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a)(ii) in respect of Vested Company Options, Vested Company RSUs or Vested Company PSUs, in each case to be received by the holder in the holder’s capacity as an employee of the Company or the Subsidiaries for applicable employment Tax purposes, may instead be paid directly by either Parent through its payroll provider or, if so directed by Parent, by the Surviving Corporation through its payroll provider).

(c) Exchange Procedures. Promptly following the Effective Time, Parent shall instruct the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates (“Certificates”) and each holder of record of book-entry shares (“Uncertificated Shares”) that, in each case, immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Capital Stock, (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and shall contain such other provisions as Parent may reasonably specify) and (ii) instructions for use of such letter of transmittal in effecting surrender of Certificates and/or Uncertificated Shares in exchange for the cash payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a). Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, or upon receipt by the Exchange Agent of an appropriate agent's message in the case of book-entry transfer of Uncertificated Shares, each holder of such Certificate or such Uncertificated Shares shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a check for the cash amount that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 1.8(a) in respect of the Company Capital Stock represented by such Certificate or such Uncertificated Shares (which, for the avoidance of doubt, excludes any Unvested Cash), and the Certificate or Uncertificated Shares so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. Until so surrendered, outstanding Certificates and Uncertificated Shares will be deemed from and after the Effective Time, for all corporate purposes, to evidence only the right to receive cash pursuant to Section 1.8(a), except as provided in Section 1.8(e).

(d) No Interest. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a) or otherwise in connection with the Merger.

(e) Transfers of Ownership. If any cash amount payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a) is to be paid to a Person other than the Person to which the Certificate or Uncertificated Shares surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of the payment thereof that the Certificate or Uncertificated Shares so surrendered shall, as applicable, be properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such exchange shall have paid to Parent or any agent designated by it any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the payment of cash in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate or Uncertificated Shares surrendered, or established to the satisfaction of Parent or any agent designated by it that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

(f) No Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 1.9, none of the Exchange Agent, the Surviving Corporation or any party hereto shall be liable to any Person for any amount properly paid to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Applicable Legal Requirement.

(g) Unclaimed Cash. Any portion of funds held by the Exchange Agent that has not been delivered to any holders of Certificates or Uncertificated Shares pursuant to this Article I within 12 months after the Effective Time shall promptly be paid to Parent, and thereafter each holder of a Certificate or Uncertificated Shares who has not theretofore complied with the exchange procedures set forth in and contemplated by Section 1.9(c) shall look only to Parent (subject to abandoned property, escheat and similar laws) for its claim, only as a general unsecured creditor thereof, to the cash payable to such holder pursuant to Section 1.8(a). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if any Certificate or Uncertificated Shares have not been surrendered prior to the fifth anniversary of the Effective Time (or immediately prior to such earlier date on which the merger consideration contemplated by Section 1.8(a) in respect of such Certificate or Uncertificated Shares would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Entity), any amounts payable in respect of such Certificate or Uncertificated Shares shall, to the extent permitted by Applicable Legal Requirements, become the property of Parent, free and clear of all claims or interests of any Person previously entitled thereto.

1.10. No Further Ownership Rights in Company Capital Stock. All cash paid or payable following the surrender for exchange of shares of Company Capital Stock in accordance with this Agreement shall be so paid or payable in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares of Company Capital Stock, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the records of the Surviving Corporation of shares of Company Capital Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, any Certificate or Uncertificated Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation for any reason, such Certificate or Uncertificated Shares shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this Article I.

1.11. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent shall issue in exchange for such Certificate, following the making of an affidavit of that fact by the record holder thereof, such cash as may be required pursuant to Section 1.8(a) in respect of such Certificate; provided that Parent or the Exchange Agent may, in its respective reasonable discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the record holder of such Certificate to deliver a bond in such sum as Parent or the Exchange Agent may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Parent, the Surviving Corporation, the Exchange Agent and/or any of their respective Representatives with respect to such Certificate.

1.12. Withholding Rights. Parent, the Surviving Corporation, their respective subsidiaries and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the cash otherwise deliverable under this Agreement and from any other payments otherwise required pursuant to this Agreement, to any holder of any shares of Company Capital Stock, any Company Options, any Company RSUs, any Company PSUs, any Certificates or any Uncertificated Shares such amounts as any of Parent, the Surviving Corporation, their respective subsidiaries or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to any such deliveries and payments under the Code or any other Applicable Legal Requirements. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to or credited by the relevant Tax Authority in accordance with Applicable Legal Requirements, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been delivered and paid to such holders in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

1.13. Tax Consequences. The parties hereto intend the Merger to be a taxable sale of the Company Capital Stock by the Company's stockholders. Parent makes no representations or warranties to the Company or to any holder of Company Capital Stock, Company Options, Company RSUs or Company PSUs regarding the Tax treatment of the Merger, or any Tax consequences to the Company or any such holder arising in connection with this Agreement, the Merger or any of the other transactions or agreements contemplated by this Agreement. The Company acknowledges that the Company and such holders are relying solely on their own Tax advisors in connection with this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions and agreements contemplated by this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

2.1. Organization, Standing and Power; Subsidiaries.

(a) The Company is a corporation duly incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware. Each Subsidiary is an entity that is duly organized or formed, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization or formation (except, in the case of good standing, (i) any jurisdiction that does not recognize such concept and (ii) where the failure to be in good standing in any jurisdiction would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect). The Company and each Subsidiary has the corporate or other applicable power to own its properties and to conduct the Business and is duly qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction (to the extent the concept is recognized by such jurisdiction), except where the failure to be so qualified or licensed and in good standing, individually or in the aggregate with any such other failures, would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) The Company has made available to Parent a true, correct and complete copy of the certificate of incorporation and bylaws or other equivalent organizational or governing documents, as applicable, of the Company and each Subsidiary, in each case as amended to date. Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary is in violation of any of the provisions of its certificate of incorporation or bylaws or equivalent organizational or governing documents in any material respect. Schedule 2.1(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter sets forth a true, correct and complete list of the Subsidiaries of the Company and their respective jurisdictions of organization or formation. All of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of each Subsidiary are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable (in any jurisdiction that recognizes such concepts), are owned by the Company or another Subsidiary free and clear of all Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances, and are not subject to any preemptive right or right of first refusal, other than in favor of the Company or a Subsidiary, created by statute, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws or other equivalent organizational or governing documents, as applicable, of such Subsidiary or any Contract to which the Company or such Subsidiary is a party or by which it is bound. There are no outstanding subscriptions, options, warrants, “put” or “call” rights, exchangeable or convertible securities or other Contracts to which the Company or any of the Subsidiaries is party or by which the Company or any of the Subsidiaries is bound with respect to the issued or unissued capital stock or other securities of any Subsidiary, or otherwise obligating the Company or any Subsidiary to issue, transfer, sell, purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire or sell any such securities. Other than the Subsidiaries and in connection with passive investments in publicly-traded securities, the Company does not directly or indirectly own any equity or similar interest in, or any interest convertible or exchangeable or exercisable for, any equity or similar interest in, any Person. There are no outstanding obligations of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries under any Contract to which it is a party or by which it is bound to make any loan to, or any equity or other similar investment (in the form of a capital contribution or otherwise) in, any other Person (other than the Company or a Subsidiary) in an amount in excess of $500,000 in respect of any single Person.

(c) The Company has made available to Parent true, correct and complete copies of the charters of all committees of the Company Board and all codes of conduct, whistleblower policies, disclosure committee policy or similar policies adopted by the Company Board, as in effect on the Agreement Date, unless the same are contained in unredacted exhibits to the Company SEC Reports.

2.2. Capital Structure.

(a) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists solely of (i) 100,000,000 shares of Company Common Stock and (ii) 5,000,000 shares of Company Preferred Stock. As of the close of business on October 18, 2017 (the “Measurement Date”), a total of 31,583,519 shares of Company Common Stock were issued and outstanding and no shares of Company Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding. The Company has not designated, authorized or issued any other shares of capital stock. The Company holds no shares of Company Common Stock in its treasury as of the close of business on the Measurement Date. As of the close of business on the Measurement Date, the Company has reserved (A) 4,976,051 shares of Company Common Stock for issuance to employees, non-employee directors and consultants pursuant to the Company Option Plans, of which 1,465,479 shares are subject to outstanding and unexercised Company Options, 1,787,449 shares are subject to or otherwise deliverable in connection with outstanding Company RSUs, 160,773 shares are subject to or otherwise deliverable in connection with outstanding Company PSUs and 1,562,350 shares remain available for issuance thereunder and (B) 8,300,188 shares of Company Common Stock as may from time to time be issuable upon conversion of the Convertible Notes. The maximum number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to issuance pursuant to the Convertible Notes outstanding as of the close of business on the Measurement Date to the extent converted in accordance with their terms and after giving effect to the Merger is 7,141,004. All issued and outstanding shares of Company Capital Stock are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and are free of all Encumbrances, preemptive rights, rights of first refusal and “put” or “call” rights created by statute, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the Company or any Contract to which the Company is a party or by which it is bound. As of the Agreement Date, no shares of Company Capital Stock are subject to a right of repurchase or otherwise not fully vested under the terms of any Contract with the Company at the Effective Time (including any stock option agreement, stock option exercise agreement, restricted stock purchase agreement or restricted stock grant agreement). There is no liability for dividends accrued and unpaid by the Company or any Subsidiary. As of the Agreement Date, there are no shares of Company Capital Stock that have become outstanding since the Measurement Date other than pursuant to the exercise of Company Options or the vesting of Company RSUs, Company PSUs or Convertible Notes outstanding on the Measurement Date and included in the amounts set forth above or amounts otherwise granted in accordance with Section 4.2.

(b) The Company has no Company Options, Company RSUs or Company PSUs other than those granted pursuant to the Company Option Plans. The Company has made available or otherwise delivered to Parent a true, correct and complete list of all Company Options, Company RSUs and Company PSUs as of the Measurement Date with fields of information presented therein. The Company has delivered or made available to Parent or Parent's Representatives copies of all Company Option Plans and current forms of all stock option agreements evidencing such Company Options and current forms of stock unit agreements evidencing such Company RSUs and/or Company PSUs. All issued and outstanding shares of Company Capital Stock, all Convertible Notes and all outstanding Company Options, Company RSUs and Company PSUs were issued, and all repurchases of Company securities were made, in material compliance with all Applicable Legal Requirements and all requirements set forth in applicable Contracts. The Company is not under any obligation to register under the Securities Act any of the presently outstanding securities of the Company or any Subsidiary now outstanding or that may be subsequently issued.

(c) Except for the Convertible Notes, there is no Company Debt (i) having the right to vote on any matters on which stockholders may vote (or which is convertible into, or exchangeable for, securities having such right) or (ii) the value of which is in any way based upon or derived from capital or voting stock of the Company (collectively, "Company Voting Debt"), issued or outstanding as of the Agreement Date.

(d) Except as set forth in Section 2.2(a), as of the close of business on the Measurement Date, there are no options, restricted stock units (including performance stock units), warrants, puts, calls, rights or Contracts of any character to which the Company is a party or by which it is bound obligating the Company to grant, issue, deliver, sell, repurchase or redeem, or cause to be issued, delivered, sold, repurchased or redeemed, any shares of Company Capital Stock, any options, restricted stock units (including performance stock units) or warrants to purchase or acquire any Company Capital Stock or other securities of the Company, or any Company Voting Debt, or obligating the Company to grant, extend, accelerate the vesting and/or repurchase rights of, change the price of, or otherwise amend or enter into any such option, restricted stock unit (including performance stock unit), warrant, put, call, right or Contract. No Unvested Company Options are early exercisable. Except as expressly provided for in this Agreement, there are no executory Contracts relating to voting, purchase or sale of any Company Capital Stock between the Company and any of the Company's stockholders. True, correct and complete copies of each Company Option Plan, the current standard form of all Contracts currently outstanding relating to or issued under each Company Option Plan have been made available to Parent, and such agreements and instruments have not been amended, modified or supplemented since being made available to Parent, and there are no agreements, understandings or commitments to amend, modify or supplement such agreements or instruments in any material respect from those made available to Parent.

2.3. Authority; Non-contravention.

(a) The Company has the corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and, subject to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval, to consummate the Merger and the other Transactions. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and, subject to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval, the consummation of the Merger and the other Transactions, have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming due authorization, execution and delivery thereof by each of the other parties hereto, constitutes the valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, subject only to the effect, if any, of (i) applicable bankruptcy and other similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and (ii) Applicable Legal Requirements governing specific performance, injunctive relief and other equitable remedies (collectively, the “Enforceability Limitations”). The Company Board, by resolutions duly and unanimously adopted on or prior to the Agreement Date (and, subject to Section 5.3, not thereafter modified or rescinded in a manner adverse to Parent), has (i) approved this Agreement and the Merger, (ii) determined that the Merger and the terms and conditions of this Agreement are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of the Company and the Company’s stockholders and (iii) directed that the adoption of this Agreement be submitted to the Company’s stockholders for consideration and recommended that all of the Company’s stockholders adopt this Agreement. Subject to the accuracy of the representation set forth in Section 3.4, the affirmative vote of the Company’s stockholders holding a majority of all shares of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding on the record date set for the determination of stockholders entitled to vote on such matter at the Company Stockholder Meeting (such affirmative vote, the “Company Stockholder Approval”) is the only vote of the Company’s stockholders necessary to adopt this Agreement under Applicable Legal Requirements and the Company’s certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company does not, and the consummation of the Merger and the other Transactions will not, (i) result in the creation of any Encumbrance on any of the material properties or assets of the Company and any Subsidiary, taken as a whole, or (ii) conflict with, or result in any violation of or default under (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both), or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or loss of any material benefit under, or require any consent, approval or waiver from any Person pursuant to, (A) any provision of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws or other equivalent organizational or governing documents of the Company or any Subsidiary, in each case as amended to date, (B) subject to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval and compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 2.3(c), any Applicable Legal Requirement, or (C) any Material Contract, other than, in the case of clause (B) of this Section 2.3(b), such conflicts, violations, defaults, Encumbrances, terminations, cancellations, accelerations, losses, consents, approvals or waivers as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) No consent, approval, order, authorization, release or waiver of, or registration, notification, declaration or filing with, any Governmental Entity is required by or with respect to the Company or any Subsidiary in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation of the Merger and the other Transactions, except for (i) the compliance with the applicable provisions of Delaware Law, (ii) the filing of the Certificate of Merger, as provided in Section 1.4, (iii) such filings and notifications as may be required under the HSR Act and any applicable foreign Antitrust Law and the expiration or early termination of applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act and any applicable foreign Antitrust Law, (iv) the filing of the Proxy Statement with the SEC and such reports and filings as may be required under the Exchange Act, (v) such other filings and notifications as may be required under federal, state or foreign securities laws or the rules and regulations of the NASDAQ Global Select Market and (vi) such other consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, releases, waivers, registrations, notifications, declarations or filings that, if not obtained or made, would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(d) Subject to the accuracy of the representation set forth in Section 3.4, the approval of this Agreement and the Transactions referred to in Section 2.3(a) by the Company Board constitute all of the approvals that are necessary to render inapplicable to this Agreement, the Merger and the other Transactions the restrictions on “business combinations” with “interested stockholders” set forth in Section 203 of Delaware Law (as such terms are defined therein), and represent the only action necessary to ensure that the restrictions on business combinations set forth in Section 203 of Delaware Law does not and will not apply to the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement or the consummation of the Merger or the other Transactions. No other takeover or similar statute or regulation is applicable to this Agreement, the Merger or the other Transactions.

None of the Subsidiaries is required to file any forms, reports or other documents with the SEC.

The balance sheet of the Company as of June 30, 2017 (the “Company Balance Sheet Date”) contained in the Company SEC Reports is hereinafter referred to as the “Company Balance Sheet.” Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has any Liabilities of a nature required to be set forth on or reserved against on the Company Balance Sheet in accordance with GAAP except for: (i) Liabilities disclosed on the Company Balance Sheet, (ii) Liabilities incurred since the Company Balance Sheet Date in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, (iii) the fees and expenses of investment bankers, attorneys, consultants and accountants incurred in connection with this Agreement and other Liabilities incurred pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and (iv) Liabilities incurred after the Agreement Date that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. The Company has adopted a code of ethics, as defined by Item 406(b) of Regulation S-K, for senior financial, accounting and compliance officers and those performing similar functions. The Company has disclosed any violation or waiver of such code of ethics, as required by Section 406(b) of SOXA. 2.6. Litigation. There is no Legal Proceeding pending before any Governmental Entity, or to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company or any Subsidiary or any of their respective assets or properties or any of their respective directors, officers or employees (in their capacities as such or relating to their employment, services or relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary) that (i) would reasonably be expected to result in obligations or liabilities of the Company or the Subsidiaries in excess of $1,000,000, (ii) is related to the Company Intellectual Property or (iii) would otherwise reasonably be expected to be material to the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole. There is no Order against the Company or any Subsidiary, any of their respective assets or properties, or, to the knowledge of the Company, any of their respective directors, officers or employees (in their capacities as such or relating to their employment, services or relationship with the Company or any Subsidiary). Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has any Legal Proceeding pending against any other Person. There has not been since January 1, 2014, nor are there currently, any internal investigations or inquiries being conducted by the Company, the Company Board (or any committee thereof), any compliance officer of the Company or any third party at the request of any of the foregoing concerning any financial, accounting, Tax, conflict of interest, illegal activity, fraudulent or deceptive conduct or other misfeasance or malfeasance issues.

2.8. Compliance with Laws; Governmental Permits.

(a) Since January 1, 2014, the Company and each Subsidiary has complied with, is not in violation of, and has not received any written, or to the knowledge of the Company, oral, notice regarding any violation with respect to, any Applicable Legal Requirement with respect to the Business, except, in each case, for any such violation that would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. None of the Company, the Subsidiaries or, to the knowledge of the Company, the Company Representatives, while acting on behalf of the Company or the Subsidiaries, has, to the extent constituting a material violation of Applicable Legal Requirements, (i) given, offered, paid, promised to pay or authorized any bribe, payoff, kickback or other improper payment to any Person, private or public, regardless of form or (ii) given, offered, paid, promised to pay or authorized payment of any money, any gift or anything of value with the purpose of securing any improper advantage, influencing any act or decision of the recipient in his or her official capacity or inducing the recipient to use his or her influence to affect an act or decision of an official or employee of any Governmental Entity, to any (A) official or employee of any Governmental Entity, (B) political party or candidate thereof or (C) other Person, in any such case, while knowing that all or a portion of such money or thing of value would be given or offered to an official or employee of any Governmental Entity or political party or candidate thereof.

(b) The Company and each Subsidiary has obtained each federal, state, county, local or foreign governmental consent, license, permit, grant, registration, certificate of public convenience and necessity or other authorization of a Governmental Entity (i) pursuant to which the Company or any Subsidiary currently operates or holds any interest in any of its material assets or properties or (ii) that is required for and material to the operation of the Business or the holding of any such interest (all of the foregoing consents, licenses, permits, grants, registrations, certificates of public convenience and necessity, and other authorizations, collectively, the “Company Authorizations”), and all of the Company Authorizations are in full force and effect, except where the failure to obtain or maintain such Company Authorizations would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. The Company and the Subsidiaries are in compliance with the terms of the Company Authorizations, except where failure to be in compliance would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of the Company, as of the Agreement Date, neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has received any notice from any Governmental Entity regarding (A) any violation of a Company Authorization, any audit, inquiry or investigation concerning compliance with any Company Authorization, or any failure to comply with any term or requirement of any Company Authorization or (B) any revocation, withdrawal, suspension, cancellation, termination or modification of, any Company Authorization, except, in each case, where failure to be in compliance would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. None of the material Company Authorizations will be terminated or impaired, or will become terminable, in whole or in part, as a result of the Transactions. Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary is subject to any Order, enforcement action or audit that materially and adversely affects the Business or the ownership or use of its assets or properties. Except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, the Company has no Liability for non-compliance with, or fees or contributions required to be paid to the Universal Service Fund, the Telecommunications Relay Service Fund, the North American Numbering Plan Administration, Local Number Portability, or other fee obligations applicable under the rules of the Federal Communications Commission.

(b) Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary owns any real property or interests in real property. Schedule 2.9(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter is a true, correct and complete list as of the Agreement Date of all material real property and interests in real property leased by the Company or any Subsidiary (each such property or interest, "Leased Real Property"). With respect to Leased Real Property, neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has (i) subleased, licensed or otherwise granted any Person the right to use or occupy such Leased Real Property or any portion thereof, or (ii) collaterally assigned or granted any other security interest in any such leasehold estate or any interest therein. The Company has made available to Parent true, correct and complete copies of all leases, subleases and other Contracts under which the Company and/or any Subsidiary uses or occupies or has the right to use or occupy, now or in the future, any Leased Real Property, including all modifications, amendments and supplements thereto.

None of the Company Intellectual Property Agreements grant any exclusive rights to or under any Company Intellectual Property to any third party. There are no pending disputes between the Company, or any of the Subsidiaries, and any Person regarding any material Company Intellectual Property Agreements to which such Person is a party. Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has any material Liability for breach of any Company Intellectual Property Agreement. No third party that has licensed Intellectual Property to the Company or any Subsidiary has ownership or license rights to improvements or derivative works of such Third-Party Intellectual Property that are made by the Company or any Subsidiary other than any such ownership or license rights to "feedback" provided by the Company or a Subsidiary, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect. (h) Since January 1, 2014, neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has been sued in any Legal Proceeding (or received any written notice or, to the knowledge of the Company, threat) that involves a claim of infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property Right of any third party or that contests the validity, ownership or right of the Company or any Subsidiary to exercise any Company-Owned Intellectual Property. Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has received any written communication since January 1, 2014 that alleges that any Company Products or the conduct of the Business infringes any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party, or includes any offer to license or grant any other rights or immunities under any Intellectual Property Right of a third party in connection with an allegation that any Company Products or the conduct of the Business infringes any Intellectual Property Rights of such third party.

To the knowledge of the Company, the operation of the Business, including the (i) design, development, manufacturing, marketing, licensing, sale, use and/or distribution of any Company Product and (ii) the Company's or any Subsidiary's use of any product, device or process in the Company Products does not and (when conducted in substantially the same manner following the Closing) will not infringe or misappropriate any Third-Party Intellectual Property, or constitute unfair competition or unfair trade practices under the applicable law of any jurisdiction in which the Company or any Subsidiary conducts its Business, and to the knowledge of the Company, there is no substantial basis for any claim alleging any of the foregoing. Neither the Company nor any Subsidiary has received any written opinion of counsel that any Company Product or the operation of the Business does or does not infringe, misappropriate or violate any Intellectual Property Right of a third party or that any Intellectual Property Right of a third party is invalid or unenforceable.

(j) No Company-Owned Intellectual Property or Company Product is subject to any Legal Proceeding, outstanding Order or "march in" right that restricts in any manner the use, transfer or licensing thereof by the Company or any Subsidiary, or that affects the validity, use or enforceability of any such Company-Owned Intellectual Property.

(k) The Company and each Subsidiary has secured from each of their founders, employees, consultants and independent contractors who independently or jointly contributed to or participated in the contribution, conception, reduction to practice, creation or development of any Company-Owned Intellectual Property for the Company or any Subsidiary (each, an "Author") unencumbered, unrestricted and exclusive ownership of all Intellectual Property Rights in such contributions. No such Author has retained any rights, licenses, claims or interest with respect to any Company Intellectual Property developed by such Author or the Company or any Subsidiary.

(l) To the knowledge of the Company, no current or former employee, consultant or independent contractor of the Company or any Subsidiary: (i) is in material violation of any term or covenant of any Contract relating to employment, invention disclosure (including patent disclosure), invention assignment, non-disclosure or any other Contract with any other party by virtue of such employee's, consultant's or independent contractor's being employed by, or performing services for, the Company or any Subsidiary or using trade secrets or proprietary information of others without permission, or (ii) has developed any technology, software or other copyrightable, patentable or otherwise proprietary work for the Company or any Subsidiary that is subject to any agreement under which such employee, consultant or independent contractor has assigned or otherwise granted to any third party any rights (including Intellectual Property Rights) in or to such technology, software or other copyrightable, patentable or otherwise proprietary work.

(m) To the knowledge of the Company, the employment of any employee of the Company or any Subsidiary or the use by the Company or any Subsidiary of the services of any consultant or independent contractor does not subject the Company or any Subsidiary to any material Liability to any third party for improperly soliciting such employee, consultant or independent contractor to work for or provide services to the Company or any Subsidiary.

(n) To the extent any Third-Party Intellectual Property is incorporated into, integrated or bundled with any of the Company Products, the Company and the Subsidiaries have a written agreement with such third party with respect thereto pursuant to which the Company or a Subsidiary have obtained licenses sufficient for the use and distribution thereof in the conduct of the Business as such Third-Party Intellectual Property is so incorporated, integrated or bundled, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to be material to the Company and the Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

(o) The Company and the Subsidiaries have taken commercially reasonable steps to protect and preserve the confidentiality of all confidential or trade secret information of the Company or provided by any third party to the Company (“Confidential Information”). All current and former employees and contractors of the Company and the Subsidiaries and any third party having access to Confidential Information from the Company have executed and delivered to the Company a written, legally binding agreement regarding the protection of such Confidential Information or are otherwise bound by obligations of confidentiality.

It is agreed and understood that such opinions are for the benefit of the Company Board (in its capacity as such) and may not be relied upon by Parent or Sub.

2.21. Information Supplied. The preliminary and definitive proxy materials to be filed by the Company with the SEC in connection with the Merger (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time, the “Proxy Statement”) shall not, on each applicable filing date, on the date of mailing to the Company’s stockholders and at the time of the Company Stockholder Meeting, as applicable, (i) contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading or (ii) omit to state any material

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PARENT AND SUB

Parent and Sub represent and warrant to the Company as follows:

3.1. Organization, Standing and Power. Each of Parent and Sub is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of its jurisdiction of organization. Each of Parent and Sub has the corporate power to own its properties and to conduct its business as now being conducted and is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where the failure to be so qualified and in good standing, individually or in the aggregate with any such other failures, would not have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. Neither Parent nor Sub is in violation of any of the provisions of its articles or certificate of incorporation, as applicable, or bylaws.

3.2. Authority; Non-contravention.

(a) Each of Parent and Sub has the corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the Merger and the other Transactions. The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the Merger and the other Transactions have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of Parent and Sub (other than the adoption of this Agreement by Parent as the sole stockholder of Sub, which shall occur immediately following the execution of this Agreement). This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by each of Parent and Sub and, assuming the due authorization, execution, and delivery by the Company of this Agreement, constitutes the valid and binding obligation of Parent and Sub, respectively, enforceable against Parent and Sub, respectively, in accordance with its terms, subject only to the effect, if any, of the Enforceability Limitations.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and Sub do not, and the consummation of the Transactions will not, conflict with, or result in any violation of, or default under (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both), or give rise to a right of termination, cancellation or acceleration of any obligation or loss of a benefit under, or require any consent, approval or waiver from any Person pursuant to, (i) any provision of the articles or certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Parent and Sub, in each case, as amended to date, (ii) subject to compliance with the requirements set forth in Section 3.2(c), any material Applicable Legal Requirements applicable to Parent or Sub or any of their respective material properties or assets, or (iii) any material Contract applicable to Parent or Sub or their respective properties or assets, other than, in the case of clauses (ii) and (iii), such conflicts, violations, defaults, terminations, cancellations, accelerations, losses, consents, approvals or waivers, would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to be material to Parent's or Sub's ability to perform their respective obligations under this Agreement or has a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(c) No consent, approval, order, authorization, release or waiver of, or registration, notification, declaration or filing with, any Governmental Entity, is required by or with respect to Parent or Sub in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the consummation of the Merger or the other Transactions, except for (i) the compliance with the applicable provisions of Delaware Law, (ii) the filing of the Certificate of Merger, as provided in Section 1.4, (iii) such filings as may be required under the HSR Act and any applicable foreign Antitrust Law and the expiration or early termination of applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act and any applicable foreign Antitrust Law, (iv) the filing of the Proxy Statement with the SEC and such reports and filings as may be required under the Exchange Act, (v) such other filings and notifications as may be required under federal, state or foreign securities laws or the rules and regulations of the NASDAQ Global Select Market and (vi) such other consents, approvals, orders, authorizations, releases, waivers, registrations, notifications, declarations or filings that, if not obtained or made, would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

3.3. No Prior Sub Operations. Sub was formed solely for the purpose of effecting the Merger and has not engaged in any business activities or conducted any operations other than in connection with the Merger and the other Transactions. Parent owns beneficially and of record all of the outstanding capital stock of Sub.

3.4. Stock Ownership. As of the Agreement Date, neither Parent nor Sub beneficially own any shares of Company Capital Stock. Neither Parent nor Sub, nor any of their “affiliates” or “associates,” has been an “interested stockholder” with respect to the Company at any time within the three-year period ending on the Agreement Date, as those terms are used in Section 203 of Delaware Law.

3.5. Information Supplied. The information supplied by Parent or Sub for inclusion in the Proxy Statement shall not, on each applicable filing date, on the date of mailing to the Company’s stockholders and at the time of the Company Stockholder Meeting, as applicable, (i) contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading or (ii) omit to state any material fact necessary to correct any statement in any earlier communication with respect to the solicitation of proxies for the Company Stockholder Meeting that has become misleading. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, neither Parent nor Sub makes any representation or warranty with respect to any information supplied by the Company that is contained in (or incorporated by reference in) the Proxy Statement.

3.6. Availability of Funds. Parent has on the Agreement Date and will have available to it upon the Effective Time, sufficient funds to consummate the Merger and the other Transactions, including payment in full of the amounts payable pursuant to Section 1.8(a) to the holders of Company Capital Stock and the holders of Company Options, Company RSUs and Company PSUs, respectively, and payment of all Convertible Notes that become payable.

3.7. Absence of Litigation. There is no Legal Proceeding pending and served or, to the knowledge of Parent, pending and not served or overtly threatened against Parent or Sub, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of Parent or Sub neither Parent nor Sub is subject to any continuing Order of, consent decree, settlement agreement or similar written agreement with, or continuing investigation by, any Governmental Entity, or any Order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, determination or award of any Governmental Entity, except as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

3.8. No Additional Representations.

(a) Parent acknowledges and agrees that except as expressly set forth in Article II, none of Company, the Subsidiaries or any of their respective Representatives has made any representation or warranty, express or implied, to Parent, Sub or any of their respective Representatives in connection with this Agreement, the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) In connection with the due diligence investigation of the Company and the Subsidiaries by Parent and Sub and their respective Affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, Representatives or advisors, Parent and Sub and their respective Affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, agents, Representatives and advisors have received and may continue to receive after the Agreement Date from the Company and the Subsidiaries and their respective Affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, consultants, agents, Representatives and advisors certain estimates, projections, forecasts and other forward-looking information, as well as certain business plan information, regarding the Company and the Subsidiaries and their businesses and operations. Parent and Sub hereby acknowledge that there are uncertainties inherent in attempting to make such estimates, projections, forecasts and other forward-looking statements, as well as in such business plans, and that Parent and Sub will have no claim against the Company and the Subsidiaries, or any of their respective Affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, consultants, agents, Representatives or advisors, or any other person with respect thereto unless any such information is expressly addressed or included in a representation or warranty contained in Article II. Accordingly, Parent and Sub hereby acknowledge and agree that neither the Company and the Subsidiaries nor any of their respective Affiliates, stockholders, directors, officers, employees, consultants, agents, Representatives or advisors, nor any other person, has made or is making any express or implied representation or warranty with respect to such estimates, projections, forecasts, forward-looking statements or business plans unless any such information is expressly addressed or included in a representation or warranty contained in Article II.

timing and other aspects of the offer, including conditions to consummation and the Person making the offer, in each case deemed relevant by the Company Board (x) would be, if consummated, more favorable, from a financial point of view, to the Company's stockholders (in their capacities as stockholders) than the terms of this Agreement and (y) is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms proposed.

(d) Change of Recommendation or Termination for Superior Proposal. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Company Board from withholding, withdrawing, qualifying, amending (in a manner adverse to Parent) or modifying (in a manner adverse to Parent) the Company Board Recommendation (a "Change of Recommendation") in connection with a Superior Proposal or the Company from terminating this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h) to enter into a definitive agreement to accept a Superior Proposal if:

(v) the Company has, during the four-Business Day period referred to in Section 5.3(d)(iv), if requested by Parent, made the Company Representatives available to discuss and negotiate in good faith with Parent's Representatives any modifications to the terms and conditions of this Agreement that Parent desires to propose such that such Superior Proposal would cease to constitute a Superior Proposal;

(vi) Parent has not, within four Business Days of Parent's receipt of such Notice of Superior Proposal, made a written, binding and irrevocable (through the expiration of such four-Business Day period) offer that the Company Board has concluded in good faith (following consultation with its outside legal counsel and a financial advisor of national standing) to be at least as favorable to the Company's stockholders as such Superior Proposal (it being agreed that (A) the Company Board shall convene a meeting to consider any such offer by Parent promptly following the receipt thereof, (B) the Company Board will not effect a Change of Recommendation and the Company will not terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h) for four Business Days after receipt by Parent of such Notice of Superior Proposal and such Superior Proposal Materials and (C) any change to the financial or other material terms of such Superior Proposal shall require a new Notice of Superior Proposal to Parent and a new two-Business Day period and discussion process under this Section 5.3(d) (and all references to four-Business Day periods in this Section 5.3(d) shall be deemed two-Business Day periods for purposes of this Section 5.3(d)(vi)(C)); provided that such new Notice of Superior Proposal shall in no event shorten the original four-Business Day period); and

(vii) the Company Board has concluded in good faith (following consultation with its outside legal counsel) that, in light of such Superior Proposal and any modifications proposed by Parent pursuant to Section 5.3(d)(vi), the failure to effect a Change of Recommendation and terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(h) would be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations to the Company's stockholders under Applicable Legal Requirements.

(e) Change of Recommendation for Intervening Event. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Company Board from making a Change of Recommendation for a reason unrelated to an Acquisition Proposal (it being understood and agreed that any Change of Recommendation proposed to be made in response to an Acquisition Proposal may only be made pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of Section 5.3(d) if:

(i) the Company Stockholder Approval has not yet been obtained;

(ii) the Company has complied in all material respects with the provisions of Section 5.2 and this Section 5.3;

(iii) the Company Board has concluded in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that, in light of material facts, events and/or circumstances that as of the Agreement Date were unknown by the Company and which were not reasonably foreseeable as of the Agreement Date (an “Intervening Event”) and taking into account the results of any discussions with Parent as contemplated by subsection (iv) and any offer from Parent contemplated by subsection (v), the failure to make a Change of Recommendation would be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations to the Company’s stockholders under Applicable Legal Requirements; provided that in no event shall any of the following, in and of itself, constitute or be deemed an Intervening Event: (A) any determination by the Company Board that the Per Share Cash Amount payable in the Merger is not sufficient, (B) the Company exceeding any earnings projections or predictions made by the Company (whether or not publicly announced) or securities or financial analysts and any resulting analyst upgrades of the Company’s securities or any change in the trading price of the Company Common Stock, (C) any facts, events or circumstances resulting from any breach of this Agreement by the Company or (D) the receipt, existence or terms of any Acquisition Proposal or any matter relating thereto or the consequences thereof;

(iv) the Company has provided to Parent at least four Business Days’ prior written notice that the Company Board intends to make a Change of Recommendation (“Notice of Intervening Event”) and if requested by Parent, the Company shall have made the Company Representatives available during the four-Business Day period to discuss with Parent’s Representatives (A) the facts, events and circumstances underlying such proposed Change of Recommendation and the Company Board’s reason for proposing to make such Change of Recommendation and (B) any modifications to the terms and conditions of this Agreement that Parent desires to propose that that would obviate the need for the Company Board to make such Change of Recommendation; and

(v) Parent shall not have, within the aforementioned four-Business Day period, made a written, binding and irrevocable (through the expiration of such four Business Day period) offer that the Company Board concludes in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and a financial advisor of national standing) would obviate the need for the Company Board to make such Change of Recommendation (it being agreed that (A) the Company Board shall convene a meeting to consider any such offer by Parent promptly following the receipt thereof, (B) the Company Board will not make a Change of Recommendation for four Business Days after receipt by Parent of the Notice of Intervening Event and (C) any material change in the facts, events or circumstances related to the Intervening Event shall require a new Notice of Intervening Event to Parent and a new two-Business Day period and discussion process under subsection (iv) (and all references to four-Business Day periods in this Section 5.3(e) shall be deemed two-Business Day periods for purposes of this Section 5.3(e)(v)(C)); provided that such new Notice of Intervening Event shall in no event shorten the original four-Business Day period).

(f) Compliance with Tender Offer Rules. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company or the Company Board from (i) taking and disclosing to the Company’s stockholders a position contemplated by Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2(a) or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A promulgated under the Exchange Act or (ii) making any disclosure to the Company’s stockholders that the Company Board has concluded in good faith (following consultation with its outside legal counsel) that failure to make such disclosure would be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations to the Company’s stockholders under Applicable Legal Requirements (a “Required Fiduciary Disclosure”); provided that (A) any “stop, look, and listen” communication of the type contemplated by Rule 14d-9(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act, and any substantially similar communication that solely constitutes a recitation of the fact that an Acquisition Proposal has been received and a factual description of the terms and background thereof, and that no position has been taken by the Company Board as to the advisability or desirability of such Acquisition Proposal, shall not be deemed to be a Change of Recommendation, (B) such Required Fiduciary Disclosure shall not be deemed to be a Change of Recommendation if it relates to an Acquisition Proposal and the text of such Required Fiduciary Disclosure includes a public statement that the Company Board is expressly reaffirming the Company Board Recommendation and (C) the Company Board shall not recommend that the Company's stockholders tender shares of Company Capital Stock in connection with any tender or exchange offer or otherwise effect a Change of Recommendation unless specifically permitted by, and in accordance with, Section 5.3.

(a) During the Pre-Closing Period, (i) the Company shall afford Parent and its Representatives reasonable access during business hours to (A) all of the properties, books, Contracts and records of the Company and each Subsidiary and (B) all other information concerning the Business, results of operations, product development efforts, properties (tangible and intangible, including Intellectual Property) and personnel of the Company or any Subsidiary as Parent may reasonably request and (ii) the Company shall maintain the virtual data room established in connection with this Agreement and provide Parent and its Representatives access thereto; provided that with respect to clause (i), any such access shall be conducted at a reasonable time, under the supervision of appropriate personnel of the Company and in such a manner as not to unreasonably interfere with the normal operation of the business of the Company. Nothing herein shall require the Company to disclose any information to Parent if such disclosure would (i) jeopardize any attorney-client or other legal privilege (so long as the Company has reasonably cooperated with Parent to permit such inspection of or to disclose such information on a basis that does not waive such privilege with respect thereto) or (ii) contravene any applicable Legal Requirement or fiduciary duty; provided that information shall be disclosed subject to execution of a joint defense agreement in customary form, and disclosure may be limited to external counsel for Parent, to the extent the Company determines doing so may be reasonably required for the purpose of complying with applicable Antitrust Laws. With respect to the information disclosed pursuant to this Section 5.4, Parent shall comply with, and shall instruct Parent's Representatives to comply with, all of its obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement.

(b) No information or knowledge obtained in any investigation pursuant to this Section 5.4 shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or condition contained herein.

5.5. Confidentiality; Public Disclosure.

(a) The parties hereto acknowledge that Parent and the Company have previously executed a Confidentiality Agreement, dated as of May 2, 2017 (as may be amended from time to time in accordance with its terms, the "Confidentiality Agreement"), which shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

(b) Parent and the Company have agreed to the text of the initial press release announcing the execution of this Agreement and the Transactions. Except with respect to any Acquisition Proposal or Change of Recommendation and as provided in Section 5.3 or in connection with any dispute under this Agreement, the Company shall consult with Parent before issuing or making, and shall provide and shall not issue any press release or make any public statement relating to this Agreement or the Transactions without the prior written consent of Parent; provided that the Company may, without obtaining such prior consent, issue such press release or make such public statement to the extent that the Company determines in good faith (following consultation with its outside legal counsel) that such press release or public statement is required by Applicable Legal Requirements to be issued or made; provided, further, that the Company has used all reasonable efforts to consult and discuss in good faith with Parent the form and content thereof prior to its release and has considered in good faith any reasonable changes that are suggested by Parent prior to releasing or making such press release or public statement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, each party may, without such consultation or consent, make any public statement in response to questions from the press, analysts, investors or those attending industry conferences, make internal announcements to employees and make disclosures in Company SEC Reports, so long as such statements are consistent with previous press releases, public disclosures or public statements made jointly by the parties (or individually, if approved by the other party). The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Company Representatives to comply with this Section 5.5. Parent shall consult in good faith with the Company on its general communications strategy for customers, suppliers and employees regarding the Merger.

5.6. Regulatory Approvals.

(a) Each of Parent and the Company shall promptly after the execution of this Agreement apply for or otherwise seek, and use its respective reasonable best efforts to obtain, all consents and approvals required to be obtained by it for the consummation of the Merger and the other Transactions. Without limiting the generality or effect of the foregoing, each of Parent and the Company shall, as soon as practicable, make any initial filings required under the HSR Act and any other additional filings (“Merger Notification Filings”) required by the HSR Act, the Sherman Act, as amended, the Clayton Act, as amended, the Federal Trade Commission Act, as amended, the Applicable Foreign Antitrust Approvals that are identified on Schedule 5.6(a) of the Company Disclosure Letter and, to the extent mutually determined by the parties hereto to be required, necessary or advisable, initial filings under any other Applicable Legal Requirements that are designed to prohibit, restrict or regulate actions having the purpose or effect of monopolization or restraint of trade (collectively, “Antitrust Laws”) (in the case of filings under the HSR Act, within 15 Business Days after the Agreement Date unless otherwise mutually agreed by Parent and the Company (provided that the filing party has received from the other party all information regarding such other party as is reasonably necessary to make such filing) and, with respect to any other Merger Notification Filings, within time periods mutually agreed by Parent and the Company). The parties hereto shall promptly supply one another with any information that may be required in order to make such filings or obtain such consents and approvals. Each party hereto shall (i) consult and cooperate with one another, and consider in good faith the views of one another, in connection with any analyses, appearances, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments, opinions and proposals made or submitted by or on behalf of any party hereto in connection with proceedings under or relating to the HSR Act or any foreign or other Antitrust Law, (ii) coordinate with one another in preparing and exchanging such materials and (iii) promptly provide one another (and its counsel) with copies of all filings, presentations or submissions (and a summary of any oral presentations) made by such party to any Governmental Entity in connection with this Agreement; provided that with respect to any such analyses, appearances, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments, opinions or proposals or such filings, presentations or submissions, each of Parent and the Company need not supply the other (or its counsel) with copies (or in case of oral presentations, a summary) to the extent that any Applicable Legal Requirement requires such party or its subsidiaries to restrict or prohibit access to any such information. In addition, any party may, as it deems advisable and necessary, reasonably designate any confidential and competitively sensitive material provided to the other parties under this Section 5.6 as “Outside Counsel Only.” Such materials and the information contained therein shall be given only to the outside legal counsel of the recipient and will not be disclosed by such outside counsel to employees, officers, or directors of the recipient, unless express written permission is obtained in advance from the source of the materials.

(b) Each party hereto will notify the other promptly upon the receipt of (i) any comments from any officials of any Governmental Entity in connection with any Merger Notification Filings made pursuant hereto, (ii) any request by any officials of any Governmental Entity for amendments or supplements to any Merger Notification Filings made pursuant to, or information provided to comply in all material respects with, any Applicable Legal Requirements and (iii) any proposal by a Governmental Entity regarding a settlement of any investigation. Each party hereto will respond promptly to and comply with any request for information relating to this Agreement or the Merger Notification Filings from any Governmental Entity charged with enforcing, applying, administering or investigating any Antitrust Laws. Whenever any event occurs that is required to be set forth in an amendment or supplement to any Merger Notification Filing made pursuant to Section 5.6(a), each party hereto will promptly inform the other parties of such occurrence and cooperate in filing with the applicable Governmental Entity such amendment or supplement.

(c) Each of Parent and the Company shall use its respective reasonable best efforts to resolve such objections, if any, as may be asserted by any Governmental Entity with respect to the Transactions under any applicable Antitrust Laws. Parent and the Company shall take any and all of the following actions to the extent necessary to cause the expiration of the notice periods under the HSR Act or other applicable Antitrust Laws with respect to the Transactions and to obtain the approval of any Governmental Entity with jurisdiction over the enforcement of any Applicable Legal Requirements regarding the Transactions: (i) entering into negotiations, (ii) providing information required by Applicable Legal Requirements and (iii) substantially complying with any “second request” for information pursuant to applicable Antitrust Laws.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if any Legal Proceeding is instituted (or threatened to be instituted) challenging the Merger or the other Transactions as violative of any Antitrust Law, it is expressly understood and agreed that (i) Parent shall not have any obligation to litigate or contest any such Legal Proceeding or Order resulting therefrom and (ii) Parent shall be under no obligation to make proposals, execute or carry out agreements or submit to Orders providing for (A) the sale, license or other disposition or holding separate (through the establishment of a trust or otherwise) of any assets or categories of assets of Parent or the Company or any of their respective Affiliates, (B) the imposition of any limitation or restriction on the ability of Parent or any of its Affiliates to freely conduct their business or, following the Closing, the Business or own such assets or (C) the holding separate of the shares of Company Capital Stock or any limitation or regulation on the ability of Parent or any of its Affiliates to exercise full rights of ownership of the shares of Company Capital Stock (any of the foregoing, an “Antitrust Restraint”).

(e) Nothing in this Section 5.6 shall limit a party’s right to terminate the Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(b) so long as such party has until such date complied in all material respects with its obligations under this Section 5.6.

5.7. Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 5.6(d), each of the parties hereto agrees to use its respective reasonable best efforts, and to cooperate with each other party hereto to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things reasonably necessary, appropriate or desirable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Merger and the other Transactions, including (i) taking all reasonable actions necessary to satisfy the respective conditions set forth in Article VI and (ii) executing and delivering such other instruments and doing and performing such other acts and things as may be reasonably necessary, appropriate or desirable to effect completely the consummation of the Merger and the other Transactions.

5.8. Third-Party Consents; Consultations.

(a) The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts (not to require a concession or expenditure other than immaterial processing or consent fees) to obtain, prior to the Closing, all consents, waivers and approvals of or under Contracts of the Company or a Subsidiary reasonably requested by Parent. For the avoidance of doubt, the failure to obtain any such consent, waiver or approval shall not constitute a breach of covenant or agreement for all purposes of this Agreement, including Section 6.3(b).

(b) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Agreement Date, the Company will initiate a process of informing and consulting appropriate representatives of its non-U.S. employees or the non-U.S. employees themselves, to the extent required under Applicable Legal Requirements, regarding a prospective transfer of employment to Parent or any of its Affiliates with effect following the Closing. Subject to Section 5.4 and Applicable Legal Requirements, the Company shall allow Parent or its relevant Affiliate to participate in such information and consultation process.

5.9. Notice of Certain Matters.

representation set forth in the first sentence of Section 2.6, or (iv) any event that occurs after the Agreement Date, that, had it occurred prior to the Agreement Date, would have constituted an exception to the representations set forth in the first sentence of Section 2.12(c).

(b) Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to notify the Company in writing promptly after obtaining knowledge of: (i) any written notice or other written communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required in connection with the Merger, (ii) any written notice or other written communication from any Governmental Entity or any official or employee of any Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger, (iii) any Legal Proceeding by or before any Governmental Entity being initiated by or against it, or known by Parent to be threatened against Parent or any of its respective directors, officers, employees or stockholders in their capacity as such, or of any written correspondence from any Person asserting or threatening a claim against Parent that relates to this Agreement or the Merger, in each of clauses (i) through (iii) that would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay Parent's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Each party will notify the other party in writing promptly after learning of any change, occurrence or event that is reasonably likely to cause any of such other party's conditions to closing set forth in Article VI not to be satisfied.

(d) No notification given pursuant to this Section 5.9 shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements herein or affect the satisfaction or non-satisfaction of any conditions to the obligations of the parties hereto under this Agreement or otherwise limit or affect the remedies available hereunder to Parent or the Company.

5.10. Employees and Contractors.

(a) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, Parent shall ensure that the Continuing Employees shall receive retirement, health and welfare benefits that in the aggregate for each such employee are no less favorable than those provided to a similarly situated employee of Parent or its Affiliates who is not a Continuing Employee taking into account the employee's geographic location.

(b) Except to the extent necessary to avoid the duplication of benefits, Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation and its other Affiliates to, recognize the service of each Continuing Employee with the Company or its Affiliates before the Effective Time (to the same extent recognized by the Company or its Affiliates immediately prior to the Effective Time) as if such service had been performed with Parent or its Affiliates for all purposes under the vacation, paid time off and severance plans maintained by Parent or its Affiliates after the Effective Time and for purposes of eligibility, vesting, level of benefit and benefit accrual (but not for purposes of benefit accrual under a defined benefit pension plan) under all other employee benefit plans or arrangements maintained by Parent or its Affiliates that such employees may be eligible to participate in after the Effective Time.

(d) This Section 5.10 shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto (meaning, for the avoidance of doubt, Parent, Sub and the Company), and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Section 5.10. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to (i) establish, amend, or modify any Company Benefit Plan or any other benefit plan, program, agreement or arrangement maintained or sponsored by Parent, the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company or any of their respective Affiliates, (ii) alter or limit the ability of Parent or any of its subsidiaries (including, after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation or any Subsidiary of the Surviving Corporation) to amend, modify or terminate any of the Company Employee Plans or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Effective Time or (iii) confer upon any current or former employee or other service provider of the Company or the Subsidiaries, any right to employment or continued employment or continued service with Parent or any of its subsidiaries (including, following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation or any Subsidiary of the Surviving Corporation), or constitute or create an employment or agreement with, or modify the at-will status of any, employee or other service.

(e) Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation and its other Affiliates to (x), assume and honor the obligations of the Company and the Subsidiaries under the Company's Executive Change in Control and Severance Benefits Agreements and any other consulting, retirement and other compensation contracts, arrangements, commitments or understandings providing for the payment of severance, in accordance with their terms, subject to the right to make amendments or modifications to the extent permitted by such terms and subject to any applicable Employment Offer Documents and (y) honor all provisions with respect to vesting, accelerated vesting and/or payment of any Unvested Company Options, Unvested Company RSUs or Unvested Company PSUs following the Merger and cause all such provisions to apply to payment of the Unvested Cash (Options/RSUs) and Unvested Cash (PSUs) to the same extent as if the applicable Unvested Company Options, Unvested Company RSUs or Unvested Company PSUs had been assumed by Parent hereunder, subject to the right to make amendments or modifications to the extent permitted by the terms thereof and subject to any applicable Employment Offer Documents.

(f) The Compensation Committee of the Company Board has finally and conclusively determined that the annual cash incentive awards under the 2017 Annual Bonus Plans for Executives, Officers and other Company employees, as applicable, relating to the 2017 calendar year shall be paid to those participants in the plan who remain employees of the Company or a Subsidiary on the earlier of (i) February 28, 2018 and (ii) immediately prior to Closing (the "Bonus Payment Date") in the amount set forth on Schedule 5.10(f) of the Company Disclosure Letter, and such bonuses shall be paid on the Bonus Payment Date.

5.11. Benefit Plans. If so directed by Parent at least 10 Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Company Board will adopt resolutions terminating any and all Company Employee Plans intended to qualify as a qualified cash or deferred arrangement under Section 401(k) of the Code and flexible spending accounts for health and dependent care (FSAs) intended to be tax exempt under Sections 105, 125 and/or 129 of the Code, effective no later than the day immediately preceding the date the Company becomes a member of the same controlled group of corporations (as defined in Section 414(b) of the Code) as Parent.

5.12. D&O Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Time until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, Parent will assume, and will cause the Surviving Corporation to fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of the Company and each of the Subsidiaries to their respective present and former directors and officers (the "Indemnified Parties") pursuant to any indemnification agreements with the Company or such Subsidiary made available to Parent and any indemnification or advancement provisions under the Company's or such Subsidiary's certificate of incorporation or bylaws (or equivalent organizational documents) as in effect on the Agreement Date with respect to their acts and omissions as directors and officers of the Company or such Subsidiary occurring prior to the Effective Time, in each case, subject to Applicable Legal Requirements. From and after the Effective Time, such obligations shall be the joint and several obligations of Parent and the Surviving Corporation. The certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation will contain provisions with respect to advancement, exculpation and indemnification that are at least as favorable in the aggregate to the Indemnified Parties as those contained in the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Company (or equivalent organizational documents) as in effect on the Agreement Date, which provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the Effective Time in any manner that adversely affects the rights thereunder of the Indemnified Parties, unless such modification is required by Applicable Legal Requirements.

(b) From the Effective Time until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall maintain in effect, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to maintain in effect, for the benefit of the Indemnified Parties with respect to their acts and omissions as directors and officers of the Company or any Subsidiary occurring prior to the Effective Time, the existing policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company or any Subsidiary as of the Agreement Date in the form made available by the Company to Parent prior to the Agreement Date (the "Existing D&O Policy"), to the extent that directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage is commercially available; provided that: (i) the Surviving Corporation may substitute for the Existing D&O Policy a policy or policies of comparable coverage, including a "tail" or "runoff" insurance policy, (ii) the Surviving Corporation shall not be required to pay annual premiums for the Existing D&O Policy (or for any substitute or "tail" policies) in excess of an amount equal to 300% of the most recently paid annual premium for the Existing D&O Policy (the "Maximum Premium") and (iii) if requested by Parent, the Company shall issue a broker of record letter acceptable to Parent permitting Parent's insurance broker to negotiate and place such "tail" or "runoff" insurance of comparable coverage, Parent shall have the right to negotiate such coverage and the Company shall reasonably cooperate therewith. In the event any future annual premiums for the Existing D&O Policy (or any substitute policies) exceed the Maximum Premium, the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to reduce the amount of coverage of the Existing D&O Policy (or any substitute or "tail" policies) to the amount of coverage that can be obtained for a premium equal to the Maximum Premium. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company in its sole discretion elects, by giving written notice to Parent at least two Business Days prior to the Effective Time, in lieu of the foregoing insurance, the Company may purchase a comparable "tail" or "runoff" extension to the Existing D&O Policy for a period of six years after the Effective Time for a premium not to exceed the Maximum Premium.

(c) This Section 5.12 shall survive the consummation of the Merger, is intended to benefit each of the Indemnified Parties, shall be binding on all successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation and shall be enforceable by each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives, and may not be amended, altered or repealed after the Effective Time without the prior written consent of the affected Indemnified Party (provided that any amendment, alteration or repeal prior the Effective Time shall be governed by Section 7.4).

5.13. Section 16 Matters. Provided that the Company delivers to Parent the Section 16 Information in a timely fashion, Parent and the Company shall take all such steps as may be required (to the extent permitted under Applicable Legal Requirements) to cause any disposition of Company Capital Stock (including derivative securities with respect to Company Capital Stock) resulting from the transactions contemplated by Article I by each Company Insider to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act. "Section 16 Information" means, with respect to each Company Insider, the number of shares of Company Capital Stock held by such Company Insider and expected to be exchanged for cash in connection with the Merger, and the number and description of the Company Options, Company RSUs and Company PSUs held by such Company Insider and expected to be converted into the right to receive cash in connection with the Merger. "Company Insiders" means those individuals who are subject to the reporting requirement of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Company.

5.15. Takeover Statutes. The Company and the Company Board shall (i) take all actions necessary to ensure that no takeover statute or similar statute or regulation is or becomes applicable to this Agreement and the Transactions and (ii) if any takeover statute or similar statute or regulation becomes applicable to this Agreement or any Transactions, take all action necessary to ensure that the Merger and the other Transactions may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and otherwise to minimize the effect of such statute or regulation on the Merger and the other Transactions.

5.16. Certain Tax Certificates and Documents. The Company shall prior to the Closing Date deliver (i) FIRPTA documentation, including (A) a notice to the Internal Revenue Service, in accordance with the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.897-2(h)(2), in the form reasonably requested by Parent, dated as of the Closing Date and executed by the Company, together with written authorization for Parent to deliver such notice form to the Internal Revenue Service on behalf of the Company after the Effective Time and (B) a FIRPTA Notification Letter, in the form reasonably requested by Parent, dated as of the Closing Date and executed by the Company and (ii) a certificate dated within three Business Days of the Closing from the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware certifying that the Company is in good standing. 5.18. Stockholder Litigation. The Company shall notify Parent of, and give Parent reasonable opportunity to participate in the defense or settlement of, any Legal Proceeding brought by current or former stockholders of the Company against the Company and/or its directors or officers relating to the Transactions ("Stockholder Litigation"). The Company shall (i) keep Parent reasonably informed of the status and material details of any such Stockholder Litigation, (ii) give Parent the right to review and comment on all material filings or responses to be made by the Company in connection with such Stockholder Litigation and (iii) not compromise, settle, come to an arrangement regarding or agree to compromise, settle or come to an arrangement regarding any Stockholder Litigation, or consent to the same without Parent's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

this Section 7.1(c) shall not be available to any party that has materially breached its obligations under this Agreement in any manner that principally caused the existence of such Order or action in any material respect;

(d) by either Parent or the Company, if the Company Stockholder Approval shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the Company Stockholder Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof; provided that the Company shall not be permitted to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(d) if the failure to obtain such Company Stockholder Approval is principally caused by any action or failure to act of the Company that constitutes a material breach of this Agreement;

(f) by Parent, upon a breach of any covenant or agreement on the part of the Company set forth in this Agreement, or if any representation or warranty of the Company shall have become inaccurate, in either case such that the condition set forth in Section 6.3(a) or Section 6.3(b) would not be satisfied as of the time of such breach or as of the time such representation or warranty shall have become inaccurate; provided that if such breach or inaccuracy is curable within 20 days (but not later than the Initial End Date or the Extended End Date, as the case may be) by the Company, then Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(f) for 20 days (or until the Initial End Date or the Extended End Date) after delivery of written notice from Parent to the Company of such breach or inaccuracy (it being understood that Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(f) if such breach or inaccuracy is cured during such period);

(g) by Parent, if a Triggering Event shall have occurred; or

(h) by the Company, if the Company Board has determined to enter into a definitive agreement to accept a Superior Proposal; provided that the Company may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(h) only if the Company has: (i) complied in all material respects with Section 5.3(d) with respect to such Superior Proposal, (ii) concurrently entered into a definitive agreement pursuant to which such Superior Proposal is to be effected and (iii) paid, or concurrently pays, to Parent all amounts due pursuant to Section 7.3(b) in accordance with the terms specified therein.

A “Triggering Event” shall be deemed to have occurred if: (A) the Company Board shall have failed to include the Company Board Recommendation in the Proxy Statement, (B) the Company Board shall have effected a Change of Recommendation, (C) the Company shall have agreed to, accepted, approved, endorsed or recommended (or publicly proposed or announced any intention to agree to, accept, approve, endorse or recommend) any Acquisition Proposal, (D) the Company shall have entered into any agreement in principle, letter of intent, term sheet or any other agreement, understanding or contract (whether binding or not) contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Proposal (other than an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement), (E) the Company Board or the Company shall have submitted any Acquisition Proposal to the vote of any securityholders of the Company or any Subsidiary, (F) the Company Board or any committee thereof shall have approved any transaction pursuant to which any third party shall have but for such approval become an “interested stockholder” under Section 203 of Delaware Law, (G) the Company shall have failed to convene or hold the Company Stockholder Meeting in accordance with Section 5.2, (H) the Company shall have breached any of the provisions of Section 5.2 or Section 5.3 in any material respect, (I) the Company Board fails to reaffirm the Company Board Recommendation within 10 Business Days after Parent requests in writing that such recommendation be reaffirmed in response to an Acquisition Proposal or material modification to an Acquisition Proposal that has been publicly announced or otherwise becomes publicly known (or if such request is delivered less than 10 Business Days prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting, no later than one Business Day prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting; provided that if such Acquisition Proposal is subsequently modified within such period, then the Company Board shall be required to reaffirm such recommendation no later than one Business Day prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting) or (J) a tender or exchange offer relating to securities of the Company shall have been commenced by a Person unaffiliated with Parent and the Company fails to send to its stockholders pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Securities Act, within 10 Business Days after such tender or exchange offer is first published, sent or given, a statement disclosing that the Company unconditionally recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer (the “Rejection Recommendation”) and reaffirms the Company Board Recommendation or fails to reaffirm the Rejection Recommendation in any press release published by the Company (or by any of its Affiliates or Company Representatives) or in any Schedule 14D-9 filed by the Company with the SEC, in each case relating to such tender offer or exchange offer, at any time after the foregoing 10 Business Day period.

7.2. Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 7.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and there shall be no liability on the part of Parent or the Company or their respective stockholders or Representatives; provided that (x) Section 5.5(a) (Confidentiality), this Section 7.2 (Effect of Termination), Section 7.3 (Expenses and Termination Fees) and Article VIII (General Provisions) shall remain in full force and effect and survive any termination of this Agreement and (y) except as provided in Section 7.3(d) and Section 7.3(e), nothing herein shall relieve any party hereto from liability as a result of fraud or the willful and material breach by such party of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements set forth in this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, “willful and material breach” shall mean a material breach that is a consequence of an act undertaken, or a failure to act, which the breaching party knew, or reasonably should have known, would, or would reasonably be expected to, result in a material breach of this Agreement.

7.3. Expenses and Termination Fees.

(a) General. Except as set forth in this Section 7.3, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Transactions shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses whether or not the Merger is consummated.

(b) Company Payment. The Company shall pay to Parent a cash amount equal to $56,000,000 (the “Termination Fee”) in the event that this Agreement is terminated: (i) pursuant to Section 7.1(g), (ii) pursuant to either Section 7.1(b) or Section 7.1(d) at a time when Parent would have been entitled to terminate pursuant to Section 7.1(g), (iii) pursuant to Section 7.1(h) or (iv) pursuant to either Section 7.1(b) (prior to the Company receiving the Company Stockholder Approval), Section 7.1(d) or Section 7.1(f) and, in the case of this clause (iv), (A) after the Agreement Date and prior to such termination, a bona fide Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Company was publicly disclosed and not publically withdrawn, and (B) within 12 months following the termination of this Agreement, either an Acquisition with respect to the Company is consummated or the Company enters into a Contract providing for an Acquisition that is subsequently consummated (even if consummated following such 12-month period). The Company shall pay to Parent the Termination Fee by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Parent promptly but in no event later than: (A) for a termination described in clause (i) or (ii), within two Business Days after the date of such termination, (B) for a termination described in clause (iii), prior to or concurrently with such termination or (C) for a termination described in clause (iv), within two Business Days after the date of the consummation of such Acquisition.

(c) Parent Expense Reimbursement. If this Agreement is terminated by (i) Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(b) or Section 7.1(c) (to the extent such Order relates to the Antitrust Laws), (ii) at the time of such termination, any of the conditions set forth in Section 6.1(b), Section 6.1(c), Section 6.1(d) or Section 6.3(c) were not satisfied or waived by Parent and (iii) at the time of such termination, each of the other conditions in Section 6.1 and Section 6.3 was satisfied (other than conditions that by their nature are only to be satisfied at the Closing; provided that such conditions were then capable of being satisfied), then Parent shall pay to the Company the Company’s reasonable fees and expenses not in excess of $10,000,000 in connection with any filings and review of the Transactions under Antitrust Laws within two Business Days after the Company's submission of reasonable documentation of such fees and expenses (the "Parent Expense Reimbursement").

(d) The Company acknowledges that (i) the agreements contained in Section 7.3(b) are an integral part of the Transactions, (ii) the amount of, and the basis for payment of, the Termination Fee is reasonable and appropriate in all respects and (iii) without this agreement, Parent would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails to pay in a timely manner the Termination Fee due pursuant to Section 7.3(b), and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent makes a claim that results in a judgment for the amounts set forth in Section 7.3(b), the Company shall pay to Parent its reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amount set forth in Section 7.3(b) at the prime rate of Bank of America, N.A. in effect from time to time from the date such payment was required to be made hereunder. All payments under Section 7.3(b) and this Section 7.3(d) shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Parent. Payment of the Termination Fee (and any additional amounts required under this Section 7.3(c)) to Parent by the Company in accordance with this Agreement shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Parent and shall be deemed to be liquidated damages for any actual or purported breach of this Agreement and for any and all losses or damages suffered or incurred by Parent or any of its Affiliates in connection with this Agreement (and the termination hereof), the Transactions (and the abandonment thereof) or any matter forming the basis for such termination and, after such payment has been made, the Company and its Affiliates shall have no further liability for any such actual or purported breach or for any and all losses or damages suffered or incurred by Parent or any of its Affiliates in connection with this Agreement (and the termination hereof), the Transactions (and the abandonment thereof) or any matter forming the basis for such termination.

(e) Parent acknowledges that (i) the agreements contained in Section 7.3(c) are an integral part of the Transactions, (ii) the amount of, and the basis for payment of, the Parent Expense Reimbursement is reasonable and appropriate in all respects and (iii) without this agreement, the Company would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if Parent fails to pay in a timely manner the Parent Expense Reimbursement due pursuant to Section 7.3(c), and, in order to obtain such payment, the Company makes a claim that results in a judgment for the amounts set forth in Section 7.3(c), Parent shall pay to the Company its reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amount set forth in Section 7.3(c) at the prime rate of Bank of America, N.A. in effect from time to time from the date such payment was required to be made hereunder. All payments under Section 7.3(c) and this Section 7.3(e) shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by the Company.

(f) "Acquisition" means any of the following transactions (other than the Transactions): (i) a merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction or series of transactions involving the Company pursuant to which the stockholders of the Company immediately preceding such transaction or series of transactions hold less than 50% of the aggregate equity interests in the surviving or resulting entity of such transaction or series of transactions or any direct or indirect parent thereto, (ii) a sale or other disposition in a transaction or series of transactions by the Company or the Subsidiaries of assets representing in excess of 50% of the aggregate fair market value of the assets of the Company and the Subsidiaries immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions or (iii) the acquisition by any Person or Group (including by way of a tender offer or an exchange offer or issuance by the Company), directly or indirectly, in a transaction or series of transactions, of beneficial ownership or a right to acquire beneficial ownership of shares representing in excess of 50% of the voting power of the shares of Company Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions.

(g) The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that in no event shall the Company be required to pay the Termination Fee on more than one occasion, whether or not the Termination Fee may be payable under more than one provision of this Agreement at the same or at different time and the occurrence of different events.

7.4. Amendment. Subject to Applicable Legal Requirements, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after the Company Stockholder Approval has been obtained pursuant to an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto; provided that, after the Company Stockholder Approval has been obtained, no such amendment shall be made to the extent that Applicable Legal Requirements would require further approval by the Company's stockholders without such further stockholder approval.

7.5. Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, any party hereto may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to such party contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto or (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of such party contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. The agreement of Parent to any extension or waiver shall be deemed to be the agreement of Sub to such extension or waiver. No delay in exercising any rights under this Agreement shall constitute a waiver of such right, and no waiver of any breach or default shall be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default of the same or any other provision of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

If the Merger is consummated, the representations and warranties of Parent, Sub and the Company contained in this Agreement, the Company Disclosure Letter (including any exhibit, schedule or annex to the Company Disclosure Letter) and the other agreements, certificates and documents contemplated by this Agreement shall expire and be of no further force or effect as of the Effective Time, and only such covenants and agreements of Parent and the Company in this Agreement and the other agreements, certificates and documents contemplated by this Agreement that by their terms survive the Effective Time shall survive the Effective Time.

8.3. Interpretation.

(a) When a reference is made in this Agreement to Articles, Sections or Exhibits, such reference shall be to an Article or Section of, or an Exhibit to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. When a reference is made to a Schedule, such reference shall be to a Schedule of the Company Disclosure Letter. Where a reference is made to an Applicable Legal Requirement, such reference is to such Applicable Legal Requirement as then in effect. Where a reference is made to a Contract or instrument such reference is to such Contract or instrument as then in effect. The headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

(b) The words “include,” “includes” and “including” when used herein shall be deemed in each case to be followed by the words “without limitation.” The phrases “provide to” and “deliver to” and phrases of similar import when used herein, unless the context otherwise requires, shall mean that a true, correct and complete paper or electronic copy of the information or material referred to has been delivered to the party to whom such information or material is to be provided. Unless the context of this Agreement otherwise requires: (i) words of any gender include each other gender, (ii) words using the singular or plural number also include the plural or singular number, respectively and (iii) the terms “hereof,” “herein,” “hereto,” “hereunder” and derivative or similar words refer to this entire Agreement and (iv) references to clauses without a cross-reference to a Section or subsection are references to clauses within the same Section or, if more specific, subsection. References to any Person include the successors and permitted assigns of that Person. References to any statute are to that statute, as then in effect, and to the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. References to “$” and “dollars” are to the currency of the United States. References from or through any date shall mean, unless otherwise specified, from and including or through and including, respectively. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. The word “extent” in the phrase “to the extent” shall mean the degree to which a subject or other thing extends, and such phrase shall not mean simply “if.” All references to “days” shall be to calendar days unless otherwise indicated as a “Business Day.”

(c) Unless indicated otherwise, all mathematical calculations contemplated by this Agreement shall be rounded to the tenth decimal place.

(d) The 0.5% threshold established by the parties hereto with respect to the Company's capitalization in Section 6.3(a) shall not, in and of itself, constitute an economic benchmark for determining whether any Effect shall be deemed to be material in relation to the Company and the Business or shall be deemed to constitute a Material Adverse Effect.

8.4. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same instrument and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties hereto and delivered to the other parties hereto; it being understood that all parties hereto need not sign the same counterpart.

8.5. Entire Agreement; Parties in Interest. This Agreement and the documents and instruments and other agreements specifically referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto, including all schedules and exhibits attached hereto, and the Company Disclosure Letter, (i) constitute the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof, except for the Confidentiality Agreement, which shall continue in full force and effect, and shall survive any termination of this Agreement, in accordance with its terms, and (ii) are not intended to confer, and shall not be construed as conferring, upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, except the Indemnified Parties as expressly set forth in Section 5.12.

8.6. Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement may be assigned or delegated, in whole or in part, by operation of law or otherwise by any of the parties hereto without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, and any such assignment or delegation without such prior written consent shall be null and void, except that Parent may make such assignment or delegation to any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent without the prior consent of any other party hereto; provided that Parent shall remain liable for all of its obligations under this Agreement. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

8.7. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof, becomes or is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect and shall be interpreted so as reasonably necessary to effect the intent of the parties hereto. The parties hereto shall use all reasonable efforts to replace such void or unenforceable provision of this Agreement with a valid and enforceable provision that shall achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such void or unenforceable provision.

8.8. Remedies Cumulative; Specific Performance. Except as otherwise provided herein (including Section 7.3), any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party hereto shall be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party hereto of any one remedy shall not preclude the exercise of any other remedy and nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed a waiver by any party of any right to specific performance or injunctive relief. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties hereto shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity, and the parties hereto hereby waive the requirement of any posting of a bond in connection with the remedies described herein. Each of the parties agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief on the basis that the other party has an adequate remedy at law or an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity.

8.9. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws, provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of laws of any jurisdictions other than those of the State of Delaware. ARTICLE I
STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1.1: Annual Meetings. Unless directors are elected by written consent in lieu of an annual meeting, as permitted by Section 211 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, an annual meeting of stockholders shall be held for the election of directors at such date and time as the Board of Directors shall each year fix. The meeting may be held either at a place, within or without the State of Delaware, or by means of remote communication as the Board of Directors in its sole discretion may determine. Any other proper business may be transacted at the annual meeting.

Section 1.2: Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Board of Directors, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors. Special meetings may not be called by any other person or persons.

Section 1.3: Notice of Meetings. Notice of all meetings of stockholders shall be given in writing or by electronic transmission in the manner provided by law (including, without limitation, as set forth in Section 7.1(b) of these Bylaws) stating the date, time and place, if any, of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Unless otherwise required by applicable law or the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, such notice shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 1.4: Adjournments. The chair of any meeting of stockholders shall determine the order of business and the procedure at the meeting, including such regulation of the manner of voting and the conduct of discussion as seems to him or her to be in order. The chair shall have the power to adjourn the meeting to another time, date and place (if any). Any meeting of stockholders may adjourn from time to time, and notice need not be given of any such adjourned meeting if the time, date and place (if any) thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken; provided, however, that if the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, then a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. At the adjourned meeting the Corporation may transact any business that might have been transacted at the original meeting.

Section 1.5: Quorum. At each meeting of stockholders the holders of a majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote at the meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except if otherwise required by applicable law. If a quorum shall fail to attend any meeting, the chairperson of the meeting or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote who are present, in person or by proxy, at the meeting may adjourn the meeting. Shares of the Corporation's stock belonging to the Corporation (or to another corporation, if a majority of the shares entitled to vote in the election of directors of such other corporation are held, directly or indirectly, by the Corporation), shall neither be entitled to vote nor be counted for quorum purposes; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not limit the right of the Corporation or any other corporation to vote any shares of the Corporation's stock held by it in a fiduciary capacity and to count such shares for purposes of determining a quorum.

Section 1.6: Organization. Meetings of stockholders shall be presided over by such person as the Board of Directors may designate, or, in the absence of such a person, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors, or, in the absence of such person, the President of the Corporation, or, in the absence of such person, such person as may be chosen by the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote who are present, in person or by proxy, at the meeting. Such person shall be chairperson of the meeting and, subject to Section 1.11 hereof, shall determine the order of business and the procedure at the meeting, including such regulation of the manner of voting and the conduct of discussion as seems to him or her to be in order. The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in such person's absence the chairperson of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Section 1.7: Voting; Proxies. Unless otherwise provided by law or the Certificate of Incorporation, and subject to the provisions of Section 1.8 of these Bylaws, each stockholder shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each share of stock held by such stockholder. Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders, or to take corporate action by written consent without a meeting, may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder by proxy. Such a proxy may be prepared, transmitted and delivered in any manner permitted by applicable law. Voting at meetings of stockholders need not be by written ballot unless such is demanded at the meeting before voting begins by a stockholder or stockholders holding shares representing at least one percent (1%) of the votes entitled to vote at such meeting, or by such stockholder's or stockholders' proxy; provided, however, that an election of directors shall be by written ballot if demand is so made by any stockholder at the meeting before voting begins. If a vote is to be taken by written ballot, then each such ballot shall state the name of the stockholder or proxy voting and such other information as the chairperson of the meeting deems appropriate and, if authorized by the Board of Directors, the ballot may be submitted by electronic transmission in the manner provided by law. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors. Unless otherwise provided by applicable law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, every matter other than the election of directors shall be decided by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote thereon that are present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and are voted for or against the matter.

Section 1.8: Fixing Date for Determination of Stockholders of Record. In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to take corporate action by written consent without a meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, or entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date, which shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors and which shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. If no record date is fixed by the Board of Directors, then the record date shall be as provided by applicable law. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 1.9: List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. A complete list of stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder, shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either on a reasonably accessible electronic network as permitted by law (provided that the information required to gain access to the list is provided with the notice of the meeting) or during ordinary business hours at the principal place of business of the Corporation. If the meeting is held at a place, the list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present at the meeting. If the meeting is held solely by means of remote communication, then the list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder during the whole time of the meeting on a reasonably accessible electronic network, and the information required to access the list shall be provided with the notice of the meeting.

Section 1.10: Action by Written Consent of Stockholders.

(a) Procedure. Unless otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents are in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed in the manner permitted by law by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Written stockholder consents shall bear the date of signature of each stockholder who signs the consent in the manner permitted by law and shall be delivered to the Corporation as provided in subsection (b) below. No written consent shall be effective to take the action set forth therein unless, within sixty (60) days of the earliest dated consent delivered to the Corporation in the manner provided above, written consents signed by a sufficient number of stockholders to take the action set forth therein are delivered to the Corporation in the manner provided above.

(b) A telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission consenting to an action to be taken and transmitted by a stockholder or proxyholder, or a person or persons authorized to act for a stockholder or proxyholder, shall be deemed to be written, signed and dated for the purposes of this section, provided that any such telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission sets forth or is delivered with information from which the Corporation can determine (i) that the telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission was transmitted by the stockholder or proxyholder or by a person or persons authorized to act for the stockholder or proxyholder and (ii) the date on which such stockholder or proxyholder or authorized person or persons transmitted such telegram, cablegram or electronic transmission. The date on which such telegram, cablegram or electronic transmission is transmitted shall be deemed to be the date on which such consent was signed. No consent given by telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission shall be deemed to have been delivered until such consent is reproduced in paper form and until such paper form shall be delivered to the Corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State of Delaware, its principal place of business or an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to a Corporation's registered office shall be made by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations on delivery, consents given by telegram, cablegram or other electronic transmission may be otherwise delivered to the principal place of business of the Corporation or to an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded if, to the extent and in the manner provided by resolution of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(c) Notice of Consent. Prompt notice of the taking of corporate action by stockholders without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent of the stockholders shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented thereto in writing and, who, if the action had been taken at a meeting, would have been entitled to notice of the meeting, if the record date for such meeting had been the date that written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take the action were delivered to the Corporation as required by law. In the case of a Certificate of Action (as defined below), if the Delaware General Corporation Law so requires, such notice shall be given prior to filing of the certificate in question. If the action which is consented to requires the filing of a certificate under the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "Certificate of Action"), then if the Delaware General Corporation Law so requires, the certificate so filed shall state that written stockholder consent has been given in accordance with Section 228 of the Delaware General Corporation Law and that written notice of the taking of corporate action by stockholders without a meeting as described herein has been given as provided in such section.

Section 1.11: Inspectors of Elections.

(a) Applicability. Unless otherwise provided in the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation or required by the Delaware General Corporation Law, the following provisions of this Section 1.11 shall apply only if and when the Corporation has a class of voting stock that is: (i) listed on a national securities exchange; (ii) authorized for quotation on an automated interdealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; or (iii) held of record by more than two thousand (2,000) stockholders. In all other cases, observance of the provisions of this Section 1.11 shall be optional, and at the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

(b) Appointment. The Corporation shall, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, appoint one or more inspectors of election to act at the meeting and make a written report thereof. The Corporation may designate one or more persons as alternate inspectors to replace any inspector who fails to act. If no inspector or alternate is able to act at a meeting of stockholders, the person presiding at the meeting shall appoint one or more inspectors to act at the meeting.

(c) Inspector's Oath. Each inspector of election, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of such inspector's ability.

(d) Duties of Inspectors. At a meeting of stockholders, the inspectors of election shall (i) ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each share, (ii) determine the shares represented at a meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots, (iii) count all votes and ballots, (iv) determine and retain for a reasonable period of time a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the inspectors, and (v) certify their determination of the number of shares represented at the meeting, and their count of all votes and ballots. The inspectors may appoint or retain other persons or entities to assist the inspectors in the performance of the duties of the inspectors.

(e) Opening and Closing of Polls. The date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be announced by the inspectors at the meeting. No ballot, proxies or votes, nor any revocations thereof or changes thereto, shall be accepted by the inspectors after the closing of the polls unless the Court of Chancery upon application by a stockholder shall determine otherwise.

(f) Determinations. In determining the validity and counting of proxies and ballots, the inspectors shall be limited to an examination of the proxies, any envelopes submitted with those proxies, any information provided in connection with proxies in accordance with Section 212(c)(2) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, ballots and the regular books and records of the Corporation, except that the inspectors may consider other reliable information for the limited purpose of reconciling proxies and ballots submitted by or on behalf of banks, brokers, their nominees or similar persons which represent more votes than the holder of a proxy is authorized by the record owner to cast or more votes than the stockholder holds of record. If the inspectors consider other reliable information for the limited purpose permitted herein, the inspectors at the time they make their certification of their determinations pursuant to this Section 1.11 shall specify the precise information considered by them, including the person or persons from whom they obtained the information, when the information was obtained, the means by which the information was obtained and the basis for the inspectors' belief that such information is accurate and reliable.

The initial number of directors shall be one (1) and thereafter shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. Section 2.3: Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such places, within or without the State of Delaware, and at such times as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Section 2.6: Quorum; Vote Required for Action. At all meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the total number of authorized directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Certificate of Incorporation, or required by law, the vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Any such committee, to the extent provided in a resolution of the Board of Directors, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers that may require it; but no such committee shall have the power or authority in reference to the following matters: (i) approving, adopting, or recommending to the stockholders any action or matter expressly required by the Delaware General Corporation Law to be submitted to stockholders for approval or (ii) adopting, amending or repealing any bylaw of the Corporation.

Any or all of the signatures on the certificate may be a facsimile.

Section 5.2: Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Stock Certificates; Issuance of New Certificates. The Corporation may issue a new certificate of stock in the place of any certificate previously issued by it, alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, and the Corporation may require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or such owner's legal representative, to agree to indemnify the Corporation and/or to give the Corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it, against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 5.3: Other Regulations. The issue, transfer, conversion and registration of stock certificates shall be governed by such other regulations as the Board of Directors may establish.

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 6.1: Indemnification of Officers and Directors. Each person who was or is made a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (the "Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person (or a person of whom such person is the legal representative), is or was a director or officer of the Corporation or a Reincorporated Predecessor (as defined below) or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation or a Reincorporated Predecessor (as defined below) as a director or officer of another corporation, or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Corporation to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law, against all expenses, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes and penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith, provided such person acted in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or Proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. Such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and administrators. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnity in connection with a Proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such Proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. As used herein, the term the “Reincorporated Predecessor” means a corporation that is merged with and into the Corporation in a statutory merger where (a) the Corporation is the surviving corporation of such merger; (b) the primary purpose of such merger is to change the corporate domicile of the Reincorporated Predecessor to Delaware.

Section 6.2: Advance of Expenses. The Corporation shall pay all expenses (including attorneys’ fees) incurred by such a director or officer in defending any such Proceeding as they are incurred in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that if the Delaware General Corporation Law then so requires, the payment of such expenses incurred by such a director or officer in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding shall be made only upon delivery to the Corporation of an undertaking, by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it should be determined ultimately that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article VI or otherwise; and provided, further, that the Corporation shall not be required to advance any expenses to a person against whom the Corporation directly brings a claim, in a Proceeding, alleging that such person has breached such person’s duty of loyalty to the Corporation, committed an act or omission not in good faith or that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or derived an improper personal benefit from a transaction.

Section 6.3: Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights conferred on any person in this Article VI shall not be exclusive of any other right that such person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaw, agreement, vote or consent of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. Additionally, nothing in this Article VI shall limit the ability of the Corporation, in its discretion, to indemnify or advance expenses to persons whom the Corporation is not obligated to indemnify or advance expenses pursuant to this Article VI.

Section 6.4: Indemnification Contracts. The Board of Directors is authorized to cause the Corporation to enter into indemnification contracts with any director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or any person serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including employee benefit plans, providing indemnification rights to such person. Such rights may be greater than those provided in this Article VI.

Section 6.5: Effect of Amendment. Any amendment, repeal or modification of any provision of this Article VI shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any right or protection conferred on a person pursuant to this Article VI and existing at the time of such amendment, repeal or modification.

ARTICLE VII

NOTICES

Section 7.1: Notice. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided in these Bylaws (including, without limitation, Section 7.1(b) below) or required by law, all notices required to be given pursuant to these Bylaws shall be in writing and may in every instance be effectively given by hand delivery (including use of a delivery service), by depositing such notice in the mail, postage prepaid, or by sending such notice by prepaid telegram, telex, overnight express courier, mailgram or facsimile. Any such notice shall be addressed to the person to whom notice is to be given at such person’s address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. The notice shall be deemed given (i) in the case of hand delivery, when received by the person to whom notice is to be given or by any person accepting such notice on behalf of such person, (ii) in the case of delivery by mail, upon deposit in the mail, (iii) in the case of delivery by overnight express courier, when dispatched, and (iv) in the case of delivery via telegram, telex, mailgram, or facsimile, when dispatched.

(b) Without limiting the manner by which notice otherwise may be given effectively to stockholders, any notice to stockholders given by the Corporation under any provision of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the Certificate of Incorporation, or these Bylaws shall be effective if given by a form of electronic transmission consented to by the stockholder to whom the notice is given. Any such consent shall be revocable by the stockholder by written notice to the Corporation. Any such consent shall be deemed revoked if (i) the Corporation is unable to deliver by electronic transmission two consecutive notices given by the Corporation in accordance with such consent and (ii) such inability becomes known to the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Corporation or to the transfer agent, or other person responsible for the giving of notice; provided, however, the inadvertent failure to treat such inability as a revocation shall not invalidate any meeting or other action. Notice given pursuant to this Section 7.1(b) shall be deemed given: (i) if by facsimile telecommunication, when directed to a number at which the stockholder has consented to receive notice; (ii) if by electronic mail, when directed to an electronic mail address at which the stockholder has consented to receive notice; (iii) if by a posting on an electronic network together with separate notice to the stockholder of such specific posting, upon the later of (A) such posting and (B) the giving of such separate notice; and (iv) if by any other form of electronic transmission, when directed to the stockholder.

(c) An affidavit of the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or of the transfer agent or other agent of the Corporation that the notice has been given in writing or by a form of electronic transmission shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Section 7.2: Waiver of Notice. Whenever notice is required to be given under any provision of these Bylaws, a written waiver of notice, signed by the person entitled to notice, or waiver by electronic transmission by such person, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the stockholders, directors or members of a committee of directors need be specified in any waiver of notice.

INTERESTED DIRECTORS

Section 8.1: Interested Directors; Quorum. No contract or transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the Corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be void or voidable solely for this reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board of Directors or committee thereof that authorizes the contract or transaction, or solely because his, her or their votes are counted for such purpose, if: (i) the material facts as to his, her or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or the committee, and the Board of Directors or committee in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by the affirmative votes of a majority of the disinterested directors, even though the disinterested directors be less than a quorum; (ii) the material facts as to his, her or their relationship or interest and as to the contract or transaction are disclosed or are known to the stockholders entitled to vote thereon, and the contract or transaction is specifically approved in good faith by vote of the stockholders; or (iii) the contract or transaction is fair as to the Corporation as of the time it is authorized, approved or ratified by the Board of Directors, a committee thereof, or the stockholders. Interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which authorizes the contract or transaction.

ARTICLE IX

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.2: Seal. The Board of Directors may provide for a corporate seal, which shall have the name of the Corporation inscribed thereon and shall otherwise be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 9.3: Form of Records. Any records maintained by the Corporation in the regular course of its business, including its stock ledger, books of account and minute books, may be kept on or by means of, or be in the form of, diskettes, or any other information storage device or method, provided that the records so kept can be converted into clearly legible paper form within a reasonable time. The Corporation shall so convert any records so kept upon the request of any person entitled to inspect such records pursuant to any provision of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Section 9.4: Reliance Upon Books and Records. A member of the Board of Directors, or a member of any committee designated by the Board of Directors shall, in the performance of such person's duties, be fully protected in relying in good faith upon records of the Corporation and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Corporation by any of the Corporation's officers or employees, or committees of the Board of Directors, or by any other person as to matters the member reasonably believes are within such other person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Corporation.

Section 9.5: Certificate of Incorporation Governs. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, the provisions of the Certificate of Incorporation shall govern.

Section 9.6: Severability. If any provision of these Bylaws shall be held to be invalid, illegal, unenforceable or in conflict with the provisions of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, then such provision shall nonetheless be enforced to the maximum extent possible consistent with such holding and the remaining provisions of these Bylaws (including without limitation, all portions of any section of these Bylaws containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal, unenforceable or in conflict with the Certificate of Incorporation, that are not themselves invalid, illegal, unenforceable or in conflict with the Certificate of Incorporation) shall remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE X

AMENDMENT

Section 10.1: Amendments. Stockholders of the Corporation holding a majority of the Corporation's outstanding voting stock shall have the power to adopt, amend or repeal Bylaws. To the extent provided in the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall also have the power to adopt, amend or repeal Bylaws of the Corporation, except insofar as Bylaws adopted by the stockholders shall otherwise provide.

Board of Directors
BroadSoft, Inc.
9737 Washingtonian, Blvd., Suite 350
Gaithersburg, MD 20878

Members of the Board:

We understand that BroadSoft, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), Cisco Systems, Inc., a California corporation (“Parent”), and Brooklyn Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”), have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 20, 2017 (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which, among other things, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (the “Merger”). At the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”) each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (“Company Common Stock”), other than Dissenting Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and shares cancelled pursuant to Section 1.8(c) of the Merger Agreement, will be automatically converted into the right to receive, subject to and in accordance with Section 1.9 of the Merger Agreement, $55.00 in cash, without interest (the “Per Share Cash Amount”). The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Per Share Cash Amount to be received pursuant to, and in accordance with, the terms of the Merger Agreement by the holders of shares of Company Common Stock, other than Parent or any affiliate of Parent, (the “Holders”) is fair, from a financial point of view, to such Holders.

For purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have reviewed the Merger Agreement, certain related documents and certain publicly available financial statements and other business and financial information of the Company. We have also reviewed certain forward-looking information relating to the Company prepared by the management of the Company, including financial projections and operating data (the “Company Projections”). Additionally, we discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of the Company with senior management of the Company. We also reviewed the historical market prices and trading activity for Company Common Stock and compared the financial performance of the Company and the prices and trading activity of Company Common Stock with that of certain other selected publicly-traded companies and their securities. In addition, we reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of selected acquisition transactions and we performed such other analyses, reviewed such other information and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate.

In arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information that was publicly available or supplied or otherwise made available to, or discussed with, us by the Company. With respect to the Company Projections, we have been advised by the management of the Company, and have assumed, that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company of the future financial performance of the Company and other matters covered thereby. We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement, without any modification, waiver or delay. In addition, we have assumed that in connection with the receipt of all the necessary approvals of the proposed Merger, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions will be imposed that could have an adverse effect on the Company or Parent or the contemplated benefits expected to be derived in the proposed Merger. We have not made any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or its affiliates, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluation or appraisal. In addition, we have relied, without independent verification, upon the assessment of the management of the Company as to the existing and future technology and products of the Company and the risks associated with such technology and products.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of the Company in connection with this transaction and will receive a fee for our services payable upon rendering of this opinion. We will also receive an additional, larger fee if the Merger is consummated. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse our expenses and indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. During the two year period prior to the date hereof, no material relationship existed between Qatalyst or any of its affiliates and the Company or Parent pursuant to which compensation was received by Qatalyst or its affiliates; however Qatalyst and/or its affiliates may in the future provide investment banking and other financial services to the Company and Parent and their respective affiliates for which we or they would expect to receive compensation.

Qatalyst provides investment banking and other services to a wide range of corporations and individuals, domestically and offshore, from which conflicting interests or duties may arise. In the ordinary course of these activities, affiliates of Qatalyst may at any time hold long or short positions, and may trade or otherwise effect transactions in debt or equity securities or loans of the Company, Parent or certain of their respective affiliates.

This opinion has been approved by our opinion committee in accordance with our customary practice. This opinion is for the information of the Board of Directors of the Company and may not be used for any other purpose without our prior written consent. This opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Company Common Stock should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter and does not in any manner address the prices at which Company Common Stock will trade at any time.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof may affect this opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and we do not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this opinion. Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Merger, or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to the Company. Our opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Per Share Cash Amount to be received by the Holders pursuant to, and in accordance with, the terms of the Merger Agreement, and we express no opinion with respect to the fairness of the amount, nature or timing of the compensation to any of the Company's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, relative to such Per Share Cash Amount.

Yours faithfully,

The Board of Directors
BroadSoft, Inc.
9737 Washingtonian Boulevard, Suite 350
Gaithersburg, MD 20878

Members of the Board:

We understand that BroadSoft, Inc. (the “Company”), Cisco Systems, Inc. (“Parent”), and Brooklyn Acquisition Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which, among other things, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation (the “Merger”). At the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”) each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (“Company Common Stock”), other than Dissenting Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and shares cancelled pursuant to Section 1.8(c) of the Merger Agreement, will be automatically converted into the right to receive, subject to and in accordance with Section 1.9 of the Merger Agreement, $55.00 in cash, without interest (the “Per Share Cash Amount”). The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked for our opinion as to whether the Per Share Cash Amount to be received by the holders of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders (other than Parent or any affiliate of Parent).

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things:

- (i) reviewed a draft dated October 20, 2017 of the Merger Agreement;
- (ii) reviewed certain publicly available financial and other information about the Company;
- (iii) reviewed certain information furnished to us by the Company’s management, including financial forecasts and analyses, relating to the business, operations and prospects of the Company;
- (iv) held discussions with members of senior management of the Company concerning the matters described in clauses (ii) and (iii) above;
- (v) reviewed the share trading price history and valuation multiples for the Company Common Stock and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that we deemed relevant;
- (vi) reviewed the proposed financial terms of the Merger and compared them with the publicly available financial terms of certain other transactions that we deemed relevant; and

(vii) conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

In our review and analysis and in rendering this opinion, we have assumed and relied upon, but have not assumed any responsibility to independently investigate or verify, the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information that was supplied or otherwise made available by the Company or that was publicly available to us (including, without limitation, the information described above), or that was otherwise reviewed by us. We have relied on assurances of the management of the Company that it is not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information incomplete, inaccurate or misleading. In our review, we did not obtain any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (contingent, derivative, off-balance sheet or otherwise) of, nor did we conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or facilities of, the Company, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals of such physical inspections, nor do we assume any responsibility to obtain any such evaluations or appraisals.

With respect to the financial forecasts and estimates (including estimates as to potential net operating loss carryforwards of the Company on a standalone basis) provided to and reviewed by us, we note that projecting future results of any company is inherently subject to uncertainty. The Company has advised us, however, and we have assumed, that such financial forecasts and estimates relating to the Company that we have been directed to utilize in our analyses were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the management of the Company as to the future financial performance of the Company. We express no opinion as to the Company's financial forecasts or estimates or the assumptions on which they are made.

Our opinion is based on economic, monetary, regulatory, market and other conditions existing and which can be evaluated as of the date hereof. We expressly disclaim any undertaking or obligation to advise any person of any change in any fact or matter affecting our opinion of which we become aware after the date hereof.

We have made no independent investigation of any legal, regulatory, accounting or tax matters affecting the Company or the Merger, and we have assumed the correctness in all respects meaningful to our analysis of all legal and accounting advice given to the Company and its Board of Directors, including, without limitation, advice as to the legal, regulatory, accounting and tax consequences of the terms of, and transactions contemplated by, the Merger Agreement to the Company and its stockholders. In addition, in preparing this opinion, we have not taken into account any tax or other consequences of the Merger to, or individual circumstances of, any holder of Company Common Stock. We have assumed that the final form of the Merger Agreement, when signed by the parties thereto, will be substantially similar to the last draft reviewed by us and that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with its terms without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement and in compliance with all applicable laws, documents and other requirements. We have also assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary governmental, regulatory or third party approvals, consents, waivers and releases for the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed or occur that would have an adverse effect on the Company, Parent or that otherwise would be meaningful in any respect to our analyses or opinion.

It is understood that our opinion is for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of the Company in its evaluation of the Per Share Cash Amount from a financial point of view. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement as compared to any alternative transaction or opportunity that might be available to the Company, nor does it address the underlying business decision by the Company to engage in the Merger or the terms of the Merger Agreement or the documents referred to therein, including the form or structure of the Merger or any term, aspect or implication of any guarantee, financing or other arrangements, agreements or understandings entered into in connection with, or contemplated by or resulting from, the Merger or otherwise. Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of shares of Company Common Stock should vote or act with respect to the Merger or any other matter. In addition, no opinion or view is expressed with respect to, and this opinion does not address, the fairness to, or any other consideration of, the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company, other than the holders of shares of Company Common Stock. We express no opinion as to the price at which shares of Company Common Stock will trade at any time. Furthermore, we do not express any view or opinion as to the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount or nature of any compensation or other consideration payable or to be received by any of the Company's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, in connection with the Merger relative to the Per Share Cash Amount to be received by holders of shares of Company Common Stock. The issuance of our opinion has been authorized by the Fairness Committee of Jefferies LLC.

We have been engaged by the Company to act as a financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which is payable upon delivery of this opinion and a significant portion of which is payable contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We also are entitled to be reimbursed for expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us against liabilities arising out of or in connection with the services rendered and to be rendered by us under such engagement.

As you are aware, we and our affiliates have, and in the future may provide financial advisory and financing services to the Company and may continue to do so and have received, and may receive, fees for the rendering of such services. We maintain a market in the securities of the Company, and in the ordinary course of our business, we and our affiliates may trade or hold securities of the Company or Parent and/or their respective affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in those securities. In addition, we may seek to, in the future, provide financial advisory and financing services to the Company, Parent or entities that are affiliated with the Company or Parent, for which we would expect to receive compensation. Except as otherwise expressly provided in our engagement letter with the Company, our opinion may not be used or referred to by the Company, or quoted or disclosed to any person in any matter, without our prior written consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Per Share Cash Amount to be received by the holders of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders (other than Parent or any affiliate of Parent).

Very truly yours,

/s/ JEFFERIES LLC

As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in 1 or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to § 251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to § 251(g) of this title and, subject to paragraph (b)(3) of this section, § 251(h) of this title), § 252, § 254, § 255, § 256, § 257, § 258, § 263 or § 264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that, except as expressly provided in § 363(b) of this title, no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either: (i) listed on a national securities exchange or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in § 251(f) of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b)(1) of this section, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§ 251, 252, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

- a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;
- b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;
- c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a. and b. of this section; or
- d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing paragraphs (b)(2)a., b. and c. of this section.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under § 251(h), § 253 or § 267 of this title is not owned by the parent immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(4) In the event of an amendment to a corporation's certificate of incorporation contemplated by § 363(a) of this title, appraisal rights shall be available as contemplated by § 363(b) of this title, and the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as practicable, with the word "amendment" substituted for the words "merger or consolidation," and the word "corporation" substituted for the words "constituent corporation" and/or "surviving or resulting corporation."

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the provisions of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d), (e), and (g) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for notice of such meeting (or such members who received notice in accordance with § 255(c) of this title) with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) of this section that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228, § 251(h), § 253, or § 267 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section and, if 1 of the constituent corporations is a nonstock corporation, a copy of § 114 of this title. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, within the later of the consummation of the offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice or, in the case of a merger approved pursuant to § 251(h) of this title, later than the later of the consummation of the offer contemplated by § 251(h) of this title and 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may commence an appraisal proceeding by filing a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) of this section hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) of this section hereof, whichever is later. Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, a person who is the beneficial owner of shares of such stock held either in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file a petition or request from the corporation the statement described in this subsection.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder. If immediately before the merger or consolidation the shares of the class or series of stock of the constituent corporation as to which appraisal rights are available were listed on a national securities exchange, the Court shall dismiss the proceedings as to all holders of such shares who are otherwise entitled to appraisal rights unless (1) the total number of shares entitled to appraisal exceeds 1% of the outstanding shares of the class or series eligible for appraisal, (2) the value of the consideration provided in the merger or consolidation for such total number of shares exceeds $1 million, or (3) the merger was approved pursuant to § 253 or § 267 of this title.

(h) After the Court determines the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the appraisal proceeding shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the Court of Chancery, including any rules specifically governing appraisal proceedings. Through such proceeding the Court shall determine the fair value of the shares exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. Unless the Court in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, and except as provided in this subsection, interest from the effective date of the merger through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective date of the merger and the date of payment of the judgment. At any time before the entry of judgment in the proceedings, the surviving corporation may pay to each stockholder entitled to appraisal an amount in cash, in which case interest shall accrue thereafter as provided herein only upon the sum of (1) the difference, if any, between the amount so paid and the fair value of the shares as determined by the Court, and (2) interest theretofore accrued, unless paid at that time. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholders entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however that this provision shall not affect the right of any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal proceeding or joined that proceeding as a named party to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, as set forth in subsection (e) of this section.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
